

Ag Distancemen Go For 3rd Win

ILHAN BILGUTAY

A&M's defending SWC champion cross-country team goes after its third win of the season this weekend at the University of Texas Invitational Meet in Austin.

College teams throughout the state, Oklahoma and New Mexico will be competing.

The Aggies have won two matches against three defeats thus far. The thinclads have beaten SMU and Texas to hold first place in the SWC standings.

Their losses have come at the hands of the University of Houston, twice, and Howard Payne. The Cougars sport seven Australian runners, including the younger brother of record-breaking miler

Herb Elliott.

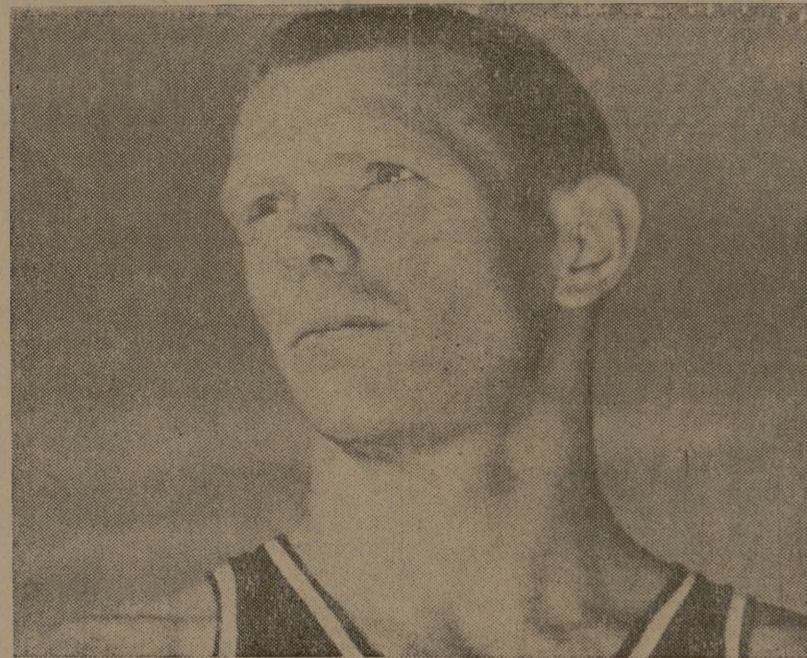

Following the invitational meet in Austin, the Aggies travel to Brownwood for an invitational meet there.

The Aggies finish the season in Dallas with the Southwest Conference meet.

Leading the Farmers in the three-mile race are two seniors—E. L. Ener of Jasper and Ihan Bilgutay of Istanbul, Turkey.

Ener and Bilgutay tied for first place in last week's dual meet against Texas. Their time of 14:16 was the fastest for either runner this season.

Other Cadet runners are Herbie Campbell, Earl Myers, Jim Sebastian and Larry Clancy.

Intramurals

Class A basketball finals are Thursday night at 7:30 in DeWare Field House, Charles E. McCandless, intramural director, announced Wednesday. The two finalists will come from these four teams: Sqd. 8, Sqd. 7, B-3 or F-1.

Three dates on the intramural calendar: freshman football play-offs begin Thursday, freshman basketball starts Monday and play-offs in Class B horseshoe pitching begin Tuesday.

Winners in Class B flag football were B-3 over B-2, 26-6; D-1 defeated Sqd. 4, 14-0; Sqd. 6 won over Sqd. 13, 6-0; Sqd. 2 beat 1-3, 13-0; and A-1 smashed Sqd. 8, 32-0.

Winning players for Sqd. 6 were Dale Felps, Joe Stewart, Allen David, Tom Ross, Richard Chitwood, Dennis Elzner, George Hausmann, Mike Gayle and Larry Branham.

Players winning for A-1 were Jim Tatum, Bill McElroy, Scott Benson, Jack Watson, John Clark, Billy Perry, Ira McDaniel and Will Campbell.

Sqd. 2 winners were James Hooton, Jim Crumbliss, Larry Hunter, Dick Stults, George Johnson, Joe Pant, Sydney Hall, John Stropp and Chuck Sowell.

Civilian handball winners Wednesday were Walton Hall over Legett Hall, 2-1, and Puryear Hall over Mitchell Hall, 3-0.

Close Investigation Illustrates 'Good Ol' Days' Gone Forever

By JIM BUTLER

Battalion Ass't Sports Editor "Remember the good ol' days!" This hue and cry of oldtimers gathered together for class reunions or other special occasions rivals closely the Texas war cry, "Remember the Alamo."

Deciding that these "good ol' days" might justify a closer inspection, it was discovered by consulting the 1962 A&M Press Book that these long-forgotten years really were the "good ol' days."

What Aggie could ever forget A&M's first undefeated football team. The year was 1896 and the Cadets won two out of three games with one tie.

The Aggies trounced Houston High School 28-0, squeaked by Austin College 22-4 and fought to a bitter scoreless tie with Galveston High School.

And if you think the present day Farmers have it bad, pity the poor Maroon and White of nineteen ought-and-ought. They were beaten by Texas twice in one season—5-0 and 11-0.

The 1909 team evened the score, however, with 23-0 and 5-0 victories over the Longhorns.

In 1904, the Aggies must have placed high in the balloting for the most inconsiderate football team. The Cadets silently drubbed the Deaf and Dumb Institute, 49-0.

One can't help but feel, though, that the height of the good old days came in the Ags' opening game 29-0 triumph in 1905. The victim? Houston YMCA.
