

Squadron 7 Wins Corps Basketball

By ADRIAN ADAIR
Battalion Sports Writer

Controlling the ball from the first quarter, Sqd. 7 won the Class A basketball final Thursday night, 41-35, over F-1, last year's Corps champion.

Sqd. 7 made the first points of the game, but F-1 quickly came back to tie the game and then go ahead, 6-2. This was the only time throughout the game that F-1 held the lead. Coming from behind, Sqd. 7 made six consecutive points. At the end of the first quarter Sqd. 7 led, 14-8.

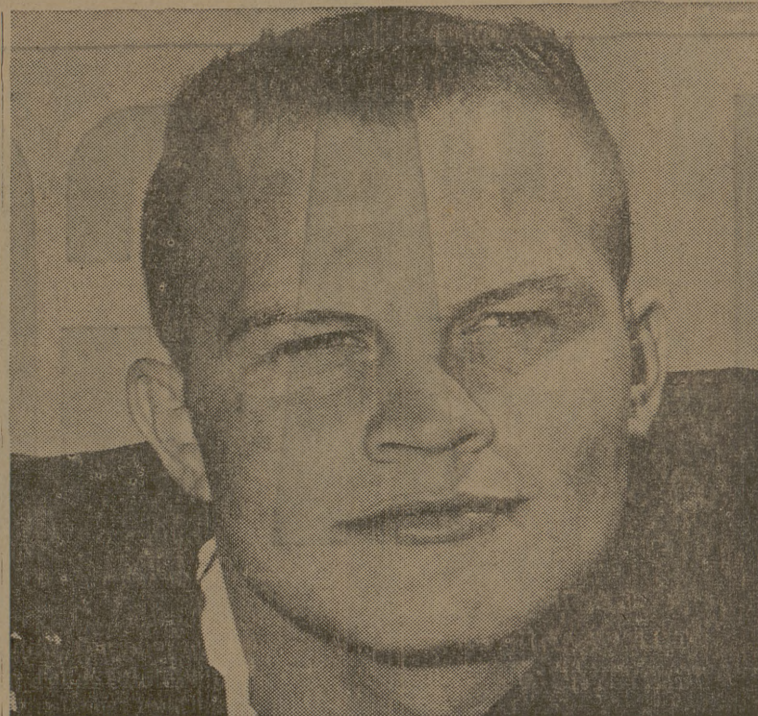

Beginning the second quarter Sqd. 7 got the tip off, but lost the ball after its shot failed. F-1 made its shot and started a drive. However, Sqd. 7 cut it short and then increased its lead to 25-13.

F-1 fought its way to within three points of Sqd. 7's lead with 55 seconds left to play. In an attempt to get the ball, F-1 made several fouls. However, they picked the wrong player to foul and Sqd. 7 increased its lead by one point and then added another two on a similar foul.

Gaining the ball, F-1 rushed down court, but in its hurry threw the ball out of bounds. F-1 fouled again as Sqd. 7 brought the ball in bounds.

As is came down from the foul shot, F-1 recovered the ball, but time ran out. Sqd. 7 won, 41-35.

The New Corps champions are Robert Emerson, David Pierson, Mike Starek, Charles Powell and Richard Barrett.

Arkansas Hogs Face Cadet Offense, Defense, Spirit

By JIM BUTLER
Battalion Ass't Sports Editor

Now is the time for all good Ags to come to the aid of their football team.

This corny parody of an oft-used typing exercise seems particularly appropriate as the Cadets meet the Arkansas Razorbacks on Kyle Field Saturday night.

This is the last home game for the 1962 gridders and an Aggie win depends on two big factors — the spirit of the team, which has been amply demonstrated, and the spirit of the school. A total effort will be needed by both from both.

As all coaches stress, every game is a "big" game. But the Aggie-Porker contest looms as the biggest of the season.

Still in the thick of the SWC race, the Cadets have a good chance of going into the Thanksgiving game with the Cotton Bowl as the prize if Arkansas can be beaten this weekend.

THIS IS THE 36th meeting between the two teams, with Arkansas holding an 18-14 edge. There have been three ties. The Aggies are 2-1 in conference play and 2-4 for the season.

The Hogs have won two and lost one in the SWC and are 5-1 overall.

Arkansas comes into the Saturday clash with 14 straight November victories. And every year since the string began in 1958, the Aggies have been the toughest foe.

The Cadets lost 12-7 in '59, 7-3 in '60 and 15-8 in '61. With the Maroon-and-White still an unknown factor in the conference, this game could very well mean the end of the Hogs' skein.

Two big points in A&M's favor are their defense, third best in the SWC, and Mike Clark's potential three-pointers whenever the Farmers are inside the 30-yard line.

A&M CAN gain no advantage by aiming at one facet of Arkansas' game. The Hogs have the most well-rounded attack A&M has or will face.

Porker quarterbacks — Billy Moore, Bill Gray and Fred Marshall — have passed 81 times and connected on 54 for 733 yards and seven touchdowns.

In addition, Arkansas has five runners with 100 or more yards, led by Moore with 392. Halfback Jesse Branch has carried 58 times for 283 yards without a loss.

The awesome Arkansas statistics could go on forever but the story was much the same in Fayetteville last year with the only difference being Lance Alworth. And the Porkers didn't win the game until the last two minutes of play.

Comparative scores this season, while proving nothing, lopsidedly favor the Hogs. Arkansas romped over TCU 42-14 and beat Baylor 28-21.

The Ags dropped a 20-14 decision to the Horned Frogs and kicked over the Bears 6-3.

While the regional scribes — conference and non-conference alike — are already counting the Ags out, Coach Hank Foldberg and his 44 spooksters are cooking up some tricks that won't be a treat for the Ozark-based Porkers.

Ags Are Primed For Hog Clash

One morning after an abbreviated workout back in early September Jerry Hopkins was sitting in the middle of a ring of chairs in front of the Aggie dressing room. Occupying those chairs were about 15 Texas sportswriters who were on their second stop of the 1962 SWC Press Tour.

After just surviving an onslaught of queries as to the nature of new head coach Hank Foldberg and his policies Hopkins was asked, "What game, other than the one on Thanksgiving, are you and the team looking forward to most?"

"Well, sir," the senior center from Mart began, "we're just going to play them one at a time and

"Come on now," the persistent scribe broke in, "there must be some game that you are pointing to just a little bit more than the others."

Hopkins squirmed a little. "Well sir, I guess it would have to be the Arkansas game then. I don't think they've been beaten in November for a long time."

"And we'd kind of like to get even for last year," he grinned.

The Aggies' attitude toward Arkansas has probably changed little, except that it doubtless is increasing along the same lines because of the stakes involved when the two teams meet Saturday on Kyle Field.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

It's November. And in many a local Church it's time to think about the budget for another year.

This is cause for being thankful. Really it is! For aren't there many places in this world where men haven't any opportunity to support their Church... or any Church to support if they had opportunity?

And aren't there many places where men are compelled to work for causes they do not believe in... instead of free to work for a cause in which they do believe?

Frankly, much of the responsibility for keeping our land and our people what we want them to be rests with our Churches.

So let's rejoice in that happy American tradition — the Church budget.

And, in keeping with another fine tradition of our people, let's roll up our sleeves and help!

THE TWO-WAY WONDER JACKET
BY MARTIN OF CALIFORNIA

There are two sides to this remarkable jacket. And they're both right! One side is Dupont's 65% Dacron® and 35% cotton quilted with Dacron fiber fill which works like an automatic thermostat to keep you insulated against the cold.

The other side is Reeves Heathcote Poplin Zelan® treated to resist everything from drizzle to downpour. It has, in addition, adjustable side tabs, zippered side pockets and a terrific hood that tucks under the collar when not in use. Sizes: 36 to 46.
