

Ags, Were Tough, Hogs Said Later

"I'll put 'em with Texas any day," said Arkansas tackle Jerry Mazzanti in the dressing room following Saturday night's Razorback win over the Ags, 17-7.

Dave Adams, his running mate at the other Hog tackle slot, had similar feelings, "they beat me up worse than Texas did."

"Yeah, me too," added Guard Ray Trail. "I'll tell you one thing; I'll be glad to see them play Texas. I sure hope I don't have to go through anything like that again."

Quarterback Billy Moore: "I wouldn't say this was one of my better nights, passing. However, they put a real good rush on me; as good as anyone we've played."

ARKANSAS COACH Frank Broyles said his was a great win and had nothing but compliments for Hank Foldberg's Ags. "A&M jumped on us and we knew we had a real fight on our hands."

"A&M has a good football team," he continued. "They play us tough every year, and we knew we were in for a tough night before we came down here."

THE AGGIE mentor singled out Moore and pile-driver fullback Danny Brabham as the Razorbacks who hurt A&M most. "Brabham looked real tough," he pointed out. "We bottled Moore up pretty good, but he still hurt us with the key play."

Big Ray Kubala again received praise from Foldberg, as he has for every game so far this season. End Guy Dillon, who has also been mentioned frequently after games, was named too. Said Foldberg, "Dillon and Kubala play real good defensive game. I was pleased with (Travis) Reagan's running."

A SLIGHTLY different offense seemed to have materialized for the Cadets against Arkansas. The option play that brought so much success against TCU was seldom used.

"We changed our game to try to make our passes click," Foldberg explained. "We're trying to throw quicker, thinking that might be our trouble."

AGS NOW 2-2 IN SWC

Hogs Outlast Cadets, 17-7

Nationally ranked Arkansas grabbed a monopoly on second-half field position after a tight first half Saturday night and went on to disappoint the stubborn Aggies, 17-7 on Kyle Field.

A combination of Danny Brabham's tough running from fullback, punt returns by Ken Hatfield and key plays by All-American candidate Billy Moore made everything the Ags did seem futile as the Hogs kept themselves in contention for high honors in the SWC.

The Cadets drew first blood in the game on a 51-yard punt return by Travis Reagan with six minutes left in the first quarter.

REAGAN TOOK a Tommy Moore punt and ran smack into a host of gridders—both friend and foe. Out of a pile-up that had referees ready to blow their whistles suddenly sprang Reagan who had gone down but caught himself with his hand. He was nearly dropped again and then found himself in the clear with a trio of blockers to scamper about 40 yards more unmolested for six counters.

The Ags, leading 7-0 after Clark converted, held the Hogs on their next try to get a drive started. But the Razorbacks turned their punt deep into Farmer territory into a big break when captain Tommy Polk covered a James Wilenborg fumble on the A&M 16 after two scrimmage plays.

The Cadet defense wouldn't yield a yard, however; in fact, pushed them back two, and Tom McKnelly had to boot a 31-yard field goal.

Reagan nearly got loose on the ensuing kickoff and romped for 30 before the last man collared him. Eight plays later A&M had a third and goal from the Hog seven.

Quarterback Jim Keller kept over left tackle for six yards and nearly made the paystripe but for Ray Trail, who tripped him up short. The Razorback line wouldn't let Sam Byer across on the last try.

Being backed up against their goal, the Hogs had to kick on second down to George Hargett, who far caught on the Arkansas 39. A&M couldn't go, however, and Mike Clark tried a field goal that had enough height and distance but was off to the left.

THAT WAS the last serious offensive bid by the Ags in the first half. The ball changed hands twice and as the period drew to a close the Hogs picked up seven more points.

Hatfield, who played havoc with Aggie punting all night, ran a Keller punt back 27 yards to the Cadet 31. From there Brabham slammed out a first down to the 20 on three line plunges and then Moore threw a 19-yard pass to George Walker. On his second try at the keeper Moore scored to make it Hogs 10, Ags 7, as the half closed.

After the bands performed the game settled down to a defensive struggle by the Ags, with Arkansas in their country all the time except for four plays after the opening kickoff.

Walker returned the kickoff 31 yards to the Hog 32 and then Brabham and tailback Jesse Branch punched out yards to the A&M 20. Moore got rattled here, however, and threw to an illegal receiver on fourth down.

The Ags couldn't go after the punt and when Keller kicked Hatfield brought it back 35 yards this time to the Farmer 28. Brabham bulled the stubborn defense for six plays and took the Hogs to the Ag six where Moore carried over sheer speed for the last score of the game. McKnelly cornered and the final score went up on board with 3:47 left in the third quarter.

A&M STARTED a drive at the kickoff but Razorback end Grizzle intercepted a John Eason pass to squelch it near the field.

The Cadets were never given another chance and the Razorbacks started five more drives that couldn't buck the Aggie defense after they neared paydirt.

Said former A&M coach Hank Norton in the elevator room down from the pressbox, "The Aggies played the best game I've ever seen them play this fall but that's his poison."

Second Hog TD In The Making

Arkansas' sophomore halfback Ken Hatfield all but three yards of the kick and set the Razorbacks up on the Aggie 28. Hatfield returned three Cadet punts for 27, 35 and 15 yards, respectively.
