

IN 4TH PERIOD

Ags Top SMU, 12-7

By VAN CONNER
Battalion Sports Editor

The "Aggie quarter" came back in fine style in the Cotton Bowl Saturday afternoon. After being held scoreless for three periods, the Cadets capitalized on three of six SMU fumbles to tack 12 points on the scoreboard and manage a comeback victory over the Ponies, 12-7.

The well-schooled toe of Mike Clark, a 6-1, 200-pound senior from Longview, put A&M ahead 9-7 with a 30-yard field goal with 7:58 remaining. Just a little over three minutes later he added another from 37 yards out.

SMU'S LONE touchdown came at the end of the first half and resulted from one of four Cadet fumbles. Mustang guard Ronnie Cosper fell on a John Sparling fumble to set the Ponies up on the A&M nine.

On the next play quarterback Don Campbell kept around right end for seven. He bulled for one more and then gave to fullback John Ed Clarke on third down for the TD through the line. John Richey converted to make it 7-0 SMU with 28 seconds left in the half.

That seven points looked like it might be enough to take the game through the third quarter. But about the time the 12th Man was finishing the "Aggie War Hymn" in the final period, A&M's senior halfback Eddie VanDyke took a last-chance pitchout from quarterback Jim Keller on the SMU three and outran two defenders to the corner of the end zone.

The Cadets set up in scrimmage position for the conversion attempt but it was squelched when Pony halfback Don Crowder tipped away a Keller to Travis Reagan pass. It was SMU 7, Ags 6, with 13:08 left in the game.

THAT SCORE had been set up just before the third quarter ended when Aggie quarterback John Erickson booted a mighty punt to Crowder on the Mustang nine. He started out of the hole and made it to his 18 before two Farmers stopped him. He fumbled and big Ray Kubala covered for A&M.

Leading by only one, the Mustangs got back into business and started upfield. On third down, as Campbell skirted end, the ball got free again and this time a heads-up Mike Pitman took it for the Aggies on the SMU 40.

It was a matter then of Mike

Kohlman punching out a pair of four-yard line smashes, and Van Dyke hitting over end for 11 and a first on the 21. Then Budgie Ford and Van Dyke tried the line for one yard each.

ON THIRD and eight from the SMU 19 Keller rolled out and receivers went helter-skelter. Nobody seemed to notice Ken Kipp standing precisely in the center of the field on the 13 until it was too late. The completed pass to Kipp got six—not enough for a first—but it put the ball in perfect field goal position for the 30-yard boot by Clark that put the Ags in front.

Clark kicked into the end zone and as the Ponies started off from the 20 Clarke put together runs of eight and five yards to get a first and start a drive. But SMU's alternate quarterback Roger Braugh lost the ball. This time it was Aggie end Ken McLean who swiped the ball and made it to the SMU 27.

Keller tried a pass to Brother-ton but it was broken up, so on the next play he tugged the ball and went around end for a first on the Mustang 16. The Ags drove to the nine but then lost it all on a holding infraction and Clark had to put another three-pointer through the uprights from the 27.

THERE WAS still a lot of football in that last four minutes after Clark's final field goal. On the first play after the kickoff Campbell threw long to end Bill Harlan on the Ag 34. Reagan intercepted the ball but Harlan took it back away from him. The SMU field general then tossed to Ray Green for another first on the A&M 25.

To say the least, things looked black for the Cadets, but on the next play Campbell's receivers were covered and he threw wildly to stop the clock. A&M's Jerry Hopkins hopped up from his middle-lineback slot and swiped the pass on the Ag 16.

On the same play the Mustangs drew 15 for a personal foul and the Farmers proceeded to run most of the clock out. With 28 seconds left Keller punted out of bounds on SMU's 27.

Ag Marksmen Suffer 1st Loss

The Aggie rifle team suffered a narrow defeat in Arlington Saturday at the hands of Arlington State College. The Ags now have a 5-1 record for the season.

High-point man in the match was J. N. Stepp of Arlington State with 294 points out of a possible 300. Aggie Captain McCloud B. Hodges and team member G. L. Byrd fired 286 each to lead the Cadets. The Arlington State sharpshooters had a combined 1,441 to the Ags' 1,418.

A&M's marksmen will go to Houston Saturday for a triangular match with Rice and the University of Houston.

Keller To McLean

Late in the first quarter Saturday afternoon Ag quarterback Jim Keller lofts a seven-yard pass to end Ken McLean to set the Cadets up on the SMU 17. They needed eight for the first, however, and the ball went over to the Ponies. A&M passed seven times against the Mustangs, completed four and had two intercepted. SMU completed 13 of 27 aeriels and also lost two. Southern Methodist end Ray Graves (85) is putting the big rush on Keller as Mike Kohlman (31) tries to get in blocking position.

Who, me?
I've had three interviews already!

But your fourth interview might be the most important. Especially if it's with the man from JPL. That's right, Jet Propulsion Laboratory, Caltech operates JPL for NASA. Gives the place a campus atmosphere. 3500 people there. Eleven hundred of them are scientists and engineers. The rest are technicians, secretaries, librarians -- all kinds of people to back up these scientists and engineers.

if there's life on other planets. And they will. They're a dedicated bunch. And they like their work. After all, what could be more fascinating and more challenging than the work they do? Take a half hour or so to talk to the man from JPL. Make an appointment now. It could be the most important 30 minutes in your life.
