games, the Cadets beat Texas seven games to knock them into third place seven games off the pace.

San Antonio College is second, four games off the pace, with 15 wins and nine losses. A&M's record is 19-5.

The team consisting of John Tinney, Button Webb, Tony Servello, Ray Snow, Skipper Robinson and Jimmy Guy set an all-time Aggie record by shooting over 1000 in three of the nine games.

WEBB SHOT a league high 1805 for nine games and a fine 200 average. Servello set a league high with his 652 series in the third set.

In the first match against Arlington State, A&M led off with a 1005 on games of 213, 217, 188, 203, 184. Webb was high man for the Farmers with a 611 series.

A&M took three of four from Texas in the second match behind Guy's 625 and Webb's 590. The Aggies boomed 1007 in the third game led by Guy's 245, Webb's 237 and Robinson's 210.

The final match for the day was a position round with the first place Ags bowling the second place Longhorns. The Cadet keggers swept the match shooting a league high 2916 team series.

SERVELLO had games of 229-200-223 for 652, supported by Snow's 255-614 and Webb's 605.

The Aggies had 16 games of 200 or better for the day and averaged 191 per man for the 45 games.

Football Games Effect Hearts

LINCOLN, Neb., (AP) — A University of Nebraska medical researcher reported Wednesday that watching an exciting football game can do things to your heart.

Dr. Kenneth Rose has the electrocardiograph tracing to prove it.

Graduate student Donald Tuch attended the Nebraska-Missouri game here Nov. 3 with electrodes inserted in his skin and an FM transistorized transmitter at his waist.

Dr. Rose, in the nearby field house, received the broadcast messages on how Tuch's heart was behaving. Part of the reception was by electrocardiograph tracing.

Tuch is described as a typically active person with a normal heart. He was a teacher before coming to Nebraska for graduate study.

When Cornhusker bullback Noel Martin intercepted a pass and ran 88 yards for a touchdown, Tuch's normal 75 heart beats per minute jumped to 145.

"Donald's distress over such developments as a Missouri touchdown and again when a fumble occurred was dramatically indicated on the receiver," said Dr. Rose. "His heart had a terrific workout that day."

Dr. Rose, of the University's student health center, is in the second year of a 4-year $20,000 research study on the heart action of athletes under a National Heart Institute grant.

Alamo City Speedster

Eddie VanDyke, senior from San Antonio, has taken over first team halfback slot after his fine performance against SMU. VanDyke had been switched to end in fall practice to make use of his speed. VanDyke scored A&M's only TD with a sweep around right end in the fourth quarter.

Unbeaten Ag Soccer Team To Meet Blue Stars Sunday

A&M's undefeated soccer team will take on the Blue Stars of Pasadena, Sunday in Houston. On Dec. 2, it will meet the Unidas Club of Houston on the Aggie field.

In four games this season the A&M Soccer team has scored 24 goals to five from the opposition. If the Houston Conference-leading Ags win these next two contests they will represent the Houston Soccer League in the annual Cotton Bowl soccer game.

The Aggie soccer team is composed entirely of foreign students, the bulk of whom are from Latin America. "This is so not because this is the intention of the members," explains team member Augusto Cruzalegui, "but because not enough students know about it enough to be interested in it."

"We would be very glad to have more local boys come to see our practices and become part of our team," Cruzalegui said. "Our team represents not the foreign students of A&M, but the entire Aggie student body," he emphasized.

The Ags won their third straight soccer championship of Texas last year, in an April tournament on the home field. They are well on their way again this year after defeating the University of Houston, 4-2; Sam Houston State College, 9-0; Sporting Mexico from Houston, 7-1; and the Blue Stars of Houston, 4-2.

BATT PICKS

Here we go again, putting our questionable reputation on the line in a bold effort to improve our .500 average. Upsets are getting so common that it's an upset when a team isn't upset. So on this basis, the scores should look like this.

Texas, 13, TCU 6; The Frogs' six points are not enough this year.

Arkansas 33, SMU 9; Merrily the Porkers go rolling through November, but their hearts and hopes are in Fort Worth.

Baylor 25, Air Force 13; The Bears usurp the Falcons' flight patterns.

TEXAS TECH 13, Colorado 7; The Red Raiders and the NCAA team up for Tech's first win.

Alabama 17, Georgia Tech 10; Soph Joe Namath duels senior Billy Lothridge and it looks like youth wins over experience.

Oklahoma 20, Missouri 14; The Big Red regain Big Eight domination.

Oregon 21, Ohio State 17; Mel Renfro and the Webfoots maintain the Pacific Coast jinx over the Big Ten and the snakebit Buckeyes.

Northwestern 28, Michigan State 15; Tom "Terrific" Myers rebounds from off day to bombard Spartans despite Drivin' Dave Saines.

Southern Cal 33, Navy 8; The Middies, aiming for Army next week, can't come close to Rose Bowl bound Trojans.

UCLA 13, Washington 7; The only upset of the bunch as the Bruins bounce back from surprise loss to Air Force.

Upsets Prevail In AP Guesses

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — Five of the top-ranked teams, Alabama, Southern California, Texas, Missouri and Northwestern, see their numbers come up this week in college football's giant "wheel of chance." This week's biggest upset would be Navy's defeat of Southern Cal, a 16-point choice.

Last week's score: 37-13-740. So here we go again:

GEORGIA TECH 10, Alabama 7; Vengeance stirs Bobby Dodd's boys to extra effort, but the Tide doesn't yield easily.

Navy 20, Southern California 14; After two bad beatings in a row, Navy shows the stuff it displayed against Pittsburgh.

Texas Christian 9, Texas 0; The Horned Frogs did it last year with a weaker team; why not again?

Oklahoma 21, Missouri 18; The Sooners, averaging 50 points in their last three games, look like the Wilkinson teams of old.

Pittsburgh 19, Army 14; Another upset for the unpredictable hard noses from the coal belt.

Arkansas 27, Southern Methodist 14; Billy Moore is sparking the Razorbacks into the Sugar or Cotton Bowl.

Baylor 23, Air Force 19; The fliers are a 3 1/2 point favorite, but don't underestimate the punch of the Southwest Conference.
