

Mike Clark Draws Praise As 'Back Of The Week'

By VAN CONNER
Battalion Sports Editor

It is not often when a football player can be named as a stand-out lineman and back during his career, much less during a single season. But such is the case with A&M's field goal kicker and leading scorer Mike Clark.

After his two three-pointers that beat Baylor, 6-3, The Dallas Morning News named the Longview senior a "lineman of the week." And this week we see that his two boots against SMU have earned a place on that paper's "back of the week" list.

FOR AN END who sees action only on kickoffs, extra point tries and field goal attempts, we'd say that this is quite an accomplishment. But then, those lads who figure most in their team's winning are the ones usually seen on the lists.

When you think of it that way, it's not hard to see why Clark deserves the mention. Three of his field goals have meant the difference in two grid clashes this season. His second of the season, a 28-yarder, tied up the Baylor game with 11 minutes left. With less than a minute left "The Toe" put a 42-yard three-pointer through to win the game.

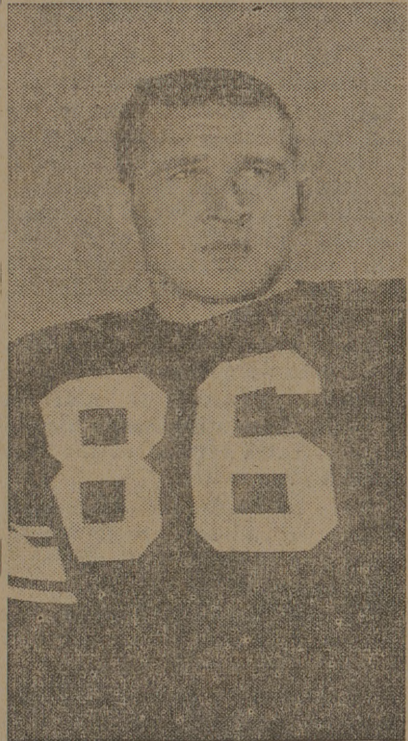

Against SMU Clark kicked a 30-yarder to put the Ags ahead, 9-7, and then added a 37-yard job for good measure.

Through eight games the 6-1, 200-pounder has five field goals, counting those mentioned above and the three points he netted in a losing cause against Houston. Add to that the one he kicked against Tech last year and big Mike has broken the career record set by Joel Hunt (1925-26-27) and John Ballentine (1945-46-47).

CLARK IS two field goals ahead of Hunt and Randy Sims (1959) to set another season record. He has also matched the single game totals of Hunt (A&M vs. TCU, 1926).

Is it any wonder that the Bryan-

'THE TOE'

College Station area radio stations have been doing a big business spinning the standby, "I Get a Kick Out of You," dedicated to some guy named Mike?

And Clark kicks with neither a bare foot nor a square-toed shoe. Just plain old conventional Mike, they call him. He keeps his head down, locks the right ankle and swings through from the knee. It pays off too.

Melvin Simmons, an Aggie tackle who has been named to the "lineman of the week" list himself, claims he saw both of Clark's field goals against the Mustangs. "That first one split the very middle of the uprights," he said. "That second one, it was real close to not being good."

"That second one" was kicked from the SMU 27 into an 18-mph wind. It seemed to hover for a moment between the poles, then fell through on the right side for three counters.

DRYSDALE HAS AN EDGE

CINCINNATI (AP) — Since 1918 there have been 140 National League 20-game winners but none in recent years has had Don Drysdale's edge in quest of the 30-win mark.

Dodger star Drysdale won his 20th game on Aug. 3. The last National League hurler to reach that mark so early in a season was Jim (Hippo) Vaughn of the Cubs. In 1918 he won his 20th game on Aug. 1. Dizzy Dean won 30 in 1934 but that year he won his 20th decision on Aug. 7.
