Eleven Aggies Lost
 Since Sept. 1, the Aggie football team has lost 11 key men. Injured and out for the season are guards Maynard Rogers and Keith Huggins, tackles Ray Chancellor and James Craig, and fullbacks Jerry Rogers and Sam Byer. Guard Joe Hoyak fell ill with influenza and another guard, Walt LaGrone, was a scholastic casualty.
 Tackle Bobby Evans, end Franklin Fisher and end Larry Crutsinger all gave up the game

Back In Action
 Danny McIlhany, Coach Hank Foldberg's one-play star, will return to the Cadet lineup for the Rice game Saturday afternoon. Seen here in his old role as a quarterback, McIlhany now runs from the halfback slot. The 5-11, 180-pounder from South Houston has been out of action since the TCU game with leg and ankle injuries.

Tigers Count On Defense Against Navasota Tonight

"Our entire defense has one objective Friday night—stop those big plays, the ones that win the game," A&M Consolidated Coach

Edsel Jones said Thursday. The Tigers travel to Navasota to test the Rattlers at 7:30 p.m.

"Every team we have played," Jones added, "we have beaten in every way except on the scoreboard and that's where it counts. The big plays, the long run, the long pass or the fumble deep in home territory, have accounted for every touchdown scored against us."

"No team this season has scored against us on a consecutive drive downfield. We can handle those short continual runs up the middle or around end, but those big plays are the ones that get by us."

The A&M TIGERS are tied with the Rattlers for fifth place. Friday night's game will determine who will occupy the cellar in the district.

Carrying the ball for the Tigers in the backfield will be Ozzie Burke (TB), Frank Litterst (FB), Jim Carroll (WB) and calling the plays will be Walter Varvel, the quarterback.

Starting players in the Tiger line will be Mike Calliham (LE), J. W. Parsons (LT), Jay Pewthers (LG), Sydney Coufal (C), Darrell Gossett (RG), David Parsons (RT) and David Harvell (RE).

Four ex-University of Kentucky players are with National Basketball Association Teams. They are Adrian Smith of the Cincinnati Royals, Frank Ramsey with the Boston Celtics, John Cox with the Chicago Zephyrs and Cliff Hagan with the St. Louis Hawks.

Owls, Aggies Battle In Big H Saturday

Coach Hank Foldberg takes his multiple-multiple offense to the Bayou City Saturday to test the Rice Owls in broad daylight at Rice Stadium.

Kickoff time is slated for 2 p.m. in this 47th meeting between the teams. A&M holds a 23-20-3 edge in the series, but has won only three of seventeen games against a Jess Neely-coached Rice team.

The Aggies, with a 3-5 season record, stand 3-2 in conference play and need this win to finish in the first division. Rice stands 1-4-2 for the season and 1-2-1 in the SWC.

THE CADETS will be without the services of fullback Sam Byer, who suffered a dislocated elbow in the SMU game. On the positive side of the ledger, halfback Danny McIlhany, fullback Lee Roy Caffey and end James Drennan return to duty after having recovered from various injuries.

Randy Kerbow, injury-plagued playcaller, is back at the helm of the Owls, but if his leg can't stand up, soph surprise Walter McReynolds will take over.

The Rice quarterbacks have a good target in Gene Raesz, an all-SWC end last season. Gene Fleming will be a break-away threat the Aggies will have to watch.

The Maroon and White will counter with some threats of their own in halfbacks George Hargett, Eddie VanDyke and Tommy Meeks.

WHILE the majority of college football teams really worry about stopping their opponents inside the 10-yard line, the Owls will be trying extra hard to stop the Aggies, and particularly Mike Clark, outside the 30. And then that may not be far enough as Clark is a 42-yarder to beat Baylor.

Rice won last year's game and is wondering if this is the day for the Aggies to click on cylinders. In a modified version of Russian roulette, the Owls have only two games left to play that the gun was really loaded.

Comfort, silence and luxury to challenge any car from anywhere

There's a lot underneath the beauty of the '63 Chevrolet. Its roomy, comfortable Body by Fisher screens out noise and shock. There's instant response in a choice of 6- or 8-cylinder engines, a host of refinements to make it run and look like new longer, and plenty more that make it hard to believe it's a low-priced car. But your Chevrolet dealer can prove it!
