15 End Eligibility Thursday

The fifteen seniors who will see their last Aggie action against the University of Texas Thursday:

Ronnie Brice was a quarterback his first two years and this year has been switched to halfback. He has two varsity letters.

Since his soph days Sam Byer has won the respect of many an opposing gridder with his powerful fullback running. He will be in streetclothes Thursday because of his dislocated elbow.

Lee Roy Caffey has played both at full and half, owns two letters and has been one of the toughest Aggie defenders.

Mike Clark, known of late as "The Toe," will go down in history as one of the Ags' greatest place-kickers.

Guy Dillon has been a valuable standby at guard for the Cadets.

Quarterback John Erickson owns one varsity letter. He has had some great days this season punting.

Big Jim Harper at guard, center Jerry Hopkins and Jim Phillips have bulwarked the middle of the Aggie line for three seasons.

Ken Kipp played most of his first two seasons as a crack defensive back. This year he has turned in yeoman service as an offensive end.

Another end, Bobby Huntington, has earned two letters for his consistent efforts on both offensive and defense.

Tackle Ben Krenek has been a mainstay at his slot and lately has turned in standout performances. Pat Latham is another end with a fine record, especially on defense.

Ronnie Ledbetter has turned in some fine performances from the halfback slot.

Eddie VanDyke missed last season and has a single letter but has more than made up for it with fine performances at end and halfback.

From: HOLIDAY HOUSE — AUSTIN!!

Subject: Football, Thanksgiving and "Flame-Kissed Hamburgers"

Before or after the big game, enjoy one of our fine charcoal broiled hamburgers. We have seven different, exciting combinations of hamburgers (made from good, lean beef) with cheese, sauces, onions, tomatoes, and pickles. Have one of these fine sandwiches with a beverage, french fries and a fried pie. They are really good!!! Notice how close we are to Memorial Stadium — within walking distance.

In addition, we have two other locations featuring fast, "electronic" drive-in service. They are located at 1005 Barton Springs Road (just south of the river) and the corner of Airport Boulevard at North Loop (two blocks from the expressway.)
