MIKE CLARK KICKS RECORD SEVENTH FIELD GOAL

FINAL FOOTBALL STATISTICS

Clark's Toe, Hank's Debut Mark 1962 Grid Season

Mike Clark was the big name in Aggie football for a 1962 season that featured the debut of Hank Foldberg as head coach and athletic director.

Clark's field goal kicking set a SWC record, broke two school records and tied another. His boots accounted for two of the three Cadet victories and produced the only A&M scores in four of the ten games.

THE SCORING title also went to Clark, who accounted for 25 points with seven field goals and four extra points.

Halfback Jim Linnstaedter led the team in rushing, gaining 167 yards in 36 carries for a 4.6 average. Lee Roy Caffey was second with 143 yards in 36 attempts. Five other Aggies were over the century mark—Travis Reagan (141), Jim Willenborg (137), Tommy Meeks (132), Jim Keller (113) and Eddie VanDyke (108).

Keller logged the most time at quarterback and paced the team in passing. The 6-4 junior hit 30 of 80 passes for 343 yards and had nine intercepted. Sophomore Willenborg hit 18 passes in 49 attempts for 169 yards and had four intercepted.

George Hargett was the top receiver for the Cadets, catching 14 passes for 194 yards. Sophomore Ken McLean was runner-up, netting 91 yards on 11 receptions.

Ken Kipp caught six passes for 57 yards and Ronnie Ledbetter and Linnstaedter each snagged four passes for 32 and 27 yards, respectively.

Hargett also led the team in punt and kickoff returns. He ran back seven kickoffs for 158 yards and 17 punts for 163 yards.

TEAM STATISTICS show the Aggies with 1,442 yards on the ground with 615 yards passing for a net of 2,057. The Farmers threw 160 passes, completed 58 and had 19 intercepted.

Season highs for the Cadets are as follows: Longest run by scrimmage: 59, Linnstaedter; Rice; Longest pass play: 44, Keller to Hargett vs. Baylor; Longest interception return: 46, Caffey vs. TCU (for TD);

Longest punt: 63, Ronnie Ledbetter vs. Texas Tech; Longest field goal: 42, Clark vs. Baylor; Longest punt return: 51, Reagan vs. Arkansas (for TD); Longest kickoff return: 100, Dan Mahany vs. Tech (for TD).

College Football In Texas Suddenly Good To Coaches

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baylor gave John Bridgers a new five-year contract before his present one ran out. He had a 1-6 record at the time and prospects are that he may have his worst season as coach at Baylor.

Baylor's officials said they liked Bridgers for his leadership and the way he had built up the athletic department. The campus newspaper praised him for his scholastic contributions.

Out at Lubbock Texas Tech officials commended Coach J. T. King despite the fact that the football team had won only one game in nine.

THEY SAID a sound, constructive program was in progress and that it would result in satisfactory achievement.

At Nacogdoches Stephen F. Austin College officials praised Coach Travis Hughes and his staff for their efforts although the team won only one game and lost several by big margins.

They said they thought Coach Hughes had done a fine job all the way around.

What's the world coming to? And it is hoped it'll come to even more.

College football in Texas has done the greatest right-about face in history. No later than last year two Southwest Conference coaches—Jim Myers of A&M and Bill Meek of Southern Methodist—were let out because their teams didn't win enough.

Yet here a year later the colleges not only are rehiring losing coaches but praising them for their work. And there appears little dissent from the fans, who are the ones demanding victory and who usually get rid of the coach when he doesn't win.

EFFIGIES were strung up to King and Bridgers but they drew little attention since they represented the feeling of only a small segment of fans.
