Hopkins Makes All-SWC; Hogs Place Moore, 2 Others

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Billy Moore, Arkansas' all-purpose quarterback, leads the All-Southwest Conference football team announced Thursday.

Moore was the only unanimous choice of the coaches who selected the team for The Associated Press. Johnny Treadwell, fierce guard of champion Texas, and Tommy Ford, crushing runner on the same team, lacked only one vote.

Moore, leading the conference in rushing and scoring and second in total offense, was the key man in Arkansas' finest season yet—9-1. He will show the Sugar Bowl crowd what he can do with a football, which is plenty.

Treadwell, heart of Texas' defense, will sport his wares in the Cotton Bowl. It was defense that won the games and gave the Longhorns their first unbeaten season in 39 years.

IT WAS IN the Cotton Bowl that Treadwell made the big play in the Jan. 1, 1962, game in which Texas beat Mississippi 12-7. He helped intercept a pass by batting the ball into the air to choke off a Mississippi victory threat.

Ford ran for 430 yards and scored crucial touchdowns in Texas' march to the conference championship.

David Parks, the pass-catching wingman of Texas Tech, and Jerry Mazzanti, Arkansas' consistent tackle, ranked next to Moore, Treadwell and Ford on the team, each lacking only two votes of unanimous choice.

Pairing with Parks at end is Gene Raesz of Rice, while big Ray Schoenke, power of Southern Methodist's line, teams with Mazzanti at the tackles.

Treadwell's running mate at guard is Robert Burk, the rock of Baylor's line.

Jerry Hopkins of Texas A&M got the center spot in a spirited battle with John Hughes, the defensive wizard of Southern Methodist.

Danny Brabham, the battering halfback of Arkansas, and Ronnie Goodwin, the versatile halfback of Baylor, fill out the backfield.

Aggie Riflemen Defeat Texas, Are Tied For League Lead

A&M's rifle team beat Texas at Austin last week and ended its regular season competition in the Southwest Rifle Association with a 7-1 record. The win moved the Ags into a tie with Arlington State for the association lead.

Arlington State must complete its season without another defeat or the Cadets will have a clear-cut championship. It's not likely that they will lose, however, and there will probably have to be a neutral-ground playoff between the two leaders.

The Aggies' only defeat came at the hands of Arlington State,

1,441-1,418. A&M shot its best score against the Longhorns, a 1,441 out of the possible 1,500. High-point man for the Cadets was McCloud Hodges Jr., with 292 out of 300, and his teammate, Gerrald Greak, fired 290.

Members of the A&M team who are Army ROTC cadets will be at Fort Hood Saturday for the Fourth Army Central Texas Area ROTC Small Bore Match.

Wrestlers Plan Dec. 7 Match

A dual meet between the A&M and Le Tourneau College of Longview wrestling clubs is scheduled Dec. 7 at 7 p.m. in G. Rollie White Coliseum, Russell Wieder, A&M wrestling coach, announced Monday.

Eight events for the eight different weight classes are scheduled. A wrestler can enter only one event.

The eight weight classes will range from 123 lbs. and under to an unlimited class of 177 lbs. and over.

The match will be held in the wrestling room on the second floor of the new addition in G. Rollie White Coliseum. The public is invited, Wieder said.

Still Unbeaten Soccer Team Wins 5th, 9-1

The A&M Soccer Team made it five victories in a row last week with an 8-1 triumph over the Blue Stars of Pasadena in Houston. Forwards Ramiro Gereda and Carlos Valarezo led the Aggie scoring with two goals each.

A&M held the Blue Stars scoreless in the first half. Carlos Mata-moros, a fullback, was outstanding on defense for the Ags. The Aggie goal-keeper is Harold Brent.

The second-half score by the Blue Stars was the sixth point that opponents have scored on the Aggies this season. The eight points make it 32 that A&M has scored in five clashes.

The soccer team is now well on its way to representing the Houston Soccer League in the annual Cotton Bowl game later this season. They meet the Unitas Club of Houston on the A&M field Sunday afternoon and, if they win, will secure the berth to Dallas.
