Post Office Offers Special Yule Stamp

The College Station post office has many additional responsibilities and numerous extra services to offer the public during the 1962 Christmas season, postmaster Ernest Gregg said Friday in issuing an appeal to the public to mail early.

For use during this year's Christmas rush, the Post Office Department is offering a new 4-cent stamp, Gregg said.

To insure speedier service during the holiday season rush, Gregg suggested the use of the new Christmas stamp for greeting cards.

The stamp permits letters containing a card to be forwarded to an addressee or returned to the sender if the letter is undeliverable-provided that a return address is on the envelope.

Reminding citizens of the forthcoming change in the postal rate structure, effective Jan. 7, 1963, the postmaster listed highlights of the rate legislation recently enacted by Congress.

Increases which the average post office patron is most concerned about will be the one-cent hike in the letter rates.

First-class surface-mail rates for letters will be five cents per ounce. For postal and post cards, the rate will be increased to four cents.

First-class air delivery for letters will be eight cents. For post cards, the air rate will be six cents.

A&M Students' Art Shown In Mexico

"Three Persons, Three Countries, Three Styles," could have easily been the title for the Division of Architecture's newest adventure.

Recently Noe Marmolejo representing Mexico, John Ryan from Panama, and Ed Hunt showing the work of Fred Wallace from the United States, presented an art exposition requested by Virgil Garza Ruiz, mayor of Matamoros, Mexico.

The three, all fourth-year students of architecture at A&M, presented their work in the city hall from Nov. 17-19.

The exposition, "Pictorial Exhibit of Modern Art," was attended by the mayor, and several school officials, as well as the citizens of Matamoros.

Area Club Slates Russian Films

The A&M Russian Club will present two films about the people and country of Russia Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Room 205 of the new wing of the Military Science Building, according to Lee Walker, president of the club.

The films, produced by the United States Army, will have English dialogue.

Gift Wrapping Begins At YMCA

Students may begin taking their Christmas packages to the YMCA to be wrapped, J. Gordon Gay, general secretary of the YMCA, announced Friday.

Packages may be turned in at the front desk of the YMCA from 8 a.m.-8 p.m. Students have been asked to confine their packages to normal sizes and not enclose small gifts in large packages.

Each year, 300 to 500 Christmas packages are wrapped free of charge for students. Gifts may also be wrapped for mailing.

Gay also announced that Christmas carol booklets are ready to be distributed to the cadet organiza-
