Ags Blast Centenary

Things got off to a good start for coach Bob Rogers in his sixth season as head coach as the Cadets out-rebounded and out-shot the Centenary Gents for a 91-74 season-opening win on the home court Saturday night. The Ags hit a phenomenal 60.4

per cent of their shots and had four scorers in double figures. Junior college transfer Gerald Woodard, who Rogers had hoped would "give us added scoring punch," lived up to all expectations as he dropped 21 points to take game high-point honors.

Big Jerry Windham, who led the rebounding with eight steals, was the Ags' second best scorer with 17 tallies. He was followed by Bennie Lenox with 14 and Bill Robinette with 11.

Although they only hit 37.9 per cent, the Gentlemen were no slouches offensively, and had four of their own lads in double figures. Stan McAfoos kept pace with Woodard and came up only one free throw short with 20. Willard Moore had 16, Don Ensley had 15 and Riley Wallace had 12.

Rogers got a look at his entire squad in action with a 25-point lead midway in the second half. He was pleased with the first-game showing of the Ags. A&M's defense, however, and its speed getting back downcourt, left something to be desired at times.

Rogers wasn't too worried here though. "You can teach the boys defense," he pointed out, "but it's kind of hard to teach them how to shoot the ball."

The Cadets will meet a well-primed Lamar Tech in Beaumont Tuesday night and can expect a little tougher time than they had Saturday with two of Centenary's key starters out with injuries.

Harold Brent Outstanding As A&M Soccer Team Wins Sixth

Goal-keeper Harold Brent and the A&M soccer team held off a determined United Soccer Club of Houston Sunday and came up with their sixth straight win for the season by the narrowest margin yet, 4-2.

In defeating the United Club, the Aggies earned the right to represent the Houston Soccer League in the annual State of Texas Soccer Tournament against San Antonio and Dallas in the Cotton Bowl.

So far this season the Ags have an unblemished record. They look to be on their way to another state championship—their fourth in a row.

Brent was the unanimous choice for outstanding player in Sunday's game on the A&M field. Also standing out on defense were Benito Lopez and Juan Marcicac. United was held scoreless in the first half. They almost tallied when the referee granted a penalty shot from 12 paces but Brent stopped the kick. According to Agosto Cruzalegui, Brent had the finest day an A&M goal-keeper has had in four years as he stopped countless dangerous kicks at his sacred ground by the United forwards.

Ramiro Gereda kept alive his offensive prowess, scoring two goals for the second time in two weeks. Another Aggie goal came from the toe of Carlos Rivera on a penalty kick in the first half.
