

Ag Keglers Roll In SA Saturday

By BOB KOROSE

This Saturday the Aggie bowling team will travel to San Antonio to bowl in the third meeting of the Texas Intercollegiate Bowling Conference.

The Cadets will be trying to increase their four-game lead and continue in pursuit of their fourth consecutive conference title. Bowling for the Aggies will be Tony Servello, Ray Snow, Jimmy Guy, Larry Glisan, Skip Robinson and Button Webb.

League reports . . . Don Lowe, bowling in the Monday Late League, blasted out the committee high series for the year of 637 on games of 222, 204, 211. Arvin Brehm bowled high game in the league, 231, to lead his team to the high team game of 568.

Leslie Lindsay led the Comebacks to a new high team game of 602 with a 232 game in the Tuesday Night League. His series of 562 paced the team to a league high 1,580 series. Heinz DeFloria shot 220 for second high game.

In the Aggie All-Star League, Marc Wormser paced the scoring with a 234-615. Jimmie Guy was next with 225-609. Other high games recorded were Ray Snow's 221, Tommy Woolridge's 223, George Bamberg's 212 and Taylor Wong's 210.

Discontinuation Of Football Unlikely At Southern Methodist

By Harold V. Ratliff
Associated Press Sports Writer

There has been talk of Southern Methodist University discontinuing football because insufficient funds are being taken in at the gate to finance the athletic program.

The reason has been a losing team for three straight years. In 1960 the team didn't win a game. It won very few the next two seasons. But even Southern Methodist didn't expect big crowds to come out.

Last year there was a curtailment in athletic scholarships. It was hinted that there would be no more in any of the spring sports. It develops, however, that some scholarships were given in all of the sports except baseball.

In the case of baseball, it wasn't primarily an economy move but because SMU was ired at professional baseball for signing boys on whom considerable money had been spent. Now, there was no scholarship in baseball. The team is playing accordingly.

BUT THERE are between 140 and 150 scholarships on the Hilltop, with some 90 in football, 18 in basketball and the remainder in track, golf, tennis and swimming. The latter sport is being pretty well taken care of. The reason is obvious. SMU is doing better in swimming than any other sport.

Now what does SMU have with which to pay the $224,000 for the scholarships — an athletic scholarship at the Dallas university costs about $1,600 per year.

A checkup on athletic income shows SMU isn't doing nearly so badly as pictured. The Methodists drew about 125,000 for six home games. They also played before 160,000 on the road. Thus SMU shares 50-50 in the gate receipts from 285,000 admissions. Figuring about $3.00 per admission, it can be seen that the SMU income will

Holds High Series
