

Cincy Bearcats Take 1st Lead In Cage Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Cincinnati's veteran-studded Bearcats, picking up where they left off last season when they captured their second straight NCAA basketball title, were nearly unanimous pick Wednesday as the nation's top college cage team.

In the Associated Press first weekly poll of the season, a panel of sports writers and sportscasters gave the Bearcats 38 of the 44 votes cast. Only three other teams received top billing. Duke got three first place votes, West Virginia two and Texas one.

Cincinnati, which polished off its first two opponents with ease, accumulated 429 points, over 100 more than its closest pursuer.

The top ten, based on total points allotted 10 points for a first place vote, 9 for second, 8 for third down to 1 for a tenth place vote. First place votes in parentheses:

Team	Points
Cincinnati (38)	429
Duke (3)	307
West Virginia (2)	281
Loyola Chicago	210
Mississippi State	160
Wisconsin	140
Oregon State	136
Indiana	125
Kentucky	118
Wichita	95

Jordan Plans Pro Career, A Farm Later

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP) — The soil plays a big part in the life of Lee Roy Jordan of Alabama, who was named The Associated Press lineman of the week Wednesday for the second time this season.

On the football field he spends much of his time on the soil usually on top of an opposing ball carrier. The soil has a role in his future too, since he intends to play professional football for a while, then buy a farm.

When he first learned of his selection, the rugged center-linebacker hesitated before saying, "This is one of the greatest things that ever happened to me."

Jordan, a 6-foot, 208-pounder, was a first round draft choice of Dallas of the National Football League and a second round pick of the American League's Boston entry.

"Yes," he said, "I intend to play pro football, but I'm undecided as to which league I'll play in. They haven't talked to me yet — just drafted me."

"I think four or five years in the pro game is enough," Jordan said. "After that I intend to get a farm of my own. I really want a cattle ranch."

In 1955, Denver Manager Ralph Houk sent pitcher Ralph Terry to Birmingham of the American Association "for more experience." Terry was only 19 at the time.

Ag Marksmen To Compete In Oklahoma Meet

Two five-man teams from the A&M Rifle Team are scheduled to fire Saturday in the annual Invitational Rifle Match hosted by Oklahoma State University in Stillwater, Okla.

The Army ROTC members of the A&M team emerged as second place winners in the Fourth Army Central Texas Area ROTC Small Bore Match last Saturday at Fort Hood. The team score was 3,761 points out of a possible 4,000 points. Arlington State College fired a first-place winning total of 3,797 points.

High point man for the Aggies with 385 points out of a possible 400 was Benny Lee Riddle. Firing 384 points were Gary L. Byrd and McCloud B. Hodges Jr.

The Oklahoma State meet is the last announced varsity match before the Christmas holidays. The date of the Aggies-Arlington State rematch to fire off the tie for the Southwest Rifle Association championship is still to be announced.

The Han dynasty in Chinese history, which extended from 206 B. C. to 221 A. D., abounded in the arts and spread its influence far beyond the borders of China. Wrought bronze objects, some gilded and inlaid with gold and silver, are among the achievements of the ancient artisans.
