Ags Host Tigers In Saturday Tilt

By VAN CONNER
Battalion Sports Editor

Coches Bob Rogers' cagers will be back at home Saturday night when they meet the Tigers of Memphis State on the G. Rollie White hardwood. Game time is 8 p.m.

So far in his sixth season as head mentor for the Cadets, Rogers has posted a 1-1 record, with a 91-74 win over the Centenary Gentlemen in the season opener and an 81-74 loss to Lamar Tech's Cardinals Tuesday night in Beaumont.

Last season in Memphis the Tigers managed to nip the Aggies, 62-60, in the closing seconds. This year's clash promises to be just as tough if not tougher for A&M. As Rogers puts it, "They have 60 of those 62 back again."

MEMPHIS STATE has four starters and nine lettermen back from last season's 15-9 squad. They lost their coach to Missouri, but Rogers says he has healthy respect for new head coach Dean Ehlers, who had been an assistant to Bob Vanatta for six years.

According to Rogers, fans who make it to the Coliseum Saturday night will be able to see one of the best ball-handling teams the Ags will face this year. He said the Tigers have an uncanny ability to "get the ball to the man that's open."

Veteran forwards gave the Tigers a real scoring punch up front last year—Hunter Beckman, Bob Neuman and Don Randolph. Beckman is a real shot who averaged 21.3 a game last season. Neuman was no slouch with 19.1 per outing.

Another double-figures averager for the Memphis lads was guard Larry Garber, who had 12.5.

THE TIGERS' other returning starter is George Kirk, a guard who hit just under 10 points per contest last year. Memphis State was tenth nationally in scoring last season.

Other returnees for the Tigers are centers Don Drexell and Bob Smith, and guards Jerry Parrish and Jim Horton. On hand too is center Jamie McMahan, who sat out last season.

SPORTS SECTION

Tuesday night for 32. The Ags hit 60.4 per cent against the Gents.

The defense has been another story and Rogers feels there is a lot of work to be done. Rebounding has been high, as was expected, and Windham, who was second in the conference last season, is showing the way there.

High Schools Play Grid Quarterfinals

By The Associated Press
Sixteen games, highlighted by the clash of defending champion Dumas with undefeated, untied Brownwood in Class AAA's top test, bring the Texas schoolboy football race to its semi-finals this week.

Dumas, loser only to Borger, the Class AAAA power, and Brownwood, which has swept through 11 straight games, tangle at Lubbock Saturday. From this game should come the eventual AAA champion.

Borger, top bracket favorite in Class AAAA, plays resurging San Angelo at Borger; Dallas Samuell tangles with Lufkin at Tyler;

Spring Branch, the top-ranked team of the lower bracket, plays Beaumont South Park at Houston and Brownsville hosts San Antonio Brackenridge.

Borger, Samuell, Spring Branch and Brownsville are favorites to make up the Class AAAA semi-finals next week.

Along with the Dumas-Brownwood battle, McKinney will play Jacksonville at Commerce, Orange engages Bay City at Baytown and Austin Johnston takes on Pharr-San Juan-Alamo at Pharr in Class AAA. Brownwood, McKinney, Orange and Pharr-San Juan-Alamo are favored.

what happened to the

Now there's a little man who knows what he wants! He wants the pretty funny papers. You might say, "He has a mind of his own..." That's correct, of course. Every child is endowed by his creator with a will and a mind; not developed, but it's there. Yet, how that child is trained from his earliest years, will mold his character, develop his mind and strengthen his will. Children should have good example, then. And the best example that parents can give is to go to church. The Church is for you and your family. It is the hope of your children. It is the means of bringing God's bountiful blessings to all.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

East Will Have All-Americans, But West Outweighs Them

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The West team will have the All-American football game played here Dec. 29, but the West has the edge. Back George Saines of Michigan State and Don Brumm, Purdue guard, both East squad members, will be the All-Americans of the field. But the West line outweighs the East line, 224-216 pounds on the average. The entire West team outweighs the East squad, 213-210 pounds, although the West has one lineman on the roster.

LAST YEAR, the East had the names, including All-Americans Ernie Davis and Bob Ferguson, but the West won in Kezar Stadium, 21-8. The West leads the series, 17-15, with 4 ties. Missouri's Dan Devine coaches the West.

The squads report Dec. 19 with the West at Stanford and the East at Santa Clara.

The East team, coached by Jack Allenkopf of Purdue, is mostly southwestern.

The West squad, announced Tuesday:

Ends—Hugh Campbell, Washington State; Gene Raesz, Rice; Marvin Fleming, Utah; Conrad Richter, Missouri.

TACKLES—Steve Barnett, Oregon; Ron Snidow, Oregon; Dave Wata, Utah; Lionel Aldridge, Utah State.

Guards—Tom Whertz, Missouri; Bert Burke, Baylor; Raymond Henke, SMU.

Centers—Ray Mansfield, Washington; Jim Maples, Baylor; J. R. Williams, Fresno State.

Quarterbacks—Sonny Gibbs, CU; Larry Balliett, California; Tom Johnson, Missouri.

Halfbacks—Charles Mitchell, Washington; Kermit Alexander, TLA; Ronnie Goodwin, Baylor; Terry Dillon, Montana.

Fullbacks—George Reed, Washington State; Ed Cummings, Stanford; Bill Thornton, Nebraska.

THE EAST squad:

Ends—Tom Hutchinson, Kentucky; John Mackey, Syracuse; Forest Farmer, Purdue; Art Graham, Boston College; Gene Meeter, West Virginia.

Tackles—Robert Vogel, Ohio State; Don Chuy, Clemson; Don Brumm, Purdue; Jim Bobbitt, Michigan State.

Guards—Earl McQuiston, Iowa; Dave Meggyesy, Syracuse; Ed Bude, Michigan State; John Drakler, Pittsburgh.

Centers—William Armstrong, Ohio State; Jay Robertson, Northwestern.

Quarterbacks—Daryle Lamonica, Notre Dame; Bill Mrukowski, Ohio State; Woody Moore, Indiana.

Halfbacks—George Saines, Michigan State; Larry Ferguson, Iowa; Paul Flatley, Northwestern; Jim Moss, West Virginia.

Fullbacks—Jerry Jones, Minnesota; Roy Walker, Purdue.

Rookie Honor Is Big 'Thrill'

COLTON, Calif. (AP)—"This is an honor that goes in the record books, so it's really a big thrill." That was the comment Thursday of Kenneth Douglas Hubbs, named the 1962 National League rookie of the year.

The rangy second baseman for the Chicago Cubs said he owed a lot to the tutelage of Cub coaches Bobby Adams, Lou Klein and Rip Collins in the Arizona Instructional League last winter.

"They gave me a tremendous amount of confidence to the point where I began to think I could make the grade," said Ken.

Hubbs broke two major league records for second basemen set by Bobby Doerr of the Boston Red Sox in 1958. He went 78 consecutive games without an error and handled 418 successive chances without a miscue. Doerr had strings of 72 games and 414 chances.
