

Fish Roll Up 100 In First Victory

By VAN CONNER
Battalion Sports Editor

People are still digging around in the old records to see if the round 100 points the Fish basketballers racked up against Bryan's Allen Academy is a record. A new mark or not, Shelby Metcalf's 100-80 victory Tuesday night must have been one of the highest scoring contests in freshman cage history at A&M.

Coach Roy Die's lads from Bryan had little to be ashamed of in the game. Had they had a couple of tall boys and a bit more accuracy, things could have gone a lot tighter and perhaps the other way.

THE FISH scored 50 points each half. They led 50-37 at the long break, and managed to hold the lead throughout the second period. Four minutes after the second half began, the cadets from Allen drew within nine points of the Fish.

Allen only led 1-0 and 3-2 during the first minute of play. They managed to stay within three points of A&M for almost ten minutes. But the shooting of Dick Rector and John Beasley started pulling the Fish ahead by leaps and bounds.

With just over three minutes left in the first period, the dead-eye hitting of Allen's Eddie Palko and Nilaro Mendoza had moved them up to only six points behind. It came time then, however, for A&M's Dick Stringfellow to hit three field goals on jumpers and layups in a row and a pair of free tosses. Then in the final seconds of the half Beasley tipped in a Rector free throw and hit another time from the corner.

THE SECOND period turned into a real scoring fest, with Palko and Mendoza hitting like clockwork for Allen and Stringfellow and Billy Atkinson handling most of the chokes for the Fish.

High-point man for the game was Mendoza, who with his running mate at guard, Joe Balderama, put on a ball-handling exhibition all night. Mendoza had 30 points, and Palko was second high man with 28.

For the Fish, Atkinson had 21 points. Beasley and Stringfellow were breathing down his neck with 20 and 19, respectively. Rector was another Aggie in double columns with 13.

Intramurals

The Class A handball championship was decided Monday night, with F-3 winning by a 2-1 decision over Sqd. 15.

The new Corps champs are Benjamin Jackson, Lawrence Christian, Lyman Hardeman, John Pedigo, James Riggs and Ben McCulloch.

The freshman basketball finals are drawing to a close with F-1 and C-2 going against each other in the semi-finals this week. Also in the semi-finals will be D-1, whose opponent will be decided when E-1 and Sqd. 7 play Wednesday night.

F-1 leads the Corps in total number of points for the intramural championship title and flag. Following close behind is Sqd. 9. Next is Sqd. 13, then G-2, and holding down fifth place so far is C-3.

Fish To Host San Antonio Marksmen

Freshman members of the A&M rifle team will host a composite team of San Antonio high school marksmen in a match Saturday at 2 p.m. on the team's range under the Kyle Field bleachers.

An A&M rifle team spokesman also announced Tuesday that the team's match with Arlington State College to determine the Southwest Rifle Association championship has been rescheduled for Sunday at Fort Hood. The time announced earlier this week proved impossible due to conflicts, leaving Sunday as the only time the match could be fired before the holidays.

THIRD SEASON VICTORY

Ags Beat Miss. So., 87-61, For 27th Straight Home Win

By JIM BUTLER
Battalion Ass't Sports Editor

The University of Southern Mississippi Gentlemen acted like it Tuesday night, letting the Aggies win easily their 27th consecutive victory in G. Rollie White Coliseum, 87-61.

A&M's last home defeat was at the hands of SMU, 66-64, in January of 1960.

THE GAME started out as a ball control duel with the score tied 13-13 with nine minutes gone. Al McCormack and Bruce Miller paired for driving layups to put Mississippi Southern into the first, last and only lead the Gentlemen held.

With Gerald Woodard chipping in six points, the Cadets took the lead 22-17 and spent the remaining minutes of the first half adding to it. Mississippi Southern surprised the 2,150 fans by starting two freshmen, two sophomores and one junior. The game young team played a fast moving contest but the Aggies' height and experience was no match.

A&M hit for 53.1 per cent from the floor in the first half and missed only one free throw, holding a 40-26 lead at the buzzer.

THE FARMERS started fast in the second half, building their lead to 23 points midway in the period. Jerry Windham hit on three layups, Lee Walker sank a jump shot and a pair of layups and Bennie Lenox gunned in two jump shots to provide the punch.

in an 87-61 Aggie victory. A&M now holds a 3-1 record while Mississippi Southern has two wins and three defeats.

Windham and Lenox led the Aggie scoring with 19 points apiece. Woodard had 10, while Lew Quill, Lee Walker and Cecil Ferguson made nine.

The Cadets out-rebounded the Gentlemen 44-42, with Windham grabbing off six to pace the Aggies. Doug Stacy and Jackie Laird took down six for MS.

MILLER scored 19 points to take high scoring honors for the Southerners. Laird chipped in 14 for second.

Rogers' quintet goes after its 28th straight home win Saturday night against the University of Houston Cougars.

Pall Mall Presents - GIRL WATCHER'S GUIDE

CAMPUS TYPE IV

The natural habitat of the Cupcake is the Home Economics kitchen. She believes, as her mother did, that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. While this viewpoint might be considered unsophisticated by many of today's more enlightened male students, none of them has ever been known to turn down a tin of her Fudge-Frosted Nut-Filled Brownies. She really has a way with a dish and, as you can see, she's quite a dish herself.

Just as the Cupcake has found the perfect recipe for Frosted Brownies, the makers of Pall Mall have found the perfect recipe for a delicious smoke. Taste Pall Mall's natural mildness and see what we mean.

Pall Mall's natural mildness is so good to your taste!

So smooth, so satisfying,
so downright smokeable!
