

Ags Host Houston Cougars, Fish Test Kilgore Saturday

Bob Rogers' varsity cagers will be in for a real workout Saturday night at 8 p.m. as they hit the big time against nationally-lauded Houston in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

The Ags will be going for their 28th consecutive home victory against the Cougars. The last time an Aggie squad lost in G. Rollie White was in January of 1960, when SMU managed to slip by Rogers' lads, 64-62.

Guy Lewis' formidable Cougars figured high in all the pre-season national polls, and they have been listed among the top twenty so far this year. They'll have a 5-0 slate going for them when they come to College Station this weekend.

They will bring with them Lyle Harger, Donnie Schverak, and Folly Malone as standouts, with other starters Chet Oliver and Reno Lifschutz on hand to give the Cadets a run for it.

HARGER IS an All-American candidate who has averaged 18 counters per game this year. He sports a 61.7 field goal percentage. He was sixth in the nation in field goal shooting last season. Harger has 13.3 rebounds per game.

Before Thursday night's 76-69 win over North Texas, the Cougars had averaged 75.3 points per contest, and 47 rebounds to their opponent's 36.3.

The Cadets have averaged 82.5 per game against their foes' 70.7. They've taken 180 rebounds to the enemies' 154.

It will probably be a real tussle between A&M's Jerry Windham and Harger. Windham has averaged 20.5 points per contest so far this season. He has collected 40 rebounds for a 10 per game norm.

Coach Shelby Metcalf's Fish basketballers will kick off cage activities Saturday night. They'll be meeting Kilgore Junior College at 6 p.m. before the varsity tilt with Houston.

The Fish will be looking for revenge for the 86-72 loss they suffered at the hands of Kilgore JC in Kilgore as they opened their 1962-63 season. A week later the Aggie freshmen rolled over Bryan's Allen Academy, 100-80, at home in their second outing.

Mainstay In Relief

A 6-7 senior from Three Rivers, Lee Walker was a mainstay in relief for Bob Rogers' Aggie basketball team last season. And it looks as if he will continue to turn in fine performances during his final season. The 200-pounder has averaged 6.5 points per game this season and has collected 18 rebounds in three games. Last year, playing often as a substitute, he scored 48 points in 21 games and had 47 per cent accuracy from the floor. The big physics major gathered 63 rebounds for the Cadets last season.

Schoolboy Grid Semifinals Scheduled In Four Divisions; Borger, Dumas Are Favored

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three games Friday night and five Saturday will bring the Texas schoolboy football race to its finals in four divisions with Borger and Spring Branch expected to emerge in Class AAAAA.

Dumas and Orange are predicted in Class AAA, Winters and Sinton in Class AA and Rotan and New London in Class A.

Borger meets Lufkin, a three-time loser making a glittering finish. Spring Branch takes on the highest scorer in the division-San Antonio Brackenridge, which has rolled up 413 points in 12 games.

Both Borger and Spring Branch are undefeated and untied.

DUMAS CLASHES with Jacksonville while Orange tangles with Pharr-San Juan-Alamo in Class AAA.

Dumas is the most impressive although it does not have an unsullied record. The Demons have scored 413 points in 12 outings.

Winters and Jacksboro meet in the headliner of Class AA. It is the state's only game matching teams with unbeaten, untied records.

Rockdale and Sinton hook up in the other AA semifinal.

Jacksboro is the state's highest scorer with 544 for an average of 41.9.

ROTAN AND defending champion Albany clash in the Class A semifinals, with New London taking on Ingleside in the other game. Rotan has romped to 493 points, New London 458.

The semifinal schedule:

Class AAAAA
Saturday-Borger vs. Lufkin, Denton, 2 p.m.; Spring Branch vs. San Antonio Brackenridge, Houston, 2:30 p.m.

Class AAA
Saturday-Dumas vs. Jacksonville at Wichita Falls, 2 p.m.; Orange vs. Pharr-San Juan-Alamo at Victoria, 2 p.m.

Class AA
Friday-Rockdale vs. Sinton, Seguin, 8 p.m.; Saturday-Winters vs. Jacksboro at Abilene, 8 p.m.

Class A
Friday-Rotan vs. Albany, Abilene, 7:30 p.m.; New London vs. Ingleside at Baytown, 8 p.m.

Miami, Nebraska To Play In Gotham

NEW YORK (AP)—The Gotham Bowl football game between Miami's Hurricanes and the Nebraska Cornhuskers will be played Saturday at Yankee Stadium.

The Cornhuskers, 8-2, are rated just even with the Hurricanes, 7-3.

The game will be shown on television from 5 p. m. to 10 p. m., EST. The usual 2 1/2 hour game will be edited to 90 minutes but a network spokesman said that every play will be shown.

Miami has been guaranteed $30,000 and Nebraska $35,000 cover expenses.

There was no immediate announcement as to how much delayed telecast will pay. Guarantees ranged between $25,000 and $100,000.

Young Ag Swimming Team Opens Saturday In Dallas

A young Aggie swimming team opens its 1962-63 season Saturday in the annual Southwest Conference Relays at Dallas.

Veteran Coach Art Adamson, in his 28th year as head of the Aggie swimmers, has a 19-man squad consisting of only two seniors, seven juniors and ten sophomores.

The Aggies compiled a 5-3 won-lost record in dual meets last year, but are not expected to fare as well this season due to inexperience. However, Adamson has a couple of record holders he can call on.

Bob Baker, a junior from Houston, swam the 50-yard freestyle event in 22.3 seconds last season for a P. L. Downs Jr. Natatorium record and teamed with Tom Kennerly, Bill Baker and David Kass for a new pool mark of 3:33.2 in the 400-yard freestyle relay. Kennerly, a junior from Spring Branch, also returns to this year's team.

Adamson lists Baker, Kennerly, Raymond Cloninger of Texas City,

Scott Beckwith of Fort Worth, George Reynolds of Sierra Vista, Ariz., and Kaighin Watts of San Antonio as his top-rated swimmers, and Bob Howell of Fort Worth, Bert Griffey of Abilene and Michael Palmer of Duncan, Oklahoma as the best divers.
