Same Ol' Tale: UT Wins, 70-59

By JIM BUTLER Battalion Ass't Sports Editor No cries of "Poor Aggies" were heard Tuesday night in G. Rollie White Coliseum as A&M and Texas students alike filed silently out of the gym where the Cadets went down to a 70-59 defeat at the hands of the Longhorns.

The traditional Texas haunt may have been well-deserved, but the Longhorns felt it wiser to contain their glee until away from campus.

BOB ROGERS' group continued its cold spell, hitting only 19 of 50 shots for 38 percent while the Steers sank 27 of 49 attempts for 55.1 percent.

Poor free throw shooting — 21 of 34 — along with careless passing, below normal defense and a general lack of heads-up playing, contributed to the Aggies' sixth loss in 31 games.

Nothing can be taken away from Longhorns, though, as the play of their three guards — Jimmy Gilbert, Jimmy Puryear and John Heller — can be inadequately described as phenomenal.

Gilbert's 23 points and Puryear's 19 were career highs for each player and Heller chipped in 13 to complete the rout before a capacity crowd.

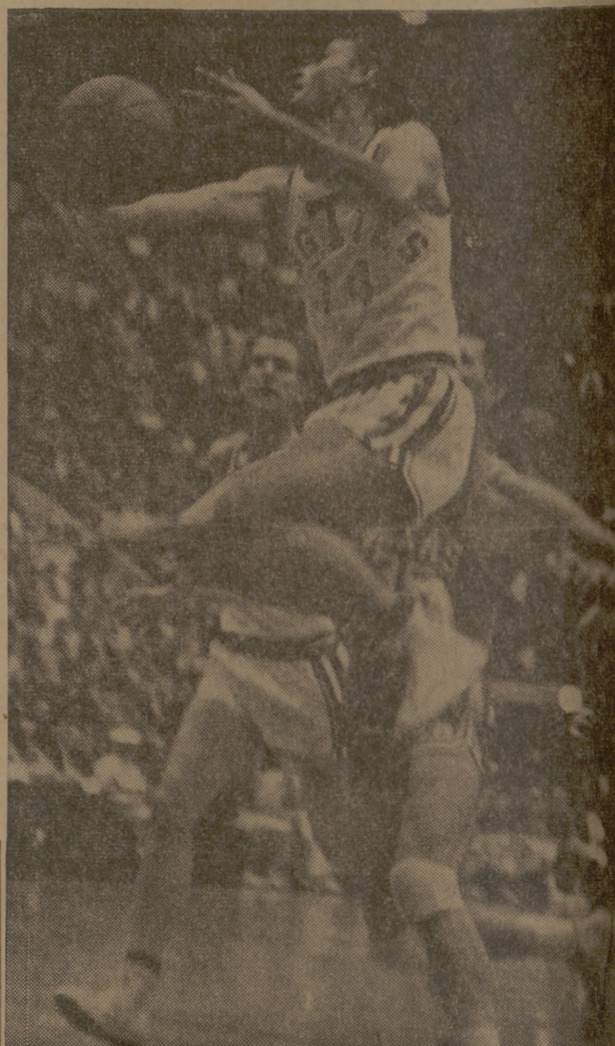

TEXAS' BIG sophomore John Paul Fultz added 12, mainly on hook shots, to finish out the Longhorn scoring with the exception of Mike Humphrey's three points.

Top man for the Aggies and for the game was Bennie Lenox, who hit well on all shots for 26 points. Lee Walker scored 15, with 11 coming on charity tosses.

Walker led both teams in rebounds with 11 while Joe Fisher grabbed off eight for the Steers.

The next game for the Aggies will be against TCU in Ft. Worth Saturday night.

Timmins Hits Layup A&M's Paul Timmins (14) goes up for a layup at Texas Tuesday night in the Aggies' 70-59 loss. For the play are Aggie Jerry Windham and John Paul (35) and Jimmy Gilbert (15) of the Longhorns.

Roberts Scores 19 As Fish Top Texas

Joe Roberts dropped in 19 points Tuesday night to lead the Fish in a close-fought 66-62 win over the Texas Shorthorns in a prelim to the varsity catastrophe.

Other scoring was fairly even distributed for A&M, with Billy Atkinson hitting 12, Dicky Stringfellow connecting for 11 and John Beasley and John Reynolds hitting nine and eight, respectively.

Ball-hawking Paul Olivier matched Roberts for the Texas Frosh and teammate Platt Davis hit 16 points to be second high man for the game.

Fish in gear with a jump shot each and then A&M was able to stall out the rest of the game.

The Fish will travel to Fort Worth with the varsity Saturday for a try at the TCU Wags. Tuesday night's victory led the freshmen with a 5-1 record.

Table with columns: BOX SCORE, Fg, Ft, Rb, Pf, Tp. Lists stats for Texas and A&M players including Roberts, Reynolds, and Davis.

AFTER A BRIEF exchange of the advantage mid-way in the first half, and a tied score with about three minutes remaining, the Fish led all the way.

With just under seven minutes left in the contest, Davis connected on a pair of driving layups to start a Texas surge that came close to catching the Ags.

John Lucas produced an unbeaten Penn State cross-country team in his first campaign as head coach last fall.
