

Table Tennis Trio Will Play In Dallas

Spencer Gaille, Maurice Chapman and Joseph Asu will represent A&M at the Region 9 table tennis competition of the Association of College Union Games Tournament at SMU in Dallas Friday and Saturday.

The three were winners of the Memorial Student Center's annual Singles Table Tennis Tournament held in the recreation room Monday night.

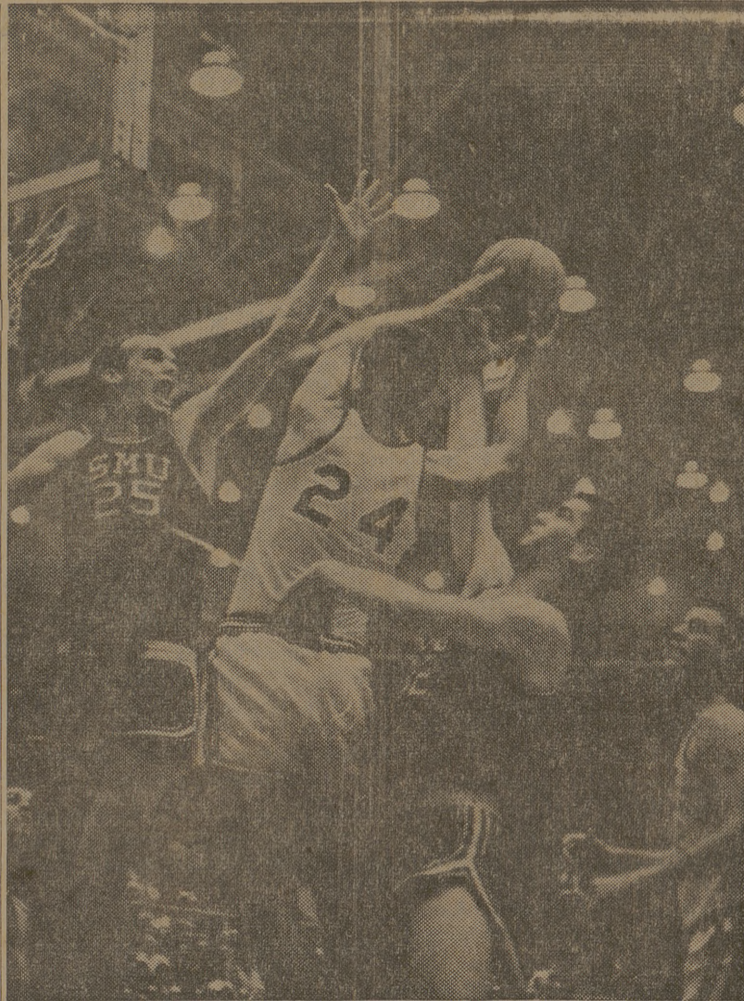

Thirty-two Aggies were entered in the tourney. The entry fee was 75 cents and the meet was open to any student.

Gaille defeated Chapman in the finals, 21-19, 24-22, and 21-17, in the best three out of five series.

In perhaps the most heated match of the night, Asu outlasted Williams in the finals of the losers' bracket, 21-17, 26-24, and 21-15.

Gaille, Chapman and Asu will be playing against the cream of the crop from colleges in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and New Mexico in the Dallas meet.

A&M's trio of ping pong aces will receive letter sweaters for representing Aggieworld at the tourney.

BENNIE HITS 35

Cadets Edge Ponies, 76-70 Lenox Stages Shooting Circuit

The Aggies, behind the 35-point performance of junior Bennie Lenox, regained the magic touch Tuesday night and defeated the SMU Mustangs 76-70 in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

Lenox hit 10 field goals and 15 of 17 free throws to fall two points short of Carroll Broussard's record of 37.

Despite Lenox's one man show, the Cadets had to pull up from a five-point deficit, 37-32, at half-time to ice the victory.

A disappointing crowd of 4,000 was not disappointed in the game as both squads moved the ball well, hustled and generally gave the fans a fast-moving, interesting, close contest.

The Ponies jumped out to a fast 14-6 lead, making good on their first six shots and two foul shots. The Aggies closed the gap on two jump shots by Paul Timmins for a 16-16 tie.

But a spell of awkwardness on the part of the Maroon helped SMU to gain a nine point advantage before the tide turned.

The Farmers took five minutes of the second half to catch the Mustangs and held for the remainder of the game.

Though Lenox accounted for nearly half the scoring, he received a lot of help defensively from ball-hawking Gerald Woodard and board-clearing Jerry Windham. Windham grabbed off 15 rebounds to lead both teams.

Towering Lew Qualls chipped in with five rebounds and several shots to aid the Cadets. Dave Siegmund scored 11 points to lead SMU and pulled down 10 rebounds in a losing cause.

The win brought the Aggie conference slate to 4-3 and them 12 victories against SMU in season play.

Saturday night, the Aggie Razorbacks come to G. Rollie White Coliseum in an effort to end the newest win string at one.
