

Fish Get Revenge On Wogs, 72 - 67

A&M's Fish cagers put down a strong rally by the stubborn TCU Wogs to take a 72-67 victory Saturday night and avenge an earlier defeat in Ft. Worth.

The teams fought evenly for half of the opening period and were tied 18-18 when the Fish took off. With John Beasley and Dick Stringfellow leading the surge, the A&M freshmen pulled out to a 40-28 lead at halftime.

With 12:45 remaining to play the Fish held what seemed to be a safe 19-point lead. But the Wogs weren't convinced and in eight minutes closed the gap to a single point, 60-59.

Beasley had his best night of the season in the scoring column with 25 points. He had nine from the floor and seven at the charity line. The 6-7 led also led in rebounding with 14.

A&M clung to a slender lead on the shooting of Beasley and John Reynolds and went into a stall with a minute and a half to play.

Dale Abshire paced the Wogs with 20 points, while Jim Torbert dumped in 18 and Roger Potts hit for 11.

Spring Football Training Postponed Until Thursday

Head Coach and Athletic Director Hank Foldberg announced Saturday that he will postpone spring football training until Thursday.

Spring drills had been scheduled to begin Monday.

As a member of the Southwest Conference, A&M is allotted 36 days in which to hold 20 practice sessions. Foldberg expects to end the sessions with the annual spring Maroon-White game March 30 if the weather is kind.

Foldberg also said that three of his gridders will miss at least some of the head-knocking.

John Sparling, a sophomore quarterback from Jal, N. Mex., underwent surgery Saturday morning for a knee injury he received in intramural basketball.

Junior halfback George Hargett and soph fullback Gary Cavasas have been excused from spring training to assume roles as base-batters.

The Aggie mentor said he expects about 80 footballers to show up Thursday.

Rogers, Metcalf Take Cagers To Baylor Rematches Tonight

Coaches Bob Rogers and Shelby Metcalf take their varsity and freshmen cagers to Waco Tuesday night for rematches with corresponding squads from Baylor.

Rogers' lads are currently holding down a second place slot in the conference. As a result of Saturday night play, they can go up no more, so second is the best they can hope to finish. The hapless Bears represent the seventh place SWC team.

A&M HAS a 7-4 league record and Baylor is 2-9. The Cadets have already worked the Bruins over thoroughly with a 80-54 drubbing in College Station Jan. 3.

Baylor's main claim to fame is 6-6 country boy Winston Moore, who is fifth in over-all scoring for the SWC and seventh since league play commenced. A&M's Bennie Lenox, of course, will be the offensive man to watch as he keeps on with his bid to break as many A&M scoring records as possible.

Coach Bill Menefee will probably start Moore, 6-6 Herb Barritt, 6-1 Ray Wolfe, 6-1 Don Brownlee and 6-6 Spencer Carlson.

The Cadets will take an impressive backlog of statistics to Waco. They have averaged 72.2 per game against their foes' 66.2. The Ags have 979 rebounds to their opponents' 826, with Jerry Windham leading in that department with 199.

METCALF'S Fish basketballers scored a smooth 85-62 win over the Cubs back in January. Since then they have rolled on to an 8-2 record. They will tangle with the Baylor frosh in a 6 p.m. prelim.

While the Ags are ploughing through what will probably be an easy time Tuesday, a big part of the story for SWC second place will be told as the Rice Owls meet undefeated Texas in Houston.

WITH 30 POINTS

Lenox Continues Onslaught As Aggies Blast Froggies

By JIM BUTLER
Battalion Ass't Sports Editor

Guard Bennie Lenox continued his wholesale onslaught on Carroll Broussard's scoring records and the TCU Horned Frogs presented no serious opposition as the Aggies walked off with an 87-54 victory in G. Rollie White Coliseum Saturday night.

LENOX PUMPED in 30 points and the Cadets out-rebounded the inept Frogs 61-43 with Jerry Windham getting 14 and Lee Walker coming down with 11.

The Froggies handed the lead to the Cadets early and seemed contented to please the 3,000 fans with their awkward antics the rest of the night.

Coach Bob Rogers' crew held as much as a 16-point advantage twice in the first half and was ahead 36-28 at intermission.

In the second half, TCU was so cold the possibility arose that they may have been shooting snow balls. Meanwhile the Farmers were hitting 58.4 per cent of their shots to run their margin above 30 points for the last quarter of the game.

THE BIG EDGE gave Rogers a chance to show the fans a picture of things to come as three sophomores and two juniors were on the court for the Aggies in the last two minutes.

Lynn Merritt with 10 points and Cecil Ferguson with eight looked promising, but outstanding performances by Windham and Walker made the fans realize how much their graduation is going to hurt.

The two tall W's each poured in 11 points.

The 87-54 score was A&M's biggest winning margin for the season and lacked only five points of topping their 91 point showing against Centenary opening night.

ARCHIE CLAYTON led Frogs with 17 points on hook shots. Jimmy Fowler and Don Rosick 11 for the record to 14-7 and left it to Rice for second place in the conference both with 7-4 slates. is now 1-10 in SWC play an over-all.

The Aggies play Baylor Tuesday night.
