Aggie Parachutists Take 2nd In Fairview, Okla. Contest

The parachute club was in Fairview, Okla., last weekend, where they were the second-best overall club in a sky-diving meet sponsored by the Enid, Okla., Sky Divers.

Oklahoma State University's jumpers barely edged the Aggies out in the meet. Other teams participating in the trials were from the University of Oklahoma, Fort Sill, Fort Hood and Fort Riley.

The A&M club has grown in numbers since its establishment a few years ago. As of the fall semester, there were 54 dues-paying members participating in club activities.

The Parachute Club will show a film featuring the U. S. Army Jump Team Thursday night at 7:30 in the Memorial Student Center. Any interested persons have been invited to attend.

Bob Sholly took second place in the individual overall scoring at Fairview. He was third in the advanced style jumping and second in the intermediate style competition.

Bob Richardson, Jay Whellock and John Olden made up an Aggie team that placed third in the team spot jumping competition.

Olden was first in the individual spot jumping with an effort that landed him only four feet from the target.

Richardson hit 10 feet from the target to take second place in the individual spot jumping.

Mike Richardson was second in the novice spot jumping competition.

Michael Zinz and Pat Works rounded out the A&M representation at the meet.

Handballers Will Host UT On A&M Courts Saturday

The A&M handball team will host the University of Texas handball team in DeWare Fieldhouse Saturday morning at 10.

The two teams met in Austin Feb. 16 and the more-experienced lads from Texas won 16 of 20.

A&M's regulation-sized courts should prove a more familiar setting for the Ags than the smaller-than-normal ones at Austin.

Members of the A&M Handball Club make up the Aggie team. Their berths on the squad are determined by positions on the competition ladder maintained by the club.

Club reporter W. R. Allen said that anyone interested in entering the handball ladder competition may do so.

A set of directions for entering has been placed between courts 10 and 11 in DeWare Fieldhouse.

Intramurals

Semi-finals for intramural wrestling will be held next Tuesday. Wednesday will be held open and then Thursday, the finals will begin.

The sports to follow wrestling: Class A&C volleyball and tennis, and Class B handball are scheduled March 11, according to Charles E. McCandless, intramural director. Rifle is tentatively set for March 11 also.

Freshman wrestlers who failed to report Wednesday, but were absent to attend the freshman meeting in Guion Hall, must reschedule their match, first with the intramural director and then with their opponent.

Wednesday's A&C results in wrestling: 147 division, Sandefer of Mitchell Hall. The 167 division: Bearden, Walton Hall and Simpton, C-1.

Winners in the 191 division: Boring, C-1; Hawkins, Sqd. 13; Fondon, Sqd. 9; Terrill, E-2; Cook, D-1; Jarvis, C-1; and Johnson, Walton Hall.

Winning in the heavyweight division: Ternus, Leggett Hall; Caldwell, Walton; Dougherty, B-3; Stancil, F-1; McGaughey, D-3; Brostek, Milner Hall; Airhart, A-3; and Kingston, Sqd. 9.
