New Purchasing Director Named

Wesley E. Donaldson Jr., formerly of Columbia, S. C. has been named new director of purchasing.

Tom D. Cherry, director of the business affairs office, said Donaldson will be in charge of all purchasing activity, inventories and stores. The position was created by a recent reorganization in the college's fiscal affairs.

made "a very good presentation." Haines said: "It's not Capt. Dodson. He is sincere, and knows what he is doing."

BUT EVERYONE on the committee was asked to cut somewhere, and to keep A&M from getting cut, I had to go along with this.

"Sen. Schwartz got himself crosswise with the Senate, and if it had not happened in the House, it would have in the Senate."

After rumors about the budget slashing reached The Battalion last Tuesday, Schwartz commented:

"I think that this is false economy on the part of the House. I can't believe that Texas is going to junk this good program."

SCHWARTZ, ALSO an A&M graduate, has been a recent critic of secret Senate sessions to discuss appointments by the governor.

The Galveston senator said:

"By eliminating the appropriation for the Texas Maritime Academy at this stage, it's just going to make us fight for it."

Haines urged former students of A&M to "plug for more money for the school."

'COTTON' BOLES?

Boles Is Named Cotton Ball King

"Cotton" Boles may be a moniker he has to live with for the rest of his life, if it catches on.

For Nathan R. Boles of Winters, a 21-year-old senior agronomy major, has been named King Cotton for the 29th annual Cotton Pageant and Ball to be held April 6.

King Cotton Boles, or "Cotton" Boles, as we choose to call him, will reign over the pageant and ball which will be held in honor of the state's main cash crop, cotton.

The pageant will be held at 7:30 p.m. in Guion Hall, followed by the Cotton Ball in Sbisga Hall.

Boles was chosen for the honor by Agronomy Society members in recognition of his student activity record. He is social secretary and past vice president of the society and a distinguished student.

"Cotton" Boles attended Winters High School and was graduated in 1959. While in high school, he was a member of the National Honor Society, student council, president of Winters FFA chapter and was elected Most Representative Boy of Winters High School in 1959.

Members of King Cotton's Court will be Jim Griffith of Paint Creek; Vincent Haby, Castroville; Bob McMichael, Chilloothe; Robert Heine, Thorndale; James Bartak, Temple; James Connor, Evant; Kindred Caskey, Weslaco; and Roy L. McClung Jr. of Seymour.

Faculty advisors are Dr. H. E. Hampton, T. E. McAfee, J. F. Mills and J. R. Justin of the Agronomy Section of the Department of Soil and Crop Sciences.

'Making Marriage Meaningful' Slated To Be Topic Of Second Forum Meeting

Why is there a "boom" in high school and college marriages? Is immaturity the killer of romance?

These and other similar questions will be discussed Tuesday at the second session of Marriage Forums being conducted by the YMCA.

Dr. Robert Ledbetter, marriage counselor from Austin, will speak at 7:30 p.m. on "Making Marriage Meaningful."

"The forums held last year are now being repeated by popular request of the students," said J.

Gordon Gay, general secretary of the YMCA.

"The Sexual Aspects of Married Life" and "Marrying Outside Your Faith" are the topics to be discussed on following succeeding Tuesdays.

Civilians Urged To Provide Rooms For Visiting Students

Civilian students are being urged to participate in providing rooms for the estimated 400 high school students who will visit the campus next weekend for High School Career Day, according to George McWilliams, co-chairman of the Inter-Council housing committee.

Registration for high school activities will begin at 1 p.m. March 15 in the Memorial Student Center and will end at 9 a.m. the next day.

Activities for the students will begin with a review of the Corps of Cadets. President Earl Rudder will welcome the students in a general assembly, after which they will move to their respective schools and departments.
