

Lions Club, Kiwanis Teams Announced For Friday Game

College Station Lions and Kiwanis have announced their teams for an inter-club basketball game slated for Friday night in A&M Consolidated High School gym.

The two organizations are staging the 7:30 game as a benefit for the high school choir robe fund.

Lions coach Bill Cochran has named a tentative starting five that includes Don Young and Freddie Wolters at the guard positions. Leland Grumbles and Lacy McCall will go at the forwards.

J. E. (Jumpin') Loupot will probably start at center, although there was a close fight for the starting berth at that slot with former Texas Tech star Charley Pinnell. "At this stage of practice, Loupot has shown a little more desire and is in better physical condition," Cochran said.

Coach Homer Adams of the Kiwanis Club has been having injury problems. Team physician Dr. Ed McMurray reports that several of the players were sidelined with "stiffness and old age."

McMurray felt, however, that most of them would be able to see action Friday night.

The brightest spot in Kiwanis workouts, according to Adams, has been the development of Hank Foldberg. "Hank is coming along real fast," the coach said. "He has good hands, and is very agile for his age. If he can just develop a little more competitive spirit, he can be a real help to us."

Other Kiwanian cagers are Luther Byrd, Murray Brown, Dave Franklin, Jim Cooper, Tom Cartwright, Dick Haddox, Cliff Harris, Dick Hervey, Tex Isbell, Raymond Jones, Allen Madeley, Cubby Manning, Carl Landis, John Quisenberry, Bill Krueger, Taylor Reidel, Ed Segner, Bob Schiller, Bob Skrabanek and Jack Sloan.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (AP)—Jimmy Smithwick, 6-foot-4 freshman forward, has impressed varsity coach Dean Smith and freshman coach Ken Rosemond so much that the Morehead City, N. C., youngster will receive a scholarship for next season.

IN BASEBALL OPENER

TLC Surprises Cadets, 4-2

A&M's much-lauded 1963 baseball team had its debut Thursday afternoon on Kyle Field and got a surprise rough treatment at the hands of Texas Lutheran College in a 4-2 loss.

Two comeback homeruns in the bottom of the eighth by pitcher Richard Beller and first baseman Frank Stark were enough to put the Ags out ahead 2-1 with one chance remaining for the Bulldogs.

THE LADS from Seguin took advantage of the opportunity, and Beller. The left-handed hurler struck out the first man for TLC but then walked pinch hitter Don Josephson.

Catcher Frank Arnold of the Bulldogs then came up with a double to right center that put Larry Olsen, who was running for Josephson, on third.

Beller walked Ronnie Ahlhorn and Newton Grimes, scoring Olsen. Then winning pitcher Ernest Druebert tapped a single through the hole between third and short that scored Grimes and Arnold to make it four runs.

TLC had gotten an earlier score in the top of the fourth when third baseman Kenney Voges made it to third base on one of A&M's four errors. He was driven in by first baseman Miffy Kaase's double to left field.

THREE PITCHERS saw action for three innings each for A&M. Johnny Crain led off, giving up two hits and striking out two men. Ed Singley gave up the first run and suffered four hits while striking out three Bulldogs.

ASIDE FROM the round-trippers, Cavasas was the most successful Cadet batter. He went two for four with a single and a double. The fullback-on-leave was among five Ags with hits.

Seven of the Bulldogs had hits to their credit. Last season's Southwest Conference batting king Bill Hancock, and another normally big hitter for coach Tom Chandler, Robert McAdams, went two for four.

The Ags will host the University of Houston baseballers on the Kyle Field diamond Saturday at 3 p.m.

INTRAMURALS

Rubber mats help prevent the majority of wrestling accidents. They don't, however, completely soak-up the fall of a wrestler—just ask Emory Boring of C-1.

Boring dislocated his shoulder Thursday in the mural wrestling finals after only one minute and 45 seconds of the first round. Russell K. Wieder, A&M's wrestling coach, replaced Boring's shoulder to its proper position. No further first-aid was necessary. Boring, wrestling in the 191 class, lost to Bert Terrill of E-2 on default.

Other winners in the A&C division: 123 — B. L. Bateman, D-3; 130 — Marshall Wolff, F-1; 137 —

G. D. Riner, Law Hall; 147 — M. Finkelstein, Milner Hall.

Also: 157 — Wes Green, Sqd. 11; 167 — Jerry Simpton, C-1; 177 — A. W. Hoyt, College View; and in the heavyweight class — Alexander Brostek, Milner Hall.

Freshman results in the finals held Thursday for wrestling: 123 — Jeff Begay, Sqd. 2; 130 — Joe Parks, Sqd. 5; 137 — Rick Graham, White Band; 147 — Gary Aglietti of D-3.

Also: 157 — Michael Norman, Sqd. 13; 167 — William Singleton, C-3; 177 — Dale Felps, Sqd. 6; 191 — Ernest Krueger, F-1; and in the heavyweight class — Alfonso Medina of C-1.
