Texas Schools Need Affiliation

HAROLD V. RATLIFF, Associated Press Sports Writer, says colleges made an excellent start toward putting football playing and satisfying basis organization of the conference that encompasses Abilene State, Arlington State, Trinity, Lamar Tech of Texas and Arkansas State of Jonesboro.

It didn't go nearly far. There are nine independent teams to be lined up with good.

MAR TECH actually didn't join a conference since it already is in the Lone Star but it should get a boost for the new league.

There is an outstanding athletic team being conducted by the state college.

Teams still unattached in Texas are Houston, Hardin-Simmons, McMurtry, Texas Lutheran, Austin, West Texas State, Texas Tech, Corpus Christi and Tarleton.

McMURRY, Texas Lutheran and Tarleton State definitely would appear good timber for the new league. Austin College operates on a no-scholarship basis and could hardly be expected to enter. West Texas State and Texas Western want in the Western States Conference along with the Arizona schools, which is quite understandable. They probably will get in shortly. Corpus Christi would have to emphasize football considerably more to make it a good prospect.

TAKE OVER SWC LEAD Frogs Edge Ags In Squeaker, 4-2

Coach Tom Chandler's baseballers opened their crucial two-game series with Texas Christian Wednesday afternoon and fell to the Horned Frogs 4-2.

The TCU win on their own field put them one-half game ahead of the Aggies for the Southwest Conference lead. TCU is 4-1 and A&M is 3-1.

Pat Peebles, a right-hander fast-baller, pitched a strong five-hitter for the Frogs and retired 12 Cadets in order during one stretch.

Johnny Crain was the starter and loser for the Maroon, allowing four runs and 12 hits in his 6 1/3 innings. Lefty Richard Beller came on to retire the last five Frog hitters.

TCU started the scoring in the first inning bunting a base on balls and four singles for two tallies. Don Reynolds drove in the first score with a looping drive to centerfield and Fred Jones drove in the second run with a sharp single to left.

The Aggies tied the count in the third with Robert McAdams' double driving across Jerry Ballard and Bill Hancock who had singled.

The Horned Frogs threatened in the third leaving the bases loaded and again in the sixth with runners on second and third with one man out. Crain then struck out Bill McAdams and got Bob Bigley on a liner to right to end the inning.

That was only a breather though as TCU struck for two runs in the seventh and held on for the win. Jay Walrath started the inning with his third hit of the game. Following a fine play on a grounder that retired Walrath at second base, Ronnie McLain tripled to deep centerfield scoring Don Reynolds who had reached first on the fielder's choice.

Jones followed McLain's blast with a single to left accounting for the Frogs' last run.

The loss dropped A&M's season slate to 8-4 while TCU is now 13-2. The two teams play again Thursday with Ed Singley pitching for the Cadets.

TCU will pitch Lance Brown who is undefeated in five decisions this season and has an earned run average of 1.23. Singley is 2-1 with an ERA of 1.42.

Fencers, Wrestlers Face UT In Final Matches Of Season

A&M's fencers and wrestlers meet the University of Texas teams in Austin Saturday afternoon to close out the Aggies' season.

The Aggies have defeated both the Longhorn fencers and wrestlers in earlier matches this season. But Coach Russell K. Wieder is cautious about Saturday's events. Wieder, an assistant professor of health and physical education, coaches both the Wrestling and Fencing Clubs teams.

"They'll be loaded for us this time," Wieder said of the university's teams.

The fencers begin their bouts at 2 p.m. and the wrestlers pair off at 3:30 p.m. in Gregory Gymnasium.

The Aggie fencers defeated the U of T team 11 to five in an earlier 16-bout match. Twice the Aggies defeated Rice University fencers by a 14-2 score in other action this season.

The A&M wrestlers downed the U of T 24-8, in an earlier match.

and also have beaten the Houston All-Stars, outstanding wrestlers from YMCA's and Boys Clubs. LeTourneau Institute, which has a varsity wrestling team, defeated the Aggies 24-8 in December as the Aggies' first loss in several years. Later, LeTourneau edged the Aggies 15-13.

The Aggie fencers are Wyatt K. Anderson, Alvaro Restrepo, Eudoro Galindo, Ricardo Cerna, Thomas B. Wilson, Joe F. Becera, and Clifford A. Jacobs.

Coach Wieder's wrestlers are: Gary Riner, Michael Norman, Jerry Simpton, Alexander Brostek, Gary Aglietti, Mark Finkelstein, Jefferson Begay, and Harley Hannasium.

Palmer Favorite To Win 4th Masters

Golf king Arnold Palmer is a 4-1 favorite to win his fourth Masters Tournament, beginning Thursday. But the other two-thirds of the "Big Three" — Gary Player and Jack Nicklaus — are not far behind at 6-1.

However, every top professional and amateur golfer in the country will be seeking to upset the odds. Observers feel the best bets outside the favored trio will be young swingers Tony Lema, Johnny Pott and Don January.
