

Aggies Share SWC Lead; McAdams Leads In Hitting

The Aggie baseball team moves into the second half of the Southwest Conference race in a first place tie with the Baylor Bears, with both teams posting 5-2 records.

The Texas Longhorns are running a close second with a 4-2 record. Standing in third position is TCU, posting a 5-3 effort. All the other teams in the conference are lost in the bottom of the list with winless SMU in the very deepest corner of the cellar.

BOOSTING THE Aggies with his hitting is Robert McAdams with a .333 average in eight conference games. Second baseman Jerry Ballard is second, batting at .324, and Bill Hancock is close behind with a .323 clip. McAdams is also the current leader in total bases with 21 and rbis with nine. Hancock is second in total bases with 17 and second in rbis with seven. Ray Hall holds the third position in total bases with 14 and Frank Stark is third in rbis with five.

Four men are leading in home runs. Hancock, McAdams, Stark and Hall have all hit two round-trippers each.

The Aggie pitching staff seems well bolstered with the likes of Ed Singley, John Crain and Chuck McGuire. Singley has worked in 14 innings and leads in strikeouts with 16 and has an ERA of 1.29. McGuire has an ERA of 1.56 for 23 innings, has 15 strikeouts and has walked only five men. Crain has pitched the most innings at 28 and has an ERA of 2.20.

SINGLEY AND McGuire have 2-1 records while Crain has posted a 1-1 record in conference games.

The Aggie diamondsmen have compiled a .253 batting average in conference games, compared to a .164 average for their opponents. The Farmers have been to bat 277 times and have driven in 70 runs to 261 times at bat and 20 runs for the enemy. Seventy hits have been collected by A&M compared to 44 hits for the other teams.

Aggie pitchers have given up 44 hits while on the mound while SWC colleagues have given up 70 hits to A&M. The staff has an outstanding ERA of 1.62 for conference play while its opponents posted an ERA of 4.37. This good average is due to the moundsmen giving up only 13 earned runs against 34 for the other pitchers.

Baseball, Track Hit Road For Action This Weekend

Only two of the Aggies spring sports teams will be in action this weekend as Southwest Conference competition is coming to a close on all fronts.

The baseball team wheels to Houston Friday for a two-game set with the Rice Owls while five tracksters hop over to Des Moines, Iowa, for the Drake Relays.

Coach Charlie Thomas will send the rest of his thinclads to Waco for a SWC practice meet. Southern Methodist will enter 12 men while Texas Christian will send seven. Baylor is expected to enter 12 cindermen and Texas and Rice will also be represented.

Coach Tom Chandler's baseballers face the Owls Friday and Saturday. Meanwhile, TCU is hosting Baylor and Texas plays at SMU.

Danny Roberts and the mile relay team will represent A&M in the state of the Cornhuskers. Roberts will compete in the yard and 220-yard dashes and discus. The relay team made up of John Collins, Merritt, Jerry Anderson and Nelson.

Nelson will also run in the yard and 220-yard dashes.

Following the Rice and Cadets play five more games the track team has a team meet in Austin and the SWC in Fayetteville, Ark.

Days Of Ye Olde Interview Ain't Like They Used To Be

NEW YORK (AP) — The tape recorder is destroying one of the arts of the old-time sports writer — the all-inclusive quote.

Remember the days? The man walks into the dressing room, corners the manager, and asks the question no one ever neglects . . . What did you think of that pitching performance?

"IT WAS WONDERFUL," replies the manager. "That Turley, our 6-foot-9, 200-pound, 31-year-old fastballing right-hander, pitched about his strongest game of the campaign in beating those Chicago White Sox of Al Lovez before 17,643 customers at the Stadium 4-1 today.

"And how about that 21-year-old, 190-pound shortstop Tony Kubek, who was married just the other day to that fine girl from Wisconsin?"

"That was a dandy play he made deep into the hole in the seventh inning when Luis Aparicio was on third base after singling, stealing second and advancing to third when Al Smith bounced to Bobby Richardson, our second baseman, on a high outside fast ball with two out and our club in real trouble for the first time since Roger Maris had hit that 410-foot, three-run home run in the third inning to give us a 3-0 lead.

"I THOUGHT before Kubek made that one we might possibly suffer through our first setback in the 19 games we have played since we were upended 2-1 in the 11th

Giles May Suggest Balk Rule Change

NEW YORK (AP) — The end of balkball or basebalk appeared near Wednesday. Admittedly baffled by the epidemic of balks, President Warren Giles of the National League indicated he was about ready to suggest a liberalization of the controversial one-second balk rule.

The vigilance of National League umpires in following the rule book out the window has resulted in a situation where 60 balks have been called in the National League and only two in the American. One crew of umpires, headed by Augie Donatelli, has called 27 of the violations.

Giles told The Associated Press by phone from his Cincinnati office that he was "studying the matter, getting statistics, making some inquiries of pitching coaches and other people and trying to come up with a satisfactory solution."

inning by the Cleveland club at their park along Lake Erie back on Tuesday night. April 19, when Jim Grant, called Mudcat, struck out 14 of my men, including Mantle four times and Maris three and culminated it all by driving in the winning marker with the count no balls and two strikes."

Things, fortunately for most and unfortunately for a few, have changed.

The game's over. Walk in to the manager. Next to you is the man from the network with the tape recorder.

"WHAT DID you think of that pitching performance?"

"Fine," says the manager.

"What about Maris, will he hit like that all year?"

"Dunno, hope so."

"Nice play by Kubek in the seventh?"

"Yeah."

"Who you pitch tomorrow?"

"Whitey."

"Who?"

"Ford."

"Oh!"

Schoolboys Vie For AA Track Title

By The Associated Press
Daingerfield, Coleman and Denver City are due to battle it out for the Class AA schoolboy track championship next week at Austin.

Daingerfield, with scoring potential in seven events; Coleman, with the top 440-yard relay team and ace sprinter Riley Dunn, and Denver City, with the leading mile relay outfit, could pull away from the field and put on a stirring duel.

THE RELAYS count twice as many points as the individual events.

Daingerfield would appear to have a mild edge because of manpower.

There will be a new champion-Fort Stockton, the 1962 king, has graduated to Class AAA where it is contending for the title.

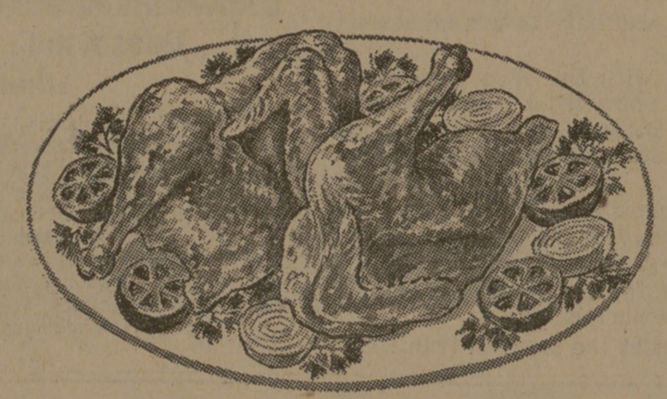

Discus thrower Allan Perkins, who has flung the saucer 160 feet 8 inches; hurdler Pat Pollan, sprinter Johnny Fretwell and a good 440-yard relay team lead Daingerfield in its title bid.

DENVER CITY'S mile relay team that has a time of 3:28.8 and hurdler and high jumper Craig Fox make the South Plains outfit a strong threat.
