

All Alone Are We, Atop SWC

By JIM BULTER
Battalion Sports Editor

While wind, rain, thunder and tornado warnings threatened the rest of the league, the signal was all clear in Houston as the Aggies humbled the Rice Owls twice to take over sole possession of first place in the Southwest Conference baseball race.

A&M's double win coupled with the washout of the TCU-Baylor

AND IN the process, Coach Tom Chandler found a reliever who might prove to be the key to the throne room. Southpaw Richard Beller appeared in both contests, gaining the decision in the 4-1 opener and saving the second tilt for starter John Crain.

Beller relieved Chuck McGuire

in the eighth inning of the first game with one out and runners on first and third. The lefthander from Victoria began in popular fashion by balking and allowing the tying run to score. Then he settled down and retired the last five hitters in order while the Aggies were scoring three runs in the top of the ninth for the victory.

A&M opened the tilt with a first inning marker when George Hargett scored from third on a passed ball.

THE LONE tally held up behind McGuire's five-hit pitching until the Owl rally in the eighth.

While the Farmers were gaining their sixth win in conference play, the TCU Horned Frogs were knocking Baylor out of a first place tie with a 2-1 decision in Ft. Worth. The University of Texas stayed in the running with an 8-1 nod over the winless SMU Mustangs.

Saturday was a different story as the Cadets led all the way for an 8-2 triumph. Crain, Ed Singley and Beller limited the impotent bats of the Owls to three hits but walked 11 feathered foes to keep the game from becoming a rout.

Beller's contribution this time came in the bottom of the ninth when he relieved Singley and struck out the two top Rice hitters with the bases loaded.

THE AGGIES garnered 13 hits off starter and loser Frank McKeown with Hargett, Bill Grochett and Bill Hancock getting nine. Grochett, the little second-sacker, led the onslaught with 4-for-4 and Hancock contributed a triple and a single for four runs-batted-in.

TCU visits Kyle Field Tuesday afternoon lagging a game behind the Cadets with a 6-3 record. The Frogs are tied with Texas (5-2) while A&M's 7-2 slate holds the top rung.

Following the TCU tilt, Chandler's crew travels to Waco for a two game series Friday and Saturday.

Fish Hand Owlets 5-1 Loss To Post 7-2 Season Mark

The Aggie Fish delivered five runs out of 11 hits to down the Rice Owlets, 5-1, at Kyle Field, Saturday.

The win gave the young Aggies a 7-2 record for the season and a split decision against Rice with one game apiece.

First blood was drawn by the Aggies in the second inning when Bobby Robinson led off with a single. Two outs later Mike Smith connected with a single driving in Robinson from second. John Pizzitola rapped a single but was left stranded on base.

A major disaster was declared by the Owlets in the fifth inning when the Maroon nine stormed in four tallies with six hits.

Sam Flournoy led off the inning with an infield single then scooted to second after Abe Scott slammed a one-bagger. Then Lance Cobb hit another single scoring Flournoy and putting Scott on third.

Pitcher Billy Crain landed on first with a single that drove in two runs putting the Fish ahead 4-0. Robinson drove in Crain with another one-bagger, ending the Aggie scoring. Two more singles followed but no runs resulted.

The Owlets were held at bay until the ninth with one out. Russell Judd drew a walk off Crain and came home as a result of one of two errors the Fish committed during the afternoon. Both the errors occurred in the ninth. Rick Rietz was thrown out second to short on the same play that scored Judd. Crain then struck out Gary Hine to end the ball game.

Crain was credited with the win which gives him a 2-1 record.
