

Aggies Lose To TCU, 8-2; SWC Race In 3-Way Tie

By JIM BUTLER
Battalion Sports Editor

The vise tightened and the pressure mounted on the Aggies as they fell to Texas Christian 8-2 on Kyle Field Tuesday.

The loss dropped the Cadets into a first place tie with the Frogs, with sporting 7-3 records. Texas beat SMU to share the top spot with A&M and TCU. The Longhorns are now 6-2.

THE FROGGIES opened the evening with two first inning runs off starter and loser Chuck McAdams. Billy McAdams, who had four of TCU's 16 hits, led off with a double and went to third when leftfielder Ray Hall misjudged a fly ball by Bob Bigley. Both runners scored on a double by Ronnie McLain.

A&M came back with a single in the bottom of the first. George Hargett's triple and Bill Crochet's ground out.

Bill beat out an infield hit and scored on Bill Puckett's triple to knot the score after two innings.

The Horned Frogs broke the deadlock in the fifth with what proved to be the deciding run. Don Reynolds reached first on a fielder's choice and McLain drew a walk, sending McGuire to the showers. John Crain relieved and was greeted with a run-scoring single by Fred Jones.

A&M HAD at least one base-runner every inning against TCU's hurler Lance Brown but couldn't bring one across the plate after the second frame.

TCU added three tallies in the eighth and two in the ninth to provide the winning margin. McAdams (no kin to A&M's Robert) led the Frog hitters with 4-for-5 while Jay Walrath had 3-for-5. Hargett paced the Aggies with two hits in four at-bats. The fleet centerfielder also stole two bases and made a couple of difficult catches.

A STRONG wind blowing in from right-centerfield made fly balls hard to judge and accounted for the fact that no home runs were stroked.

The victory was a major hurdle for TCU as they now play four of their last five games with Rice and SMU, who occupy the bottom spots in the league.

The Maroon face the toughest schedule having to play a pair in Waco against Baylor and three against Texas.

Coach Tom Chandler's squad tests the Bruins Friday and Saturday then move to Austin Tuesday to make up their postponed season opener with the Steers.
