Steers Knock Ags Out Of SWC Race

By JIM BUTLER
 After keeping the fans interested for six innings, the Texas Longhorns broke loose for 10 runs and amidst the sound of booming bats, eliminated A&M from the conference baseball race, 12-2.

Texas held a 2-1 lead going into the bottom of the seventh on the virtue of a pair of first inning tallies. The Aggie run came on a solo home run by DeWayne Stewart in the top of the seventh.

Cadet hurler Chuck McGuire had been hooked up in a duel with TUS Bobby Myer until the dam broke in the home half of the stretch inning.

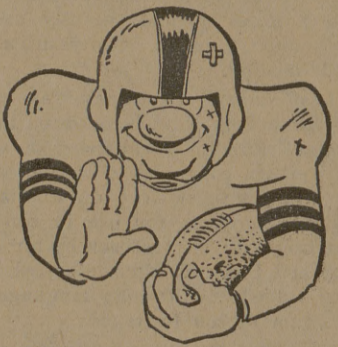

Jimmy Clark started McGuire's exodus by doubling to left field. Myer popped up to catcher Bill Puckett before Bill Behtea's double sent the Aggie righthander to the showers.

John Crain entered the game at this point and faced four batters, getting one out, before he was replaced by southpaw Richard Beller.

Beller got the third out but fell victim to the Steers seven run finale in the eighth inning.

The loss dropped the A&M season record to 8-5 while Texas is still atop the SWC standings with a 9-2 slate.

Fish Dropped By Shorthorns In Final Game

The Aggie Fish baseball team lost to the Texas Shorthorns, 10-8, in a game that produced 20 hits and eight errors, at Kyle Field yesterday.

A good start was shown by the Fish when they collected one run their first time at the bat. Lance Cobb landed on second with a double after two outs. Pitcher and clean-up hitter Billy Crain then doubled to drive in Cobb for the first run of the game.

The fifth inning proved to be a disaster for the Fish when a double, a walk, two errors and a triple brought in four runs for the Shorthorns. A&M came back in the bottom of the fifth with one run and then two more in the sixth to make the score 4-4.

In the Texas half of the seventh, fumbles and bumbles made the score 8-4 in favor of the Shorthorns. The Fish committed four errors and gave up no hits in the four-run barrage by the Texans.

The Aggies came on to score one run in the same inning while Texas made another marker in the top of the eighth.

Three runs were scored by the Farmers in their half of the eighth to almost put them back in the ball game. McGuire reached first by an error and Mike Smith singled to left field. Then Bobby Robinson punched a home run to clean the base.

The Texans managed another run across in the ninth to ice the game.

Baylor Track Coach Quits To Take Vacated UT Post

The prestige of Baylor University dwindled quite a bit last winter when their nationally known and respected drama department head resigned over disagreement with the administration.

things they prided themselves on. The other fell this weekend when track coach Jack Patterson announced his intention of quitting Baylor and taking the job as head track coach at the University of Texas.

It was a tragic thing for Bears and no one yet knew real reason why. At any rate the outcome of the Bruins' of their SWC track title is interesting.
