CS Kiwanis Hear Dr. Leighton Speak

The College Station Kiwanis Club heard a talk on Pakistan Tuesday from Dr. Rudy Leighton, who has been chief of the A&M University party in Pakistan for two years.

East Pakistan is as small as Louisiana and diametrically opposite with a population of 60,000,000 instead of 2,000,000, he said. Leighton added that the Pakistanis need fertilizers, roads, information, trained people and technical institutions with laboratory courses.

He noted that A&M has built the best engineering school in Pakistan, an agricultural school, and is now pioneering architecture instruction.

Town, Country Church Meet Set Wednesday

The 18th Town and Country Church Conference will be held at A&M University, October 16-18, according to Larry Burleson, program chairman.

This year's theme is "The Church Meeting Human Needs." Scheduled for the discussions are some of the nation's outstanding authorities in the religious, social and medical fields.

These include Dr. Fred Crawford, Austin, Research Director, Mental Health Planning, State Health Department; Rev. Giles C. Ekola, Division of American Missions, National Lutheran Council, Chicago; Dr. F. J. L. Blasingame, executive vice president, American Medical Association, Chicago; and the heads of the Texas farm organizations, C. H. DeVaney, Texas Farm Bureau; Jay Naman, Texas Farmers' Union; Frank Knight, Texas State Grange.

Members from the Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology who will be on the program are Dr. Tyrus R. Timm and Dr. John R. Christiansen. They will be involved in the areas of leadership development and the social contributions of the modern church.

The meetings will be held in the Memorial Student Center and further information on the program can be obtained from Larry Burleson at A&M.

JFK Proclaims 'Day of Prayer'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy proclaimed Oct. 16 as the National Day of Prayer, and urged every American to pray for a "full measure of dignity, freedom and brotherhood for all citizens."

The President expects to attend church services as usual, on that day, the White House said.

"Let each of us, according to his own custom and his own faith give thanks to his Creator for the Divine assistance which has nurtured the noble ideals in which this nation was conceived," the proclamation said.

Parasitology Group Sets First Meeting

The initial session of the year for the Parasitology Seminar, an informal gathering of A&M University faculty, staff and students interested in the subject, is scheduled at 5 p.m. Oct. 15 in Room 107 of the Biological Sciences Building.

The session topic is based upon recent research conducted by Dr. J. G. Mackin, head of Department of Biology. The topic is "Studies on Diseases of Oysters (O. lurida) in South Puget Sound, Washington." The year's plans will be discussed at the meeting Tuesday.
