

HOST UH SATURDAY Cadets Come Home

By JIM BULTER
Battalion Sports Editor

Aggie fans aren't exactly yelling "Aggies, come back," or even "Shane, come back." Nevertheless, the Cadets are home after a demoralizing three-game road trip and will host the University of Houston Saturday night at 7:30.

An expected 20,000 fans will watch the game with possibly more depending on how many inebriates get lost on their way back from Dallas.

The culprit of that loss, Cougar Halfback Joe Lopasky, will be back to try to duplicate his feat. Foldberg calls the Houston speedster an "outstanding back," but fleet opposing halfbacks are nothing new to the Farmers.

A&M HAS faced highly-rated halfbacks for three straight weeks — Joe Labruzzo, LSU; Paul Warfield, Ohio State; Donny Anderson, Texas Tech — and held each in check.

Texas Tech, Foldberg has shaken up the A&M lineup in an effort to put some fire into the winless Cadets.

TWO HARD-RUNNING juniors — Tommy Meeks and Budgie Ford — will be at the halfback slots for their first opening kickoff. Meeks played a lot as a sophomore while Ford is getting his first chance.

Punting and defensive specialist Jim Keller will be the man-under for A&M backed up by sophomore passing whiz Charles LaGrange.

LaGrange leads the team in passing yardage and was at the helm when A&M scored its only touchdown against LSU.

BOTH SQUADS are hungry for a win with the Maroon and White seeking to break a five-game slump and Houston trying to regain the glory of 1962 when they beat Miami, Ohio, 49-21 in the Tangerine Bowl.

Cougar Coach Bill Yeoman will start a line averaging 214-pounds while A&M has streamlined down to 213-pounds per man.

A&M halfbacks Travis Reagan and George Hargett will be back in action after suffering injuries.

THE FRIENDLY confines of Kyle Field and a regenerated lineup make the Cadets a six-point favorite in this 12th meeting between the two teams.

Coach Hank Foldberg and crew will be seeking revenge for the last minute 6-3 defeat handed them at Houston last year.

Since last week's 10-0 loss to

Aggie Bowlers Open Defense Of Championship At Baylor

A&M's undefeated bowling team opens defense of its fifth straight Texas Intercollegiate Bowling Conference championship Friday and Saturday in Waco.

First week opposition will be supplied by the University of Houston, TCU, and Trinity of San Antonio. Of this trio, Houston and Trinity are new members. Baylor will also be making its first appearance.

Texas, who finished second last year and a strong contending San Antonio College team will be the main obstacles in A&M's path toward another championship.

Arlington State College will round out the eight team field which promises to make the league more interesting than ever before.

Skip Robinson will captain the Aggie squad in the Waco encounter.

er. Bill Talarek, Jim Milstead, Hank Haliasz, Aldo Bordano, and Jim Goettle will round out the bowling delegation.

The eight teams will meet once a month, taking turns at the various school lanes. Three-3 game matches will constitute league action.

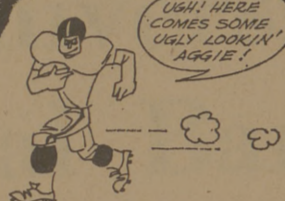

Marvin "Pro" Butler will coach the bowling team as they seek to duplicate last year's finish.

Tryouts To Start For Fish Swimmers

Swimming coach Art Adamson announced that tryouts for the freshman swimming team will begin Monday, 5:10 p.m., in the upper level of P. L. Downs Natatorium.

CIVILIAN FRESHMEN

All Civilian Freshmen will have their portraits made for the "Aggieland '64" at the Aggie Studio, North Gate, between October 9 and October 18.

Dark Coats, white shirts and ties will be the dress.

Adamson urged all interested freshmen to try out for the team. "We already have a good nucleus, but we need boys to fill a few more spots," Adamson said.

The nucleus includes Ricky Nesbit, Highland Park; Clint Miller, Shreveport, La.; John Abbott, Highland Park; Jerry Keating, Houston Waltrip; and John and Jud Sidman, Houston Waltrip.
