Ford Keeps Rushing Lead; LaGrange Tops Passers

Aggie statistics after six games show very little to brag about except maybe Jim Keller's punting. Figures aren't available, but it's very possible that the senior from Terrell is leading the nation in number of punts.

Keller has kicked 41 times for 1,703 yards and a 41.6 average. Ten of those punts came against Baylor Saturday.

Aggie defensive halfback Mike Pitman intercepted three passes against the Bears to give him four for the season and move into a tie for the conference leadership in interceptions.

Rifle Team Outshoots Bears; Seeks Fifth Win At Houston

The Baylor Bears fell victim to the A&M Rifle Team 1425-1393 in a match held here Saturday morning.

Baylor is the fourth team in the Southwest Rifle Association to be beaten by the Aggies this year, said the team sponsor, Lt. Col. Frank Hertzog, Tuesday afternoon. Texas Tech, Rice and TCU were beaten previously.

McCloud B. Hodges and Carl E. Long both shot a score of 288 out of a possible 300 to pace the A&M team.

Other members who participated were Bennie L. Riddle, William A.

Birdsong, Robert M. Nalley and Gary L. Byrd.

Saturday the A&M Rifle Team will travel to Houston to shoot against the University of Houston. Arlington State College will come to College Station for a match on Nov. 9 followed by the University of Texas on Nov. 23 in the final match for the Aggies in the Southwest Rifle Association.

Last year the A&M Rifle Team tied with Arlington State for first in the Southwest Rifle Association and lost in a shoot-off match to finish second.

The Aggies last year were rated ninth in the nation by the National Rifle Association.
