

Illinois Moves Closer In Poll To No. 1 'Horns

BY WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
Unbeaten, untied Texas held firmly to its position as the nation's No. 1 college football team Tuesday, but new strength gathered in The Associated Press weekly poll for Illinois, Mississippi, Navy and Auburn.

Also, Michigan State moved into the select Top Ten, taking over the No. 9 spot after a 30-13 victory over Wisconsin. The latter rated eighth, dropped from the list in the only radical change of the week.

TEXAS, with a 7-0 record, gained 45 of the 53 votes of a special panel of sports writers and broadcasters to get the top spot for the fourth week in a row. These were four less votes than received in the preceding balloting and the leaders' point total—based on 10 for a first place vote, 9 for second, etc.—also fell below the previous mark. The Longhorns slid past Southern Methodist last week 17-12.

queror of Purdue, increased its first place votes from one to four and added 67 points to its total, now standing at 425.

THE NEXT three teams—Mississippi, Navy and Auburn—also picked up a fatter vote harvest after impressive victories. Mississippi clobbered Louisiana State 37-3, Navy thrashed Notre Dame 35-14 and Auburn, like Texas, unbeaten and untied, won over Florida 19-0.

These places remained unchanged from a week ago as did No. 6 Oklahoma, which routed Colorado 35-0, and No. 7 Alabama, squeaking winner over Mississippi State 20-19.

PITTSBURGH, which turned back Syracuse 35-27 in a freak snow and thunderstorm, jumped from 10th to eighth. Ohio State dropped a notch—from ninth to 10th—although winner over Iowa 7-3.

Texas has a formidable test Saturday against Baylor; Illinois plays Purdue, Mississippi has a breather with Tampa, Navy tackles Maryland and Auburn has a date with Mississippi State.

Other assignments for Top Ten teams include: Oklahoma vs. Iowa State; Pitt vs. Notre Dame, Michigan State vs. Purdue and Ohio State vs. Penn State. Alabama is idle.

Porkers Down Aggies, 21-7

BY MARVIN SCHULTZ
Battalion Asst. Sports Editor
"It's what you do in November that folks remember," related Coach Frank Broyles of his Porkers phenomenal victory string which had just been lengthened at the expense of the Aggies, 21-7 Saturday night in War Memorial Stadium.

Dating back to the head men's first year at Arkansas in 1958, the Razorbacks are yet to face defeat in November, giving them 19 straight victories.

Saturday night was no exception as the Porkers scored in every quarter but the third. Led by Quarterback Billy Gray, the Hogs denied the scoreboard on a 13-yard pass play from Gray to tailback Jackie Brasuell which consumed five plays starting on the Aggie 27-yard line.

The Arkansas squad got possession of the ball at that point when Quarterback LaGrange faded back to pass but instead was jarred hard by end James Finch, losing the ball which was immediately recovered by tackle Jim Williams.

Many observers related that it was clear that LaGrange was in passing motion and that the play should have been nothing more than an incompleting pass which would have left the Aggies in control of the ball. Nevertheless, the Razorbacks went in for the score and Tom McKnelly added the extra point.

Five minutes later and the Aggies found themselves in a threatening position when Porker center Randy Stewart snapped the ball over fullback Bobby Nix's head. Nix went scampering into the end zone to retrieve the ball and managed to run it out a yard before he was met by a brigade of Aggies. LaGrange zipped in over the right side and the maroon and white had made the scoreboard. Bobby Lee booted the extra point and it was a tie game.

Rebounding in Razorback fashion, the Hog machine raced the clock to score their second touchdown. They took possession on their own 21-yard line and moved 79 yards to paydirt. A personal foul penalty aided the Hogs in the march. Gray hit Brasuell for a 10-yarder in the end zone. Arkansas led at halftime, 14-7.

Arkansas' final tally came in the final period when Gray snuck over from the one, climaxing a 58-yard drive which consumed 10 plays.

The Aggies amassed 135 total yards rushing with 84 of those being chalked up via the passing arm of Charles LaGrange. Penalties constantly hindered the Aggies as they were clipped for 26 yards.

American Netters Rap India; Davis Cup Victory Predicted

BOMBAY, India (AP)—Chuck McKinley settled a two-year-old score and completed a 5-0 sweep for the United States over India Monday in the Interzone Davis Cup tennis finals.

In the last match of the series, clinched by the Americans Sunday, the 22-year-old Wimbledon champion from St. Ann, Mo., avenged a 1961 loss to India's Ramanathan Krishnan with a 10-8, 6-8, 6-2, 2-6, 6-0 victory.

IN AN EARLIER final singles match, reduced to a formality, Martin Riessen of Evanston, Ill. subbing for Dennis Ralston, defeated Premjit Lall 6-3, 2-6, 6-0, 6-1. Ralston turned up with a blister on his racket hand. The Americans now move on to Australia for the Challenge Round at Adelaide Dec. 26-28.

"We can beat the Aussies," Bob Kelleher, non-playing U. S. captain, predicted confidently. Kelleher said Ralston and Riessen would fly to Australia directly. McKinley will play an exhibition Tuesday in Krishnan's home town of Madras, a southern seaport. The other two members of the squad — Frank Froehling of Coral Gables, Fla. and Eugene Scott of St. James, N. Y.—will play exhibitions Tuesday in Calcutta, then leave for Australia.

ALTHOUGH the match could not alter the result, the McKinley-Krishnan battle on the Cricket Club of India clay court attracted a considerable interest. It was a return engagement of the Davis Cup meeting in New Delhi in 1961 when Krishnan beat the American ace 6-3, 4-6, 1-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Both players went at each other as if they were battling for the Wimbledon crown.

McKinley had to ward off five set points in the 12th game of the opening set but finally pulled out the set with a slambang attack that broke Krishnan's service in the 17th game.
