Ford Leads Rushers

Budgie Ford, A&M halfback, picked up 43 yards in 12 carries against the Arkansas Razorbacks Saturday to enlarge his margin as top Aggie rusher.

Sophomore quarterback Charles LaGrange hit on only seven of 19 passes but made them good for 84 yards to widen his lead as number one Cadet chunker. LaGrange also picked up his second touchdown of the year to move into a tie with Jim Keller and Jerry Rogers for the scoring lead, each with two TD's.

Ford And Trull Stretch Leads On Runners

DALLAS (AP)—Southwest Conference leaders are opening up wide gulfs as they move down the football stretch.

Tommy Ford, Texas' hard-running tailback, rushed for 113 yards against Southern Methodist last week to finally create a slice of broad daylight in the ball-carrying race.

FORD NOW has roamed for 478 yards on 98 attempts and is 98 yards to the good on runnerup Paul Piper of Rice.

Don Trull, Baylor's busy quarterback, and his favorite passing target, Larry Elkins, already had long leads but they made it even more pronounced with what they did against Texas Christian.

TRULL LEADS the passers with 106 completions in 185 attempts for 1,408 yards and the next man, Danny Thomas of Southern Methodist, has only 49 connections for 672 yards.

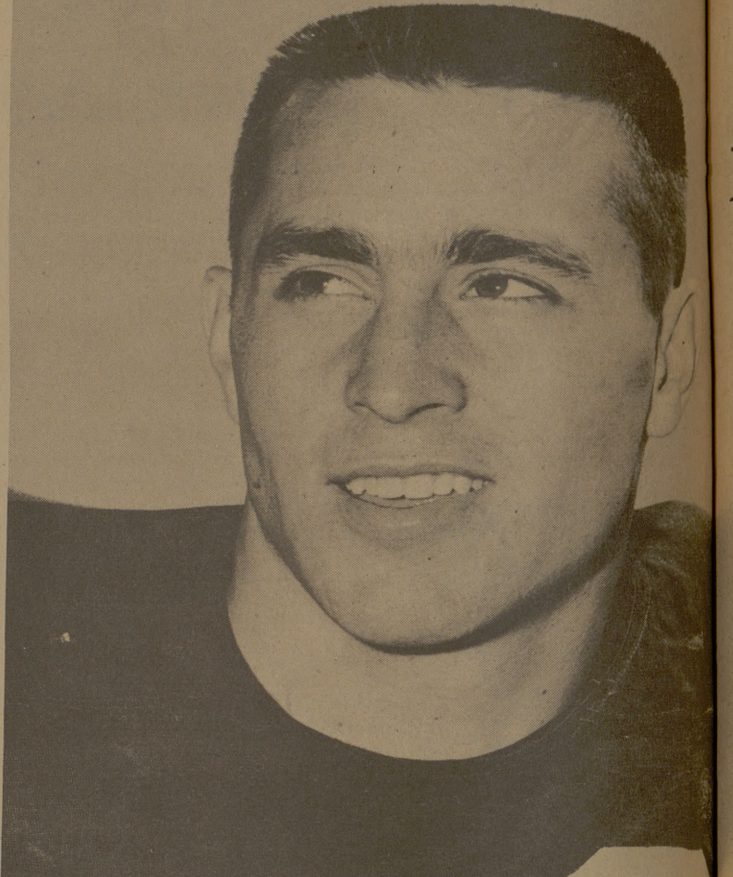

Trull appears on the way to smashing his own Southwest Conference record of 125 completions for 1,627 yards.

THE BAYLOR star also has 1,491 yards total offense, which is well ahead of his 1962 pace when he set the record of 1,763 yards.

Elkins caught 10 passes in all against Texas Christian and has 44 for the season. He is only four receptions behind the all-time conference record of 48 set by Jim Benton of Arkansas in 1937.

Jim Ingram of Baylor is second in pass-receiving with 20 snarls.

Thomas leads the punters with an average of 45.4, Ken Hatfield of Arkansas tops the punt returners with 244 yards on 16 runs and Donny Anderson of Texas Tech leads the kickoff returners with 267 yards on 10 runs.

Austin Sets Passing Mark; Defense Accounts For Loss

Around Austin College the question is—what does it take to win? The school set five National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics records last Saturday.

But it lost to East Central Oklahoma 54-37.

AFTER THE GAME, Coaches Elvin George of East Central and Floyd Gass of Austin met in the middle of the field.

"Our two teams," said George, "ought to rate No. 1 and No. 2 in the nation for the sorriest defenses."

The man basically responsible for the five records is 6-foot-1, 175-pound Jerry Bishop of Olney, Tex., a sophomore.

HE THREW FOR 495 yards and had 475 yards in total offense—he got smothered at times—for two records.

Dick Hill set two other records with 17 catches for 266 yards.

The fifth NAIA record shattered was for team passing, 502 yards. Jerry Johnston relieved Bishop long enough to throw a seven-yard pass.

"IT IS VERY difficult to believe you can make that many yards and lose a game," said Gass.

"One odd thing about it was we had two touchdowns called back.

"We lost one on an offside penalty and another when we picked a fumble out of the air and ran it for a touchdown. But the official lost sight of the ball and blew his whistle.

AUSTIN COLLEGE, 65 miles north of Dallas, gives no football scholarships and is constantly outmanned.

Gass said, "I feel like in our situation we have to throw the ball. We can't overpower anybody. We can't play ball control."

He uses a pro-style offense with a flanker back and split ends.

BISHOP HIT 29 OF 45 pass attempts in setting his passing record, breaking the mark of 455 yards set by George Bork of Northern Illinois two weeks ago.

Northern Illinois also held the old team passing record of 492.

Bishop erased the old total offense mark of 465 set a week ago by Jimmy Kearney of Prairie View, Tex., A-M.

The 266 yards receiving recorded by Hill battered the previous high of 241 by Jerry Richardson of Wofford in 1956. The old record for passes caught in one game was 13, held by three players.

Austin College rushed for 113 yards for an offensive total of 576.

Clay, Liston Meet In Title Match

DENVER (AP)—Sonny Liston, the solemn champion, and Cassius Clay, the gabby challenger, scribbled their names Tuesday on a contract for a multimillion-dollar heavyweight title fight in mid-February, probably in Los Angeles.

LISTON, sitting calmly and at times looking puzzled at the noisy challenger, summed up his feelings with the declaration: "I hope you look the same when I get done with you."

Officials for Intercontinental Promotions, Inc. — Liston's group — said they expected the bout to gross between $6 million and $8 million, a record for any bout.

LISTON'S fight last year in Chicago in which he took the crown from Floyd Patterson grossed about $5.5 million, Ben Bentley, publicity director for Intercontinental, said.

Clay will get 22.5 per cent of the gross, compared with the 12.5 per cent Liston got in his first fight with Patterson. Liston, an officer in Intercontinental, will get 40 per cent.
