

Building Dedication Scheduled Sunday

Dedication services for the new $70,000 Wesley Foundation at A&M University will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday, the Rev. John Combes, foundation director, announced.

Bishop Paul E. Martin of Houston will deliver the dedicatory sermon and dedicate the building. He will be among the ministers and laymen who will speak during the dedication.

The new building, contemporary in style, includes a chapel, classroom, library-conference room, pastor's study, work area, lounge and kitchen facilities. The interior includes 3,256 square feet.

The new facility replaces a frame structure that was placed on the church grounds in 1923. For years the old building served both the Wesley Foundation and the A&M Methodist Church.

Cost of the new building includes $5,500 worth of furnishings, the Rev. Mr. Combes said. The foundation director also teaches at A&M and is one of the campus pastors.

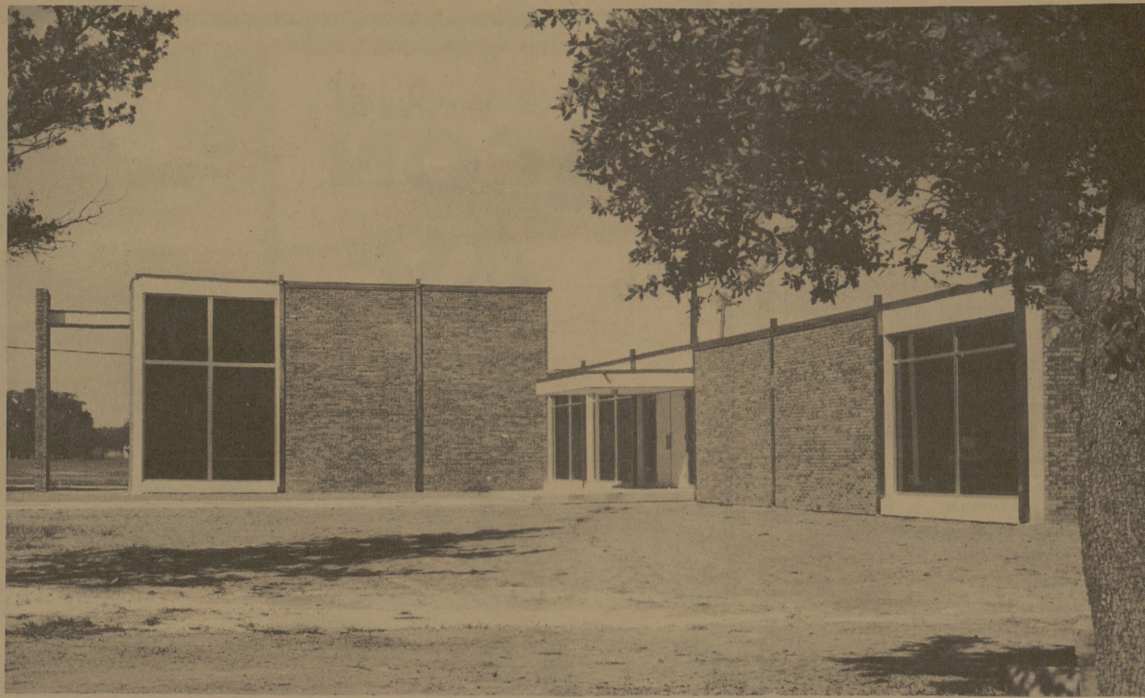

The Singing Cadets will participate in Sunday's ceremonies.

Other speakers include the Rev. Bill Bailey of Bryan's Wesley Methodist Church, the Rev. Byron Lovelady of A&M Methodist and the Rev. T. Miller Smith of St. Paul Methodist in Bryan.

Also scheduled to speak are Donald Simons, representing A&M; Mrs. Raymond Reiser, director of the Hill Foundation and the Campus Religious Workers' Association; the Rev. Charles Laing, director of the Texas Methodist Student Movement, and Darrell Smith, A&M Wesley Foundation president.

Presentation of keys to the building will be made by Carl Butler, Jr., president of B-W Construction Company of Bryan and E. Earl Merrell, Jr., architect. Boyd Porter, building committee chairman, and Robert Schleider, Wesley Foundation board chairman, will participate in the ceremony.

Open house will follow the worship service.

Franke To Lecture To Corsicana High

Harold Franke of the A&M University Department of Animal Husbandry will speak to Corsicana high school vocational agriculture teachers at 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Franke's talk is titled "Selection of Live Animals for Modern Meat."

A. B. Childers of Waco, Area 8 vocational agriculture supervisor, said the Corsicana meeting is part of an in-service educational program planned by teachers in the district.

He said 19 teachers will attend.

Doyle Graves, Family Finish Pakistanian Trip Prep School

Doyle Graves, his wife and son completed one of the most unusual courses at A&M, Wednesday. In preparation for a two-year stay in East Pakistan, they spent four hours a day for four weeks learning about that country's culture, economics, agriculture and, most important, the Bengali language.

The language of Bengalis is a major part of an orientation program that has been under way since 1960 at A&M University. Bengali is taught by Dr. Jack A.

Dabbs of the Department of Modern Languages, with the help of a native East Pakistanian, Mrs. Delara Achmed.

Dr. Dabbs prepared the language course during a trip to East Pakistan in the summer of 1960, with the aid of professor Rashid and higher teachers in Dacca College in East Pakistan.

The purpose of the orientation course is give technical assistance and orientation to people going to Pakistan.

"It is not an extremely difficult language, easier than Russian," Dr. Dabbs said. The easiest way to learn it is by constant conversation.

Ransom To Speak At Prison Exercise

Dr. Harry H. Ransom, chancellor of the University of Texas, will be the principal speaker at the high school graduation exercises for 375 inmates of the Texas Department of Corrections Sunday, Nov. 10 at 2 p.m. in the Chapel of Reconciliation at the new Ellis Unit near Riverside, 15 miles northeast of here. The class is the largest in the history of the program.

Other honored guests will include members of the Texas Board of Corrections, William Heath of Austin, Chairman of the Board of Regents, University of Texas, and Joe Yates, Rockdale, Alcoa Plant Manager.

Following the program, which begins at 2 p.m., there will be a reception for inmate graduates and their visiting relatives.

Commenting on Dr. Ransom's scheduled appearance, Dr. George J. Beto, director of the Texas Department of Corrections, said, "The willingness of the chancellor of the University of Texas to address these graduates is recognition of the importance of the prison's educational program."

According to Alonzo Langley, Director of Education, Texas Department of Corrections, about 2800 high school diplomas have been issued to inmates since the beginning of the Texas Training Institute, a division of the Texas Education Agency.

A Verse Each Day Keeps Thief Away

CHURCHILL, England (AP)—Irrked at the persistent theft of his apples farmer Claude Bache put up a sign on his orchard fence saying "Keep out. Trespassers will be prosecuted."

The apples continued disappearing, so Bache took down the sign and put up one that said "Thou shalt not steal."

The thefts stopped.
