

Aggies Seek Third Win Over Fry's Ponies

BY MARVIN SCHULTZ
Battalion Asst. Sports Editor

The Southern Methodist Mustangs invade Aggie land Saturday afternoon in quest of its first conference victory of the year. Meeting defeat against conference foes, Texas Tech, and Texas, the blue-clad Ponies, guided by Quarterback Danny Thomas, seek to avenge two consecutive Aggie victories.

Meanwhile, the Aggies will also be shooting for a win in the conference after losses to Texas Tech, Arkansas, and Arkansas. They tied the Horned Frogs, 14-14.

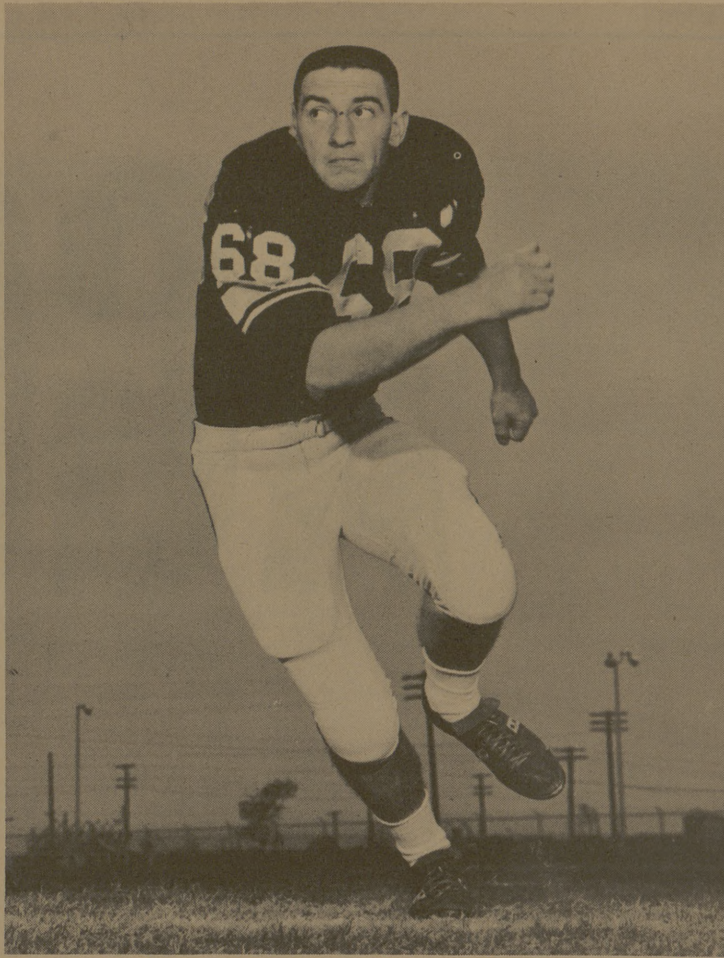

Quarterback Charles LaGrange is trying to extend the Aggie winning streak to three over SMU. The Mustangs last win came in 1961 when they edged the maroon and white, 14-11. The clubs fought a scoreless tie in 1960 and the Aggies have downed the Ponies the last two years by scores of 25-12 and 12-7, respectively.

This battle will be the 46th meeting between these two schools extending way back to the first meeting in 1916. In that 1916 game the Cadets posted a whopping 62-0 score, their largest margin of victory over the Mustangs. The Farmers lead in the series with 22 wins to 17 racked up for SMU. There have been six ties.

Rounding out the Aggie backfield will be Budgie Ford at left half, Tommy Meeks at the right slot while Jerry Rogers will man the fullback post. On the line will be hefty Ray Kubala holding down the middle sector while he will be flanked by guards John Nilson and Ronnie Moore, and tackles Waylon Ward and Bill Ward. John Brotherton and Ron Carpenter will be at the end positions.

The opening kickoff is scheduled for 2 p.m. with a crowd of 15,000 expected.

Consistent Regular
Ronney Moore, 6-1, 208-pounder from Brownwood, is one of only four Aggies who has started every game this season. The junior right guard played his best game last Saturday in A&M's 21-7 loss to Arkansas.

Curington Leads A&M Fish To Victory Over Rice, 19-6

A&M's freshman football team won its third game in a row Thursday night, defeating the Rice Owlets 19-6 in Houston.

The Fish opened the scoring late in the first period marching 73 yards in 17 plays. Quarterback Harry Ledbetter passed to end Robert Plsek for the touchdown with 0:45 left in the quarter. Gary Kovar's kick was wide and the Fish led 6-0.

THE AGGIES made it 12-0 midway through the second quarter following a recovered Rice fumble. Jerry Cox pounced on the ball at the Owlet 32.

Eleven plays later, halfback Lloyd Curington scored the first of his two tallies on a three-yard burst over right tackle. John Poss kicked the extra point to make it 13-0 at halftime.

RICE TOOK the opening kickoff of the second half and moved 65 yards in 11 plays to close the gap. L. V. Benningfield took a pitch out from quarterback Dennis Gann for the score. The Owlets faked a kick and tried to run for two points but failed.

After completely dominating the first half, the Fish found themselves backed up to the wall time and again in the second half. The Aggies stopped a Rice drive on their own eight and another on the A&M 20.

the Rice three.

CURINGTON TOOK it over from there. The attempted conversion was no good when the pass from center bounced away.

Weiss led the Fish in rushing with 62 yards in six attempts. Curington picked up 37 and Mike Phillips garnered 31.

LEDBETTER THREW eight passes and completed five for 53 yards while Worst hit on one of five for 26 yards.

George Schutze did all the punting for the Fish and ended up with a 38.3 average on six kicks.

Elston Howard Wins AL's Most Valuable Player Award

BY JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

TEANECK, N. J. (AP)—Elston Howard has a very special reason for wanting to perform even better in 1964 than he did last season—when he did well enough to win the American League's Most Valuable Player award.

"I want to do it for you know who—Yogi Berra," said the durable catcher of the New York Yankees Thursday, just after he had been accorded one of baseball's greatest honors.

Yankees decided to convert me from an outfielder into a catcher. Now I've got a chance to repay him.

"I've got to admit I was surprised when Yogi was named manager. But I guess I shouldn't have been. He has real good baseball sense. I said four or five years ago that Yogi would make a good manager some day but I didn't think it would come so soon."

Berra, who relinquished the regular Yankee catching job to Howard in 1960, was named manager of the club two weeks ago after Ralph Houk was elevated to the general managership.

Howard led the Yankee hitters with a .287 batting average, and the 6-foot-2, 205-pounder paced the American League catchers with a .394 fielding average, was fifth in the league with 28 home runs and eighth in runs batted in with 85.

Howard drew 15 first place votes and was named on all 20 ballots cast by a committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America.
