Language Issue Has Simple Solution

We live in a world today where isolated incidents are often blown out of proportion with all too tragic results. It appears that a similar situation may be developing on the A&M campus. We want to encourage all parties concerned to nip this unfortunate growth before it has had time to develop.

Presidents Say Schools To Grow

By G. K. HODENFIELD (AP) Education Writer CHICAGO (AP) — State universities can and must expand their facilities to handle the hordes of high school students who soon will be demanding admission to college, a panel of state university presidents said Tuesday.

SATURDAY The Aggies Wives Council will have its fall picnic at 3 p.m. at the residence of Mrs. J. P. Hannigan at 3600 Old College Road in Bryan. Each member is asked to bring her husband and a covered dish.

Sound Off

Editor, The Battalion: I would like to qualify the tone and expressions of a letter I submitted to The Battalion concerning the use of foreign languages on the A&M campus.

living conditions here on the campus more compatible. Students who persist in using languages other than English are only hurting themselves, especially if they have any desire to get along with other students.

Nov. 13, I would like to say that I have lived on the Mexican border all my life and have spent one and a half years in Europe and have yet to see a "foreign restaurant for imbecils," but it is possible that I just didn't look in the right places, because if there is such a place I'm sure Oehl would have found it.

Campus Chest Is Growing, But Slow

Contributions to the Campus Chest fund Thursday brought the drive $100 closer to its goal, as collection figures peeked over the $1500 mark.

Editor, The Battalion: I must say that I am in complete sympathy with the opinions expressed by Mr. Oehl in his letter of Wednesday, the 13th.

Editor, The Battalion: Re the second letter on Sound Off, Wednesday, Nov. 13, 1963. To the like of Marvin Oehl, I say, "To purgatory with you."

Editor, The Battalion: I must say that I am in complete sympathy with the opinions expressed by Mr. Oehl in his letter of Wednesday, the 13th. His views should not be applied quite as broadly as it seems at first glance, however.

Editor, The Battalion: In reference to Oehl's letter of

Memo to Club Representative:

In order to meet our deadline we must require that all club pictures for the '64 Aggeland be scheduled by December 13. You, or a representative of your club should come by the Office of the Student Publications on the ground floor of the Y.M.C.A. as soon as possible to schedule your club's picture.

Needed for your page will be a write-in of your club's purpose and activities (not to exceed 200 words), a list of officers, and the president's or sweetheart's picture (full page may use both). The costs are $55 for a full page and $30 for a half page.

All pictures will be scheduled to be taken by Feb. 14; all material regarding club's purpose, activities, and president's and/or sweetheart's pictures and payment will be handed in to Student Publications by the same date, Feb. 14.

Pictures regarding the motif of the locale of the hometown, or the purpose of the professional club, should also be turned in to add variety to your page.

Sincerely, Wallace W. Migura Editor, Hometown Clubs Section

Outfit pictures for the AGGIELAND will be made according to the schedule below.
