AGGIE CAGE COACH Shelby Metcalf faces Houston in debut.

Ags Vs. UH In Debut

The 1963-64 Aggie basketball team swings into action Thursday against the University of Houston Cougars in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

Tip-off time is 8 p.m. for the Cadets' debut under new head coach Shelby Metcalf. The 33-year-old ex-Fish coach took over when Bob Rogers resigned last spring.

The loss of four starters and three of the top four scorers from last season's 16-8 squad leaves A&M with many question marks as opening night approaches. But the only starter returning just happens to be the 1962-63 Southwest "Player of the Year," SWC scoring co-champion with Kendall Rhine of Rice and holder of five school records.

Bennie Lenox, 6-2, 170-pound guard, will take the floor as captain of the A&M Cougars against the Cougars. The "Lynx" will be one of two seniors in the Aggie first unit. Bill Robinette, 6-7, 180-pounder, will be at forward.

The other forward will be junior college transfer Bill Gasway, 6-6, while either Lynn Merritt, 6-5, or Dick Stringfellow, 6-4, will hold down the other guard slot. The center will be soph John Beasley, 6-8, or Tim Timmerman, 6-7.

The Aggie Fish will open their season in the preliminary against Lon Morris Junior College. The freshmen also have a new coach, Archie Porter, formerly of Dallas Jefferson.
