

Navy Needs Win Over Army To Accept Cotton Bowl Bid

BY HERB THOMPSON
ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Navy Coach Wayne Hardin noted wryly Wednesday that his second-ranked Middies have already been installed as a favorite over top-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1—even though they haven't gotten past Army yet.

"If they can make us the favorite in a game that hasn't even been discussed yet, why don't more people vote us No. 1?" Hardin asked at a news conference.

"WE WOULD welcome No. 1 ranking. We also welcome being the favorite in the Army-Navy game Saturday."

He said that it was the first time since he became head coach five years ago that Navy has been favored. Hardin has won his four previous encounters with Army.

THE ODDS Hardin referred to were published this week in a Baltimore newspaper for college and pro football games this weekend and post-season bowl games. The listing of Navy as favorite over Texas was predicted on a victory over Army and acceptance of a bowl bid. The Middies are favored by two touchdowns over Army.

You get no quarrel from Naval Academy officials that a bid to the Cotton Bowl against Texas will probably be accepted promptly if the Middies whip Army, although they cannot discuss it publicly. The official 30-day period of mourning for President Kennedy will be over before New Year's Day.

ON ANOTHER aspect of the Army-Navy game, which is uppermost this week in the minds of Naval Academy personnel, Hardin said his team is mindful that it lacks only 25 points of winning the national scoring title this year.

"But that's one record we're really not interested in," he said. "If we can beat Army, we'll be satisfied regardless of the score."

THE ONCE-BEATEN Middies, highest scoring team in Annapolis history, have averaged 32.6 points a game for their first nine games. They've scored no fewer than 21 in any contest. Utah State, which has already finished its season, has averaged 31.7 for second place.

Army is one of the nation's top defensive teams, and the Navy coaching staff brought a color film to the football press conference to show why.

JOHN HOPKINS, Marine captain and physical education instructor, who has scouted Army all season, narrated the last quarter of the Air Force-Army game which the West Pointers came from behind to win 14-10 at Chicago.

"Look at that pursuit," said Hopkins, a former Navy tackle who captained its 1955 team. "All of those players are right where the ball is going. This is a well-drilled team and they hit hard."

HE ALSO SINGLED out and re-ran plays in which quarterback

Carl Stichweh and fullback Ken Waldrop reeled off good gains.

Hardin has tabbed both of these as players Navy must stop to whip the Cadets. He calls Stichweh the best quarterback Navy will have faced this season. Dangerous as a runner as well as passer.

Intramurals

With four activities completed and with 10 champions still to be decided Squadron 10 is in the lead in the race for the Class B Intramural flag.

Behind Sqd. 10, in second place, is Squadron 17. Company E-2 is in third place. In fourth and fifth positions are Company G-1 and Squadron 7, respectively.

Class A&C handball and Class B basketball move into the final round of action Monday night as the league leading outfits compete for the championships.

Outfits competing in Class A handball are Squadron 1, Squadron 9, Company C-2 and Squadron 7. Company C-3, Company G-2 and Company G-1 also will be in the competition.

In Class C handball the Vets and Leggett Hall will match teams for the title.

Company G-3 and Squadron 12 are the only teams so far to assure themselves berths in the Class B basketball playoffs.

Class B volleyball starts Wednesday afternoon.

Middies Favorite Over Tough Cadets

BY WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Up at West Point, they say that when the Army football team studies movies of the Navy games it's like watching horror films.

A big shudder races through the black and gold jerseys every time the number "12"—that's Roger Staubach—flashes on the screen.

Army has a tough, obstinate line but it wasn't good enough to stop Pittsburgh, which smothered the Cadets 28-0 after losing to Navy 24-12. The Cadets have a strong runner in Ken Waldrop but generally lack the speed and resourcefulness of the current Navy squad.

So the prediction for the big game in Philadelphia Saturday:

NAVY 25, ARMY 7.

The other big Eastern game sends once-beaten Pittsburgh against Penn State at Pittsburgh.

This is the best Pitt team in years, a big, pro-like club with size and imagination. The Penn Staters are geared for an upset, but they have no answer for Fred Mazurek and Paul Marth.

The pick: PITT 20, PENN STATE 14.

In others:

AIR FORCE 23, COLORADO 14—Terry Isaacson leads the Falcons into the Gator Bowl.

BAYLOR 20, SOUTHERN METHODIST 13: Three touchdowns for Don Trull are just an average Saturday's work.

TEXAS CHRISTIAN 13, RICE 7: Nothing at stake but school honor, and TCU is better by a touchdown at home.

TULSA 14, LOUISVILLE 7: Drown your sorrows in a mint julep, suhs!

Dec. 14: ALABAMA 14, MIAMI, FLA. 0: George Mira will be inundated by the Crimson Tide.

Consolidated Faces Laredo In Cage Meet

A&M Consolidated cagers will go into the Bryan Basketball Tournament with a 2-1 record, meeting Laredo Friday in the Bryan High gymnasium, said Jack Churchill, coach, Wednesday.

"So far this season we have won over Allen Military Academy 66-35 and over Giddings 49-28, while losing to Snook 42-30," Churchill said.

Next week Consolidated travels to Conroe Tuesday and to Lufkin to meet Hudson High Friday.

When asked how he expected to come out in district, Churchill said, "It's going to be rough. Rockdale lost only one starter and Caldwell has about the same bunch back."

Syracuse University lists 15 All-American football players over the years but only two have been backs. They were Jimmy Brown and Ernie Davis.
