Basketball season is under way and the Aggies are undefeated after one game. As an optimistic Coach Shelby Metcalf said after A&M's 61-53 squeaker over the University of Houston, "You have to win the first one to win them all."

But if all wins are as narrow as the first, Aggie fans who survive the season will deserve Medals of Honor. The game was tied twice in the final six minutes and only clutch play by a couple of newcomers to the Aggie varsity preserved the win.

The two big boys who received most of the praise were 6-6 Bill Gasway, a product of Lon Morris Junior College, and 6-8 John Beasley, a product of Metcalf's 1962-63 Fish team.

Gasway led the Cadets in rebounds with 12 and scored the go-ahead basket on a short jump shot. "Gas (as Gasway is called by the other players) played a tremendous game," Metcalf said. "He's going to help us a lot this year."

Beasley, who played like a veteran yet displayed the enthusiasm of a kid on Christmas morning, pulled down 11 rebounds and sank two pressure-packed free throws for the last Aggie scores to ice the game.

Metcalf, in his office after the game, turned to Head Coach and Athletic Director Hank Faldberg and said, "Beasley's going to be a great one, isn't he?" Faldberg was quick to agree and all who saw Big John last Thursday night will too.

Metcalf took the blame for the Cadets' losing a 14-point lead in the second half after playing a near perfect first half. "During workouts," Metcalf said, "I had only been playing two of the big men at a time. But they all did so well in the first half, I put them all in at the same time in the second half and they just weren't used to that." The three mentioned are Gasway, Beasley and 6-7 Tim Timmerman, another sophomore.

Overall, the game was a very pleasant surprise to Aggie fans. The Cadets weren't supposed to have much this year and were picked by some sports writers to finish last in the conference.

A&M's youth won't justify expectations for a SWC title, but no other team is going to be safe on the court with the Aggies.

Cagers Take Perfect Slate To Utah For Pair Of Games

BY MARVIN SCHULTZ
Battalion Asst. Sports Editor

Jumping off to an opening game victory over the University of Houston Cougars, the Aggie basketball squad moves westward in quest for a couple more victories over the potent Utah aggregations, Utah State and Utah University in cage tilts Tuesday and Wednesday.

Utah State will furnish the Tuesday night opposition with a strong array of talent which has rated them a slot in the top twenty quintets in the country by Sports Illustrated. Big mainstays in the State lineup are Troy Collier and Wayne Estes who have already averaged 23 points a game in their first two appearances.

These two players are responsible for impressive victories over Loyola of Los Angeles and Fresno State. With an awesome display of power the Utah State team racked up a massive total of 199 points in the two encounters. They opened with a 97-85 triumph over Loyola and then took Fresno State very convincingly, 102-71.

Collier is a senior center who stands 6-9, hailing from Phoenix. He has accounted for 53 points and a 26.5 average. Estes is a junior forward from Montana and is considered by many as a prime candidate for All-American honors. The 6-6 forward had dumped in a total of 46 points, averaging 23 a game.

ors from the Aggie encampment will be 6-2 sharp-shooting ace from Clear Creek, Bennie Lenox. Last year's many achievements included his being named as the "Player of the Year" in the Southwest Conference.

Joining Lenox in the starting lineup will be Bill Robinette and Bill Gasway at forwards; John Beasley at center and Lynn Merritt filling in the other guard slot.

Trull Captures Three Titles In SWC Stats

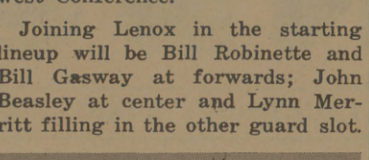

DALLAS (AP)—Don Trull, Baylor's brilliant quarterback, walked away with three Southwest Conference statistical titles in the 1963 season, the first player to turn the trick since Texas Christian's Jim Swink did the same thing in 1955.

Trull's performance was more impressive since he shattered every passing and total offense record in the books, even extending his record-making to the NCAA.

Trull led in total offense by a wide margin, rolling up 2,276 yards on 406 plays. Danny Thomas of Southern Methodist was a distant second with 987 yards on 209 plays.

Trull got most of his yardage through the air. He completed 174 passes in 308 attempts for 2,157 yards and 12 touchdowns. Thomas was a distant second with 66 connections on 138 tries for 846 yards and four touchdowns.

Bidding for All-American honors from the Aggie encampment will be 6-2 sharp-shooting ace from Clear Creek, Bennie Lenox. Last year's many achievements included his being named as the "Player of the Year" in the Southwest Conference.
