

Semifinal Rounds Produce Finalists

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sixteen teams vie for final spots in Texas schoolboy football's next to the last go-round this week. The seers say those left when the firing ends will be Amarillo Tascosa, Corpus Christi Miller, Graham, LaMarque, Dalhart, Liberty, Albany and Hallsville.

If that's what happens, then the finals next week will be: AAAA-Tascosa vs. Miller. AAA-Graham vs. LaMarque. AA-Dalhart vs. Liberty. A-Albany vs. Hallsville.

EIGHT OTHER schools hope to make these predictions go awry. Chances are that part of them will succeed.

Garland challenges Tascosa in the only AAAA game matching unbeaten teams. Garland has the guns, particularly with Danny Sims, the talented field goal kicker. The game could be that close-decided by a field goal.

GARLAND ONCE won the state championship with that same weapon.

Spring Branch, unbeaten but once tied, challenges Corpus Christi Miller. It could be quite a challenge, too. Both teams hold decisions over Corpus Christi Ray, indicating they are virtually equal.

CORSICANA, undefeated and untied, is the stumbling block of the mighty Graham Steers, who did what no other team could do over almost three years—beat Dumas.

The other AAA semifinals are Pharr-San Juan-Alamo, runner-up last year to Dumas, with LaMarque, with its mighty runner, Norman Bulaich.

LAMARQUE is the state's top scoring team. It has rolled up 473 points in 12 games. Pharr-San Juan-Alamo has been tougher on defense.

Dalhart flings a 13-0 record with 455 points against Rockwall, a team that has shown it can get off the floor and come back like the wind. Rockwall lost to Lake Highlands 20-12 in early season then crushed Highlands 40-0 in the state playoff.

LIBERTY runs into Missouri City Dulles. Liberty has romped to 431 points—160 more than Dulles in an equal number of games.

Albany faces Petersburg, unbeaten but tied. Albany lost to Class AA Olney 8-6 to open the season.

HALLSVILLE, the sensation of East Texas, faces George West, the power of the South, in the other A semifinal. Hallsville has the best defensive record of all playoff teams, yielding only 33 points in 13 games.

Here's how they look:

McCall said that he has 680 trees for sale. The tree lot is located next to McCall's Enco Service station, at 813 Highway 6 at the East Gate area. On week days there will be Lions selling trees from 1 p.m. to 9 p.m.; on Saturday from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.; and on Sunday from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m.

The money from the tree sale will go to help the needy and for worth while projects. These projects are decided on by the club Board of Directors.

TMA Cadets Set Tour Of Galveston

They will go to Galveston and meet at the campus at 9 a.m. Saturday. From there they will go to Todd shipyards, which is the refueling station of the Savannah.

The tour includes the passengers' and officers' quarters, bridge, cargo areas, and the engine rooms. After the inspection of the ship, the cadets will meet at the campus and have an informal get-together, said Dennis P. Cannon, instructor.

The students will return to the campus on Sunday, said Cannon.

Rice Hits 102, Tops Fla. St.

By The Associated Press

Rice salvaged Southwest Conference pride a bit by overpowering Florida State 102-81 in an inter-sectional basketball game Wednesday night.

Utah whipped Texas A&M 98-71, however, and that left the conference still trailing non-league foes. Outsiders have posted 15 victories, five more than the Southwest defenders have managed.

Florida State moves on to play Texas Christian at Fort Worth and Southern Methodist is on the road for a game with Iowa at Iowa City Thursday night.

Paced by the 30-point output of Larry Phillips, the Rice Owls downed visiting Florida State with comparative ease although 6-foot-10 Rice center Kendall Rhine was on the bench nearly half the game. Rice led 48-40 at halftime.

Rhine was charged with his fourth foul 2:04 before the intermission and the Owls used him sparingly there after. He still contributed 24 points to the Rice total.

Miller at Spring Branch Saturday, 2 p.m.—Miller by a touch-down.

AAA—Graham vs. Corsicana at Arlington Saturday, 2:30 p.m.—Graham in a tight duel LaMarque vs. Pharr-San Juan-Alamo at Corpus Christi Saturday, 7:30 p.m.—LaMarque will end Pharr's dreams.

CLASS AA—Dalhart vs. Rockwall at Vernon Saturday, 2 p.m.—a timid vote for Dalhart. Liberty vs. Dulles at Pasadena Friday, 8 p.m.—Liberty in a spueaker.

CLASS A—Petersburg vs. Albany at Lubbock Friday, 7:30 p.m.—Taking Albany without looking back. Hallsville vs. George West at Beevill Saturday, 8 p.m.—Hallsville will make it to the finals.

Brown Loses Lead In NFL Scoring

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Giants, pacesetters in the Eastern Conference of the National Football League, have no kick coming as far as Don Chandler's performance this season is concerned.

The same applies to the Baltimore Colts and Jim Martin.

The latest NFL statistics, released Wednesday, show that Chandler and Martin have moved past Cleveland's Jimmy Brown in the league's scoring race.

While Brown was held scoreless last weekend, Martin scored 11 points on two field goals and conversions in the Colts' 41-10 romp over the Minnesota Vikings. Chandler had eight points on one field goal and five points—after while the Giants were mauling Washington 44-14.
