

Ags Knock Off TCU, 92-64 Meet UT Longhorns Saturday

RIFLEMAN STRIKES AGAIN
Bennie Lenox guns in two-pointer over TCU defender.

A clawing, sagging Aggie defense and a guy named Lenox smothered the Texas Christian University Horned Frogs, 92-64, to remain tied for first place in the Southwest Conference basketball race.

Rice eked out a last-minute 61-60 win over Texas Tech to share the lead with the Cadets, both with 2-0 records.

TCU Wogs Topple Aggie Fish, 88-64 In Varsity Prelim

A devastating attack headed by high scoring Wayne Kreis and Rodney Chitsey spoiled the Aggie Freshman's bid for a victory as the TCU Wogs defeated them, 88-64 last night in G. Rollie White.

Seeking its first victory of the year, the Fish found the Wogs too much to contain as they were overwhelmed by the sparkling shooting of Kreis and Co.

Kreis, a 5-10 guard from Pampa paced the victors with an outburst of 22 points which was tops for the night. He just barely nipped out his teammate, Rodney Chitsey for scoring honors as Chitsey finished the night's work with a total of 21 points.

Rich Sauer, a 6-3 forward scored 18 points while the other starters, Garvin Isaacs and Stan Farr dumped in 15 and 6 points respectively.

Pacing the attack for the Fish was the young Clear Creek ace, Curley Lenox who dumped in 17 points with seven field goals and three free throws to his credit. Forward Larry Kirk finished as the second high scoring Fish with 11 points with five field goals and one free throw. Lawson Howard was next highest as he scored 10 points.

Curley Lenox put the Fish in the lead in the opening minutes of the game with a six foot jump shot. Richard Prugh added another field goal making the score, 4-0 before TCU got on the scoreboard as a result of Garvin Isaacs' jump shot.

The score was tied at six all when Chitsey put the Wogs in front to stay.

COACH SHELBY Metcalf's crew confiscated the backboards like they were credit cards for grade points pulling down 61 rebounds to 46 for the Frogs. Bill Robinette gave an outstanding performance clearing the boards 11 times while sophomore Dick Stringfellow had 10 rebounds along with several steals.

All-American candidate Bennie Lenox pumped in 27 points on nine of sixteen field goals and nine of 11 free throws. Lenox played only 28 minutes.

TCU OPENED the scoring on a foul shot by 6-6 sophomore Gary Turner and kept the game close for the first six minutes. The score was tied three times before A&M's Cecil Ferguson sank a free throw to put the Aggies ahead to stay with 13:53 left in the half. The ball-hawking and sharp-shooting of Lenox paced the Cadets to a 19-point lead, 42-23, with a minute to play and the same margin lit the scoreboard when the teams left the floor for intermission.

TCU TRIED a full-court press in the second-half but to no avail as A&M pulled out to a 34-point bulge with 10 minutes to play.

With the Aggie reserves on the court, the Frogs closed the gap to 23 points late in the game before running out of fuel.

BOBBY MCKINLEY and Turner each tallied 15 points to lead the Frogs. Turner had 10 rebounds to pace TCU in that department.

John Beasley chipped in 16 points for runner-up honors to Lenox while Timmerman added Paul Timmins had nine points. Robinette had eight.

A&M HIT 44.7 percent from the floor with TCU hitting 36.1 percent. The Frogs had trouble with the free throw line missing shots while the Aggies made 32 foul shots.

The 3500 fans received a lift from the action as the game knelt on the floor to look for contact lens apparently lost by Ferguson. Eagle, as Ferguson referred to by teammates, lost the lens in the corner of his eye.

The next game for the Cadets now 7-4 on the season, comes Saturday afternoon in Austin against the Texas Longhorns. The Bears were upset by Arkansas, 84-80 Fayetteville Tuesday night.

Arkansas Upsets Longhorns, Owls, Mustangs Snare Wins

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks battled to the end Tuesday night and came from behind to whip favored Texas 58-53 in basketball at Fayetteville.

Arkansas trailed through most of the game but managed to stay close until Orval Cook sank a free throw to put the Porkers in front with 1:57 left.

THE LEAD was the first of the evening for the Razorbacks but the Longhorns went quickly back in front 51-50 with 1:25 left.

Jim Magness sank a long jump shot to give the Porkers the lead once again and as Texas came back down the court, Arkansas regained possession in a wild scramble for the ball.

TEXAS WAS forced to foul and Cook calmly sank two free throws to wrap it up for Arkansas.

Warren Vogel led the Porkers with 17 and boe Fisher got 17 for the Texans.

The game was the first conference victory for the Razorbacks and gave them a 4-6 season record. Texas went 7-4 with the loss, its first in conference play.

WACO (AP) — Big Gene Elmore poured 23 points through the hoop and snared 17 rebounds in pacing Southern Methodist to an 85-65 victory over Baylor in Southwest Conference basketball Tuesday night.

Baylor's Winston Moore paced the Bears with 20 points although he accumulated four fouls well before halftime and fouled out with 9½ minutes to play.

THE SMU Mustangs cashed 34 of 64 field goal attempts for a flashy 53.1 shooting percentage. Baylor posted a respectable 24 of 51 for 47 percent.

Moore's foul handicap prompted Baylor to pull him off the floor six minutes before intermission and the Methodists quickly padded a six-point lead to a 44-32 halftime margin.

ELMORE, hitting superbly, made good nine of 18 field goal tries and teammate Bill Ward, who scored 20 points, hit on six of nine shots from the floor.

The Bears' Moore plumped eight of 12 field goal attempts through the basket in a vain effort to keep Baylor in contention. Spencer Carlsson of Baylor tallied 15 points and grabbed seven rebounds.

HOUSTON (AP) — Barry Rodrigue drove down the free throw lane with 24 seconds left Tuesday night to flip in the layup that gave Rice's rallying Owls a 61-40 basketball victory over Texas Tech.

When Tech's Tom Patten got one last desperate shot minutes later, it was Rodrigue who bounded for Rice and clutched the ball as the buzzer sounded.

THUS WAS climaxed a season back by the Owls, who had been by 11 points in the first half, by three with just 51 seconds to play.

Rice, squeaking to its straight Southwest Conference victory, had trailed most of the night. Three times in the second half the Owls held one-point leads, but were quickly wiped out by Murren, Tech's 150-pound guard.

IT WAS Rodrigue who hit the shot with 1:22 left in the game that tied the score at 57-57 and set the stage for the breathing finish.

Tech led by 30-19 at one point in the first half, as the Owls ferred through a four-minute scoreless period. But with Keith Rhine, Larry Phillips and the Siegmund finding the range, the Owls cut the lead to 33-31 at half.

Phillips and Tech's Hal Demott tied for high point honors with 16 and Rhine was held to 16.
