

Ags Shocked, But Not Shook

BY JIM BUTLER
Battalion Sports Editor
 A complacent squad of Aggie cagers took a 20 minute shock treatment from the Baylor Bears Tuesday night and could thank their lucky stars that their guests weren't a more talented crew. But the second half showed why the Cadets are riding atop the South-west Conference as the Maroon scored 55 points for an 83-58 win. A&M hit intermission facing a 34-28 deficit after a weak 34.6 per cent shooting average plus six missed free throws. A revived crew greeted the second half tipoff with a flurry of buckets, grabbed the lead and ran the winning margin to 25 points before time ran out.

THE RALLY WAS ignited by all-American candidate Bennie

Lenox and a talented newcomer to Aggieland who was playing only his fourth game in G. Rollie White—Ken Norman.

Lenox scored 20 of his 24 points in the second period spurt, connecting on eight of 10 shots. Norman dropped in nine points in the final period and finished with 11 to take runner-up honors to Lenox in scoring.

Meanwhile the spirited Cadet defense limited the hapless Bears to only six field goals and a 22 per cent shooting average in the final 20 minutes. The loss was the fifth for the Bears in SWC play without a victory.

A&M's first half lethargy was even more surprising since the Cadets hit three of their first four shots. Twice they went two minutes before scoring a point. Fortunately Baylor couldn't do much better and had to rely on free throws for their halftime lead.

With lefty Bill Gasway leading the way with 10 rebounds, the Aggies dominated the backboards 46-32.

Twelve players saw action for Shelby Metcalf's crew with all except John Reynolds gaining the scoring column. Sophomore guard Dick Stringfellow played an outstanding defensive game with several steals and blocked shots. Stringfellow also tallied 10 points to make three Aggies in double figures.

Winston Moore topped Baylor scoring with 10 points.

Fish Find Winning Attack, Defeat Baylor Cubs, 64-61

Starting off a double-header sweep on the Aggie court Tuesday night, the Fish squad emerged with their first victory of the campaign with a 64-61 triumph over the Baylor Cubs.

After bowing in six previous games, the Fish found the winning ingredients in the combined shooting of Reggie Gilbreath and J. C. Smith to hand the Cubs their fifth loss of the season.

Gilbreath led the charges with 19 points but was pressured hard for the most points from his teammate, Smith who finished with 18 for the night. Curley Lenox was third highest scorer for the Fish with 10 points.

The Fish, coached by student-coach David Stiles, made a fine showing of themselves in the first half action, leading all the way until Dwayne Murphy dumped in two free throws tying the score at 29-29 with just 13 seconds remaining before intermission.

Curley Lenox got two consecutive field goals to put the Fish in the lead in the new half but the battling Cubs edged closer until the score was again even, 33-33. The lead changed hands 9 times before the Fish were to take the lead for the last time with 1:51 left in the game.

The game was so close that the biggest margin the Fish could accumulate at any one time was five points while the Cubs could only manage a three point lead.

Baylor Down, With One To Go On Farmer's One-Game Slate

BY MAYNARD ROGERS
 According to the thinking of Coach Shelby Metcalf, the Aggies have only a one-game basketball schedule, and they get a brand new one every Tuesday and Saturday.

That's a coach's way of saying his boys play them one at a time, with the toughest game being the next one on the list.

The toughest game for the Aggies Tuesday night was with the Baylor Bears, because that was who they were playing at the time.

FOR A HALF the Bruins were tough, leading 34-28 when the dressing room opened, and the Cadets couldn't remember who was next on the schedule because all they saw was the scoreboard as they trotted off the court.

But 'Ol Army came back with a 55-point showing in the second half to take an 83-58 victory for their fifth straight Southwest Conference win against no defeats and Bennie Lenox looked his old self again.

BUT WHAT WAS the reason for the Ags not being able to buy a basket in the first stanza?

Metcalf, the sports writer's thesaurus, claims the game was a letdown to his men after staying on the road for so long.

"The letdown was natural after all those road wins," the cage master said, "But we're used to playing a close first half."

 "WE WERE disappointed in the first half with Baylor being 0-4. But the second half was better. If you could put two halves like that together, you'd be great."

Metcalf went on to say, "Baylor has the material, and they should beat one of the conference contenders in Waco. Heck, even the Mets win a few games."

Tech; Ponies, Rice Win Too

FORT WORTH (AP)—With 5-foot-11 John Malaise and 6-foot-8 Harold Denney igniting the attack, Texas Tech held off stubborn TCU here Tuesday night to win 90-74 before 2,488.

FAYETTEVILLE (AP)—Arkansas led most of the first half but hit a cold streak midway through the last and Rice charged to a 76-63 Southwest Conference basketball victory over the Razorbacks Tuesday night.

AUSTIN (AP)—Jim Brockman shot two free throws with one second left in an overtime Tuesday night as Southern Methodist captured a wild Southwest Conference basketball game 76-74 over Texas.

During the dead week competition that changed the over-all standings five championships were decided in three sports, horseshoes, flag football and volleyball.

In horseshoes Squadron 10 won over Squadron 6 in the Class A battle for the title. Members of the winning team were Winton Zimmerman, Melvin Yarbrough, Jay Belote, Gerald Siegelin, Johnny Warren, Norman Bond and Bob Bordovsky.

In Class C horseshoes Puryear topped Mitchell to win the cham-

INTRAMURALS

Company F-1, Squadron 10 and Mitchell Hall now lead their separate classes as the intramural program goes into the first week of activity of the new semester.

Squadron 10 was the only organization to maintain its lead after five activities reached completion during dead week.

THE CURRENT standings in Class A competition behind F-1 are Squadron 10 in second place, Company C-3 in third, Squadron 7 in fourth and Company C-2 in fifth.

Following Squadron 10 in Class B competition are Squadron 16 in second, Company E-2 in third, Squadron 17 in fourth and Company C-1 in fifth.

In Class C Puryear Hall is second behind Mitchell, and the National Science Foundation is in third.

DURING THE dead week competition that changed the over-all standings five championships were decided in three sports, horseshoes, flag football and volleyball.

In horseshoes Squadron 10 won over Squadron 6 in the Class A battle for the title. Members of the winning team were Winton Zimmerman, Melvin Yarbrough, Jay Belote, Gerald Siegelin, Johnny Warren, Norman Bond and Bob Bordovsky.

In Class C horseshoes Puryear topped Mitchell to win the chamionship. Playing for Puryear were Henry Fisher, Bill Burge, Larry Warren, Ben Calloway, Lester, Dan Mitchell and Ray Fisher.

Company A-3 beat out Company B-1, 16-0 to earn the Class A flag football championship. A-3's players were Richard Adams, Bob Clark, Jim Shaunty, Kirby Warren, and Joel Goldman.

DORM 13 won over the Varsity Students 12-6 in the same activity to win that Class C title. Members of Dorm 13's team included William Brownlee, Paul Goetz, Thomas Morgan, Stein Galt, Dwight Griggs, Charles Taggart, Larry Weilde and Cliff Harter.

Also competing were Larry Kacy, Kenton Marshall, C. T. Kuper, R. S. Nash and S. Smith.

In the only Class B competition to reach completion during dead week, Company F-3 beat Company A-3 for the volleyball title. Playing for F-3 were Harold Coates, Michael Zak, Clyde Englehardt, Arnold Wall, Pat Cangelose, Ed Young and Kent Franze.

The open handball tournament will be held Feb. 11 with on-site spot registration. Wrestling weigh-ins are to be held Feb. 10-11.

Thursday, the intramural managers will be treated to a steak at 6:15 p.m. in Hensel Park.
