

Conference Fares Well On Gridiron; Shows Superiority Over Opponents

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

The sudden change in the Oklahoma coaching setup whereby Bud Wilkinson, compiler of college football's greatest record, stepped down in favor of politics, accentuated the fact that the Southwest Conference has become one of the most stable leagues in the country.

Records show that not since 1940 had there been two straight years without a coaching change until the past two. Only 1949 and 1960 escaped at least one coach leaving for one reason or another.

But in 1962 Southern Methodist brought in Hayden Fry to replace Bill Meek and A&M substituted Hank Foldberg for Jim Myers.

Now two seasons have passed and there is no indication of a coaching change anywhere. There shouldn't be any anyway. The conference did very well indeed last campaign and wound up leading the nation.

Counting bowl games, in which the conference won two out of three, the league had a 15-9 inter-sectional record.

The conference also produced the national champion despite what the Washington Touchdown Club had to say about it.

This unique organization picked Navy as No. 1 after it lost to Southern Methodist and then proclaimed Navy national champion after Texas blistered the Middies 28-6 in the Cotton Bowl.

Everyone (including Navy) except the Washington Touchdown Club found Texas, unbeaten and untied in 11 games, to be national king.

The Washington Touchdown

Club at least got more publicity than other organizations that pick the champions, since it was so different.

Anyway, all Southwest Conference teams had their big moments last campaign and generally the league appeared to be its strongest in history.

Only one section showed a superiority over the Southwest. That was the Big 10, whose Michigan beat Southern Methodist and Ohio State licked Texas A&M. Those were the only games between the two leagues. It isn't known what might have happened had the first division teams like Texas, Baylor and Rice had Big 10 engagements.

Penn State won the only game for the East when it beat Rice. Navy was the only other eastern team met and it proceeded to lose two games to the Southwest.

Missouri was the only Big Eight team able to win one. The Tigers got Arkansas. But Oklahoma State, Kansas and Kansas State all tumbled to the Southwest, Oklahoma State twice.

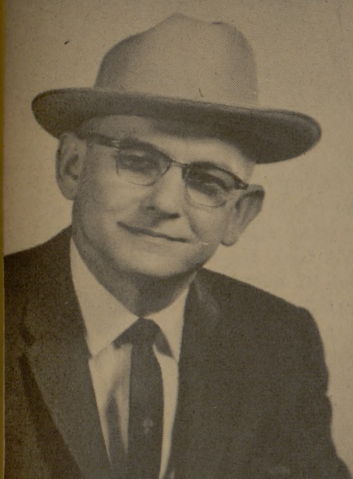

The conference came out ahead over the south for the first time in years, beating Tulane, Florida State and Louisiana State, the latter twice, while losing two to Louisiana State and once to Kentucky.

The conference beat Stanford, Washington State and Air Force of the west while losing to Oregon and Oregon State.

Bowlwise the showing was very good with Texas beating Navy in the Cotton and Baylor strapping Louisiana State in the Bluebonnet. Southern Methodist lost a squeaker to Oregon in the Sun Bowl.

Zubik Announces For Congress

Jack Zubik, College Station tailor and Mayor ProTem of the City of Bryan, a lifetime resident of this area, announced his candidacy in the Democratic primary for Congress from the 6th District.

"More jobs for the inhabitants of this area and legislation to spur economic growth in this district should be some of the primary tasks of all of our representatives in public office from this area," Zubik said.

"Because I believe in this so strongly, I pledge to work closely with all rural, city and county leaders on such fine programs as a dam site for this district and other programs for progress that will give our children the things they so richly deserve from an area as blessed with natural resources as ours. We must stop this movement of our young people away from this area in search of better job opportunities. I will work for increased educational opportunities for our children. I will support President Johnson's program to cut taxes and to provide medical care for our older citizens. You can count on me always to support the interests of agriculture and the farmer, to uphold the right of the working men and to stand firmly beside the small businessman," he said. "My program is a 'new frontier' for Central Texas. It points the way for the people of the 6th Congressional District in every community to join together to build a better place in which to live through proper and progressive legislation by a representative who resides and has a vested interest in the people and the untapped sources of economic growth in this district," Zubik added.

Mr. Zubik was born April 20, 1917 in Bryan, Brazos County, Texas. He married Anne Zemanek in 1938 and they have four children. In May, 1944, Zubik joined the armed forces under a voluntary induction act and was assigned to the 45th Infantry Division. He saw combat services in France and Germany and was honorably discharged in November of 1945. He served four years in the Texas National Guard upon returning to Bryan. He received the Combat Infantryman's Badge, European Campaign Medal with 2 Bronze Stars, Purple Heart Medal, Bronze Star Medal, Good Conduct Medal and the Victory Medal. Mr. Zubik is a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church. He has also been an active leader in Boy Scout Work and was awarded the Scout's Key, order of the Arrow and Ad Alters Dei Award from the Catholic Committee on Scouting.

He is a member of the American Legion, V.F.W., Chamber of Commerce, Knights of Columbus and he served on the Red Cross Board and Chamber of Commerce Fund drives and the United Fund Drive.

Mr. Zubik has been "a loyal Democrat all my life and I have always supported the Democratic Party."

Mr. Zubik pledged "I won't be an absentee Congressman. I will always maintain my home in our 6th Congressional District and keep in close personal contact with all my constituents."

"In the tradition of our late President John F. Kennedy, I shall try to always be the type of representative that he would have been proud of. That is why I call my program for progress—the 'new frontier', as it surely is, here in our district. As your Congressman, I will always raise my voice and cast my vote in the great traditions of the Democratic party, the party of the people."

Mr. Zubik will leave Bryan on Monday to travel extensively through the 6th Congressional District. "This will strictly be a 'poor boy' campaign. I will travel throughout the district and try to meet as many of the people as I can. I am running this campaign because I feel, as do my many friends who have encouraged me to run, that a change is needed. I have no special interest groups backing me financially and that's the way I want it. I feel that a seat in Congress cannot be bought—it must be earned," Zubik said.
