Tremendous Effort—Championship Still Ahead

In the very truest sense the Aggies were not beaten last night, but only outscored—and by a very small margin at that.

We sincerely hope that Coach Shelby Metcalf and the Aggie cagers don't feel badly about that little Lubbock trip. We certainly don't see anything for Aggies to be disappointed about. The Ags put up a tremendous effort and we're still looking forward to the second round of conference play and a Southwest Conference championship.

The display of the Fightin' Texas Aggie Spirit at Easterwood Field last night was living proof of the never-say-die spirit that is characteristic of only Fightin' Texas Aggies—"it's the Spirit of Aggieland."

Just as that ball club can know that it played a champion's ballgame in Lubbock, the Seniors who will be graduating this May can rest assured—after last night—that the Spirit of Aggieland lives on; and that it will continue to live on.

We are confident that the Aggie basketball team will perform in the true style of Aggies and make the Rice Owls wish Saturday night that Tech had come out on the short end of the stick. Tech has been played, and played well, the next hurdle to the SWC title are the birds from down Houston way.

It's up to the students and the citizens of Bryan and College Station to see to it that G. Rollie White is filled to capacity Saturday night. We've got a winning team and they deserve all the support we can muster for them.

See you at the victory party Saturday night.

Citizens Will Curse J.F.K. Someday Says John Birch

NEW YORK (AP) — A John Birch Society publication contains an article in its current issue saying that as long as there are Americans, the late President John F. Kennedy's "memory will be cherished with distaste." It speculates on the possibility they "will curse him" some day.

John Welch, founder of the society and editor of the publication, the American Opinion, described the article as "superb commentary."

The article appears under the name of Revillo P. Oliver, professor of classics at the University of Illinois. He is a member of the society's national commission.

Oliver wrote that Kennedy: "Procured his election by peddling boob-bait to the suckers."

—Supported the Central Intelligence Agency in "a fake invasion" of Cuba designed to strengthen our mortal enemies there."

—Collaborated with Soviet Premier Khrushchev in a "phony embargo" to provide a cover for transfer of Soviet troops and weapons to Cuba to use against the United States.

—Arranged to subvert and sabotage this nation's defenses.

—Did much for "the Communist conspiracy" but was falling behind a scheduled date for the "effective capture of the United States" in 1963, and was "rapidly becoming a political liability."

"And if the international vermin succeed in completing their occupation of our country," the article added, "Americans will remember Kennedy while they live, and will curse him as they face the firing squads or toll in a brutish degradation that leaves no hope for anything but a speedy death."

The society, in full-page newspaper advertisements last December, had said Kennedy was slain in a Communist plot.

The advertisements said the assassination proved "tragically but conclusively" that the society was right in a campaign against what it called the "terminal menace" of communism.

The society asked for donations from "every red-blooded American" to extend its advertising campaign. It said Communists could be expected to use American "shock, grief and confusion" to speed their plans.

Editor, The Battalion:

Congratulations on your magnificent journalistic fortitude. Your February 7 editorial would have made Joseph Pulitzer proud. In times like these it must take raw courage to come out in favor of the American flag.

Next, you must strike a blow for honor, charity and motherhood. And the... well, who knows? Perhaps you can even unleash your fury against TV western villains.

Editor, The Battalion:

Recently a member of the Batt staff lamented on the plight of the pedestrian crossing streets on the A&M campus. It reminded me when a friend of mine jerked me out of the path of a car which I am certain was traveling at least 20 or 25 miles per hour too fast in that particular speed zone. Of course I should have been looking where I was going, but there would have been no chance whatsoever for that driver to stop before hitting me had my friend not pulled me back.

In my 3 1/2 years at A&M this condition has not changed. Very few people drive the speed limits on campus. The situation is dangerous. Certainly rights of the pedestrian are not respected.

I wonder how many speeding tickets have been given this year by the local authorities. I have never seen any overt regulation of the campus speed limit laws nor have I heard of any — in 3 1/2 years.

Editor, The Battalion:

In his recent article concerning the President's State of the Union message, Reynolds came forth with a quite incorrect statement. He implied that liberals, apparently anyone who has poor spitting ability or swings a sign with his left hand, wished Goldwater would disappear. Quite the contrary is true, because we enjoy Senator Goldwater. We think he is a very intelligent man for not having a college education — and besides he has a very good comedy routine. His program of banishment of the T.V. A., non-recognition of Russia, criticism of the ability of our ICBMs, and return to the Articles of Confederation are some of his best jokes. They must be jokes for that seems to be the public's reaction to them. So you see, Johnson, as did Ken-nedly, does not fear Goldwater as a candidate because all he has to do is see that the American people are able to hear the Arizona "clown" everytime he sticks his plastered foot in his mouth, which seems to be his uncontrollable habit.

In my opinion the Conservative movement is the biggest farce in American politics today. Its god is Goldwater, who can do no wrong, and anyone who questions his opinions is either a Socialist or Communist. It is not a patriotic movement but rather a revolution of hate, bigotry and ignorance. It is a combination of the John Birchers, Segregationists, DARS, and old Klu Klux Klanners. Its direction is backward, its position awkward, and its membership geared to the fanatic. The Conservative movement belongs with Senator Goldwater's policies in the age of the French Revolution; however, the French were for "equality" weren't they?

Therefore, I would like to suggest a name change of the article "Reynolds' Rap" to "Reynolds Rants Right."
