

Golden Gloves Set To Decide Titles

FORT WORTH (AP)—Four former champions will be among the state's best amateur boxers who will start battling for Texas Golden Gloves championships Thursday night.

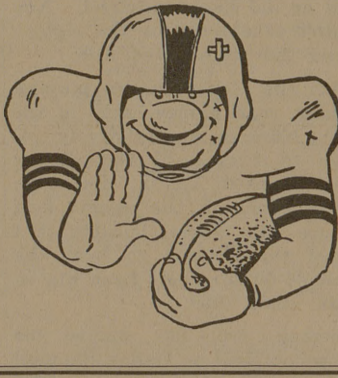

The state tournament sponsored for the 28th consecutive year by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram for charity, is a four-night affair.

Boxing Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights will clear the decks for the crowning of champions Monday night. The eight titlists will represent Texas in the National Golden Gloves Tournament at Louisville, Ky., starting Feb. 24.

Returning to defend titles will be featherweight Floyd Molina and light heavyweight Wayne Morris, both of Fort Worth. Sammy Alvarez of Odessa, flyweight champion last year, will compete as a featherweight and Manny Perez of Amarillo, welter king, is back for another shot at the crown.

Lenox Shrinks Rhine's Lead; Younger Brother Heads Fish

Bennie Lenox kept up his deadly assault on the SWC scoring lead Tuesday night pumping in 30 points, just three shy of Rice pacesetter Kendall Rhine who heads the circuit with 160 total points.

After seven conference games, Lenox has dumped in 157 points averaging 22.4 points a game. John Beasley follows the versatile Lenox with 93 points and a 13.3 mark. His high conference game came against the Rice Owls when he dropped in 22 points. Lenox scored his most points in the Tech game.

BILL ROBINETTE and Paul Timmins follow in a close race for third and fourth places respectively. Robinette has 68 points and a 9.7 average while his teammate Timmins has 64 points and a 9.1 average.

In the rebounding department, John Beasley has a wide lead with 64 to his credit. The closest contender is Timmerman with 48. Robinette follows in a close third with 45 off the boards.

UNTIL THE TECH splurge in points, the most scored against the Aggies in conference warfare was 70 by the Rice squad. The Aggies have racked up 543 points for a 77.6 mark while the opposition has tallied with 461 and a 65.9 average.

Heading the Fish charges after eight season tilts is the younger Lenox (Curley) who has chalked up 143 points, 75 of those in conference action. In league play, Lenox has averaged 18.8 points and his high game was against the Rice Owls where he scored 25.

J. C. SMITH follows in second place in total scoring with 112 points with 62 in conference play. Reggie Gilbreath has 57 to his credit against SWC foes.

Lenox also leads in the rebounding category with 37 while Smith follows with 31 to his credit. The Fish have scored 294 points in league action while the opponents have tallied 349 points.

A BUSY COACH
LOUISVILLE, KY. (AP)—John Dromo does much of the basketball recruiting for the University of Louisville, serves as assistant varsity and head freshman basketball coach and varsity golf coach.

It wasn't always this way. When Louisville hired Dromo 12 years ago, he came here as assistant football coach.

A&M Signs Six Gridders

Tuesday marked open season on high school football prospects and first reports show Aggie recruiters with six names on pre-enrollment applications. Five are high school seniors and one is a junior college graduate.

In an effort to strengthen the middle line, the Maroon secured the name of Rex Wilson, 6-3, 210, from Mt. Pleasant. Wilson was an All-American tackle at Texarkana Junior College.

All-stater Howard Van Loon is the second tackle to be signed by the Aggies. Van Loon, 6-2, 235, from Rotan, also won the Class A shot put title as a sophomore and was second as a junior.

A third lineman is guard Jerry Brausel, 6-1, 205. Brausel was a starter for the Lubbock Westerners.

Three backs have been signed by the Aggies: Jack Benish, 5-11, 205, Corpus Christi Ray; L. B. Kubiak, 6-0, fullback from Rockdale; and Ronnie Menn, 6-0, 190, halfback from Rockdale.

Kubiak and Menn led Rockdale to an undefeated regular season and number one ranking until being upset by Taylor in the first playoff game.

Early reports had Menn going to the University of Texas. But after a visit to Aggieland, Menn chose to side with the Maroon. Wilson will be eligible for varsity competition next season.
