She Smokes 'Em
Because She Likes 'Em
Actress Barbara Bouchet, who hails from Germany, enjoys a cigar in her dressing room during a break in filming the movie, "Sex and the Single Girl," in which Barbara plays the part of a nightclub photographer. She puffs conventional sized stogies like this around the studio but out on a date she smokes miniature cigars "because they're more feminine." (AP Wirephoto)

Architects Display Women Le From 8 Foreign Countries Fo

By J. M. TIJERINA
Special Writer

A photo collection of European and American girls is now on display in the Architecture Library. The portraits of British, French, German, Spanish, Italian, Mexican, Brazilian, Cuban and U. S. girls are part of an unfinished album entitled "Mon Hommage A La Femme" (My Homage to the Female) being made by Noe Marmolejo.

Marmolejo, fifth year architecture major, has spent the past three summers on foreign soils studying architecture. In his studies of beautiful structures he has always admired the female as being most eye appealing. Hence he has devoted his extra time to studying and photographing the opposite sex.

He believes the Italian girls to be the most beautiful. You find that they fall for you very easy but they will just as easy drop you, he added.

Radio Executive Escapes Shooting

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas police said Wednesday night a woman shot at a man at the municipal airport in the belief that her target was radio executive Gordon McLendon.

McLendon, who owns and operates radio stations in several cities, is currently seeking the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senator to succeed incumbent Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex.

Police Lt. E. L. Cunningham described the 47-year-old Dallas widow as "pretty well emotionally disturbed." He quoted her as saying she was a free lance writer.

According to Detective Harvey Totten, the woman said she wanted to shoot McLendon because "He is a communist."

HE LABELS THE SPANISH "Most sophisticated an Player French girls," he said. The Jennie Le their own little world which John Beas them. Once they get to know Jim Timm they are all right. Dick Strin about as if they don't care anyone else's business but own, are surprisingly friendl stated. They are also quite tive and cosmopolitan.
