Hey, That's Mine!

First Co-ed Athletic Team To Represent A&M In ACU

The Association of College Unions Region IX Games Tournament opens Friday in Austin and A&M will be well represented in the four categories.

The tournament will mark the first appearance of a female athletic team representing Aggieland. The distaffers will participate in the Women's Division of the bowling competition.

The five girls going to Austin will be Mary Frances Badgett, Joyce Colvin, Carol Hart, Shirley Coco and Doris McCafferty. The co-eds will be accompanied by their sponsor Mrs. Gloria German.

A&M's men keggers will be trying to better their second place finishes in the last two meets. Bowling for the Aggies will be Larry Glisan, Jim Milstead, Rich Rasmussen, Ray Snow and Dalton Hill.

Representing A&M in table tennis will be Spencer Gaille and Converse Lewis.

This year's tourney marks the first time A&M has entered a billiards' team. Playing cushion billiards will be Omar Flores while pocket billiards will be played by a five state area of Texas, New Mexico, Louisiana, Mississippi and Oklahoma.

Teams will be competing from
