BSU Series On Citizenship Begins Monday

Dr. William Pinson, professor of Christian ethics at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, will speak Monday on "Contemporary Campus Christian: American Citizen."

His talk will be the first of a three-night series to be conducted by the A&M Baptist Student Union at the First Baptist Church in College Station at 7 p.m. Monday through Wednesday.

The series is entitled "Contemporary Campus Christian" and will consider three aspects of the student Christian: as an American citizen, a world citizen and a committed Christian.

Pinson has worked closely with national political leaders and is quite an authority on his subject, BSU director Prentis Chunn said recently.

Pinson will conduct an informal seminar at 5 p.m. Monday in the All Faiths Chapel on Christian Citizenship.

Class Of '19 Slates Reunion

From as far away as Chevy Chase, Maryland and Kennewick, Washington, members of the Class of 1919 will meet this weekend for a reunion marking the 45th anniversary of their class.

J. B. Hervey, Executive Secretary of the Association of Former Students, said he expects about 20 members and their wives to be present. "Although this seems small," he said, "it must be remembered that because of the First World War the class of 1919 is one of the smallest classes we have in our association." There were 60 graduates in that class.

The reunion program begins Saturday noon with a luncheon in the Memorial Student Center. That afternoon members will attend the A&M-SMU baseball game and a dinner party is scheduled for Saturday night.

Charles W. Crawford is the General Chairman for the Reunion.
