

Mustangs Win Aquatic Crown In Meet Action

Southern Methodist University swam off with the Southwest Conference swimming championship over the week-end, giving them their eighth consecutive crown. The Aggie representatives brought up the rear in the four team race. SMU finished with 198 points, 64 ahead of runnerup Texas who tallied 134 markers. Texas Tech and the Aggies wound up with 54 and 20 points respectively. No other conference schools were entered into the meet.

Jumping off to a quick start, the Mustang swimmers won four of five events in opening day festivities Thursday. Tudor Lacey, SMU's South African star, paced the squad with 24½ points as he won three first places and swam off the Mustangs' winning 400-yard freestyle relay.

In first day action, Aggie James Hooten and Mike Palmer placed in the 50-yard freestyle and one-meter diving events, respectively. Hooten finished fifth in the freestyle while Palmer came in sixth in diving with a 294.95.

Mike Offner took fifth place honors in the 100-yard breaststroke Sunday afternoon in the final day of swimming action. Lacey led off his swimming feats in the final day doing the 1,650 freestyle in 18 minutes and 7 seconds, well under the 18:53.6 set by Texas' Mim Graves last year.

Fish Baseballers Play Panola Juco

A&M's fish baseball team takes a 1-0 record into a double-header with Panola Junior College Tuesday afternoon in Kyle Field.

Roberts, Collins Star In Odessa

It was a field day for the Aggies at the West Texas Relays in Odessa Saturday, and the boys who earned the most points were field men like Danny Roberts, John Collins and Bobby Brown.

For the third meet in a row, Roberts swept the field in his specialties, the shot put and discus. The big senior lofted the shot 58 feet for a first and sailed the discus 169-11 for another gold medal. David Glover captured a fourth place in the discus for the Maroon with a 153-8½ effort.

Freshman Randy Matson competed in exhibition and tossed the shot 62-2½, the second best effort of his short career.

John Collins was the iron man for the Aggies, taking places in the high jump, broad jump, 120-yard high hurdles and running on the third-place mile relay team.

The Liberty junior won the high jump with a leap of 6-1½, and took a fifth place in the broad jump with a 22-6½ effort. Collins also took fifth in the hurdles with a time of 15 seconds.

A&M's mile relay, comprised of Collins, Pat Mitchell, Jerry Anderson and Ted Nelson, turned in a 3:17.1.

Brown was nudged out of first place in the broad jump by Archie McClure of the University of Houston by a quarter of an inch. McClure managed a 23-5½ while Brown leaped 23-5¼ for second place.

The Aggies earned a fifth place in the distance medley relay with a team of Gene Westmorland, John Duran, Earl Myers and Ilhan Bilgutay.

Sophomore Dan Meadows hurled the javelin 190-5½ to take a third place in that event for A&M.

The Texas Longhorns took the over all meet with 60½ points while Houston tallied 56 markers. SMU, which broke two relay records, won third place with 38½ and the Aggies were fourth with 34 points.

Sports Day Tickets On Sale

Tickets have gone on sale for the big Spring Sports Day coming up March 21, announced Jim Keller, president of the sponsoring "T" Association.

Tickets are $1 and can be purchased at the athletic business office and the cashier in the Memorial Student Center.

Ducats will be good for admission to three athletic events—a track meet, baseball game and football game.

The thinculds host Rice and Louisiana State in the cinder meet while the baseballers meet the Texas Longhorns.

The day will be capped with the annual Maroon and White intrasquad football game.

Cougars Seek Membership In Conference

HOUSTON (AP) — The board of regents of the University of Houston said Monday the school would make application for membership in the Southwest Conference.

THE HOUSTON school has made application previously but this is the first time since it became a state supported institution.

"...The University of Houston has developed a very fine program in intercollegiate athletics as a proper part of the institution's overall activities," Col. W. B. Bates, chairman of the board of regents, said in a statement.

"TEAMS IN ALL major sports have won many state, regional and national honors while consistently scheduling strong opponents.

"The board of regents of the University of Houston concurs in the recommendation of the president and faculty athletic committee that the next step in the development of this program... should be membership in the Southwest Conference. We are therefore adopting a policy of pursuing such membership at the earliest possible date."

Houston, now an independent, was once a member of the Missouri Valley Conference.

Soccer Team Makes Finals In Texas Cup

A&M's fine soccer team moved into the finals of the Texas Cup competition with a 3-0 victory over Randolph Air Force Base in San Antonio Sunday.

Finals will be played April 12 in San Antonio. A&M's opponent will be the International Soccer Club of San Antonio. The match will start at 2 p.m.

Sunday the Aggies will play the United Soccer Club of Houston for the Houston Cup. The Aggies have won 10 games this season while dropping two and tying one.

TCU Hosts Ags In Diamond Play

The weatherman has promised clear weather for A&M's second scheduled Southwest Conference baseball game but the first to be played.

Coach Tom Chandler's crew are in Fort Worth to face title-co-favorite TCU Tuesday afternoon. The Aggies were supposed to open conference play against SMU Saturday but were rained out.

The Horned Frogs, sporting an 0-1 record after losing its opener to Rice Saturday, share pre-season top billing with the Texas Longhorns. TCU and Texas tied for the title last season with the Steers going to the nationals.

The Aggies finished third and are picked for the same spot this time around.

TCU's strength come mainly from its pitching staff of Pat Peebles, Lance Brown and Ron Serben. Brown threw a 2-hit shutout in his last outing and will probably get the starting nod against the Aggies.

The top hitters for the Frogs are centerfielder Bob Bigley, right fielder Jay Walrath and third sacker J. W. Holt.

Walrath led the league in hitting last season as a sophomore. Holt hit a solo home run in TCU's 3-2 loss to Rice.

Chandler will probably go with a lineup of experience with senior Chuck McGuire on the mound. Other seniors in the starting lineup will be second sacker Bill Grochett, centerfielder George Hargett, right fielder Robert McAdams and catcher Bill Hancock.

Juniors will hold down two of the infield positions—Jerry Ballard at shortstop and Dewayne Stewart at first. Sophomore Mike McClure will open at third with soph Lance Cobb in left field.

Hornung, Karras Reinstated In National Football League

NEW YORK (AP) — Paul Hornung and Alex Karras, two top pro football stars whose suspension last year for betting on games shook the National Football League to its foundations were reinstated Monday after sitting out one full season.

Hornung, the Green Bay Packers' Golden Boy who led the NFL in scoring three years' and Karras, the Detroit Lions' tough defensive tackle, were suspended indefinitely last April 17.

Both had admitted to betting on their own teams to win games and on games in which they were not involved.

NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle announced their reinstatement, effective immediately, in a prepared statement which emphasized that neither had been charged with betting against his own team or with giving less than his best effort in any game.

Bowlers Down Three Teams, Move To Third

A&M's bowling team took a giant step toward clinching a fifth straight Texas Intercollegiate Bowling Conference championship with a perfect day on the lanes Saturday.

Going into Saturday's game, A&M was in fifth place, 14 games behind leader Arlington State. Aggie kleglers swept 12 straight games from three foes. The pressure-packed sweep moved the Cadets to third place, only one game out of the top spot.

Behind the spectacular shooting of freshman Dalton Hill, the Aggies opened the day by taking four games from the University of Houston. Hill's giant share of the winning 2758 series was 1000 points.

A&M came back from the break to shutout San Antonio College 4-0 with freshman Mike Shanahan leading the way. Shanahan contributed 577 to a 2743 series.

For the final set, the Aggies took on first place Arlington State in a climactic match. But the consistent Cadets were too much for ASC. A&M shot three consecutive 900-plus games to win all three points.

Senior Larry Glisan paced the team with a 582 as the Aggies tallied 2778 for their best mark of the day.
