Spring Grid Game Shows Tremendous Spirit Of Team

Danny McIlhany's White squad won the A&M Intra-Squad Football Tournament in a unique spring game played on Kyle Field Saturday night.

Coach Hank Foldberg devised an ingenious plan to increase spectator interest and team spirit while showing off the tremendous progress the Aggies made in spring training.

Foldberg divided the players into four teams, identified by their quarterbacks and played a separate "game" each period in tournament fashion.

McIlhany's White — the first team — opened the night against Eddie McKaughan's Maroon—the third team—with the White taking a 7-0 win.

The second period matched Jim Willenborg's Maroon—second team—and Charles LaGrange's White—fourth team. Willenborg's crew took a similar 7-0 win on a pass play from Willenborg to Ricky Whately.

The third quarter had the losers paired against each other and fourth period saw the winners play for the mythical spring title. LaGrange guided his White team to a 6-0 win for third place. McIlhany's White romped to a 14-0 decision for the championship.

Spectators were impressed with the all-round improvement of the gridlers. Blocking was sharp and that long-lost essential — speed—seems to have returned to Aggieland.

The running of fullback Budgie Ford was the highlight of the night. Ford picked up 72 yards on 11 carries. Halfback Mike Pitman was close behind with 58 yards in 13 tries.

Ag Thinclads Nudged By Rice Fish Drub Shorthorns, Owlets

BY MAYNARD ROGERS

One point was good enough for the Rice Owl thinclads Saturday as they staged a mild upset over the Aggies in the A&M-Rice-LSU track meet here. Rice tallied 68 team points to the Aggies' 67 while LSU scored 32.

But the Fish soothed Coach Charlie Thomas' pride by running up 75 points to swamp the Texas Shorthorns 40½ and the Rice Owlets 37½ in another meet here. A&M's varsity cindermen took seven first places to the Owls' six, but a loss in the mile relay and Ted Nelson's defeat in the 440-yard dash was the difference.

The Aggies had two double winners in the varsity competition. Danny Roberts set records in the shot put and discus with tosses of 59-¾ and 174, respectively. Distance man Ilhan Bilgutay took both the mile and three mile runs for A&M.

A sprint relay team of Robert Martin, Pat Mitchell, Richard Hall and Nelson won the event with a 41.5, while Bobby Brown took the broad jump with a 22-11½ leap. John Collins won the high jump at 6-4.

A strong Aggie Fish team, led by Randy Matson, Mike Schrider and Buddy Woodall, piled up points from the start and widened its margin with each event. Matson pushed the shot 60-10½ and the discus 168-9½.

Woodall won the broad jump with a 22-5¾ effort, placed fourth in the javelin and ran on the winning sprint and mile relay teams.

The 440-yard relay, comprised of Don Price, Buster Mason, Woodall and James White, marked a time of 42.4, while the mile four-some of Arie Britt, Darrell Wilk, Woodall and Larry McGough turned a time of 3:21.3. McGough also won the 440-yard dash.

A&M's baseball team continued a trend Saturday initiated by the SWC champion basketball team—beating the University of Texas.

The pin-point pitching of lefty Steve Hillhouse and booming bat of Lance Cobb — both sophomores — brought the Aggies a 5-2 win over the Longhorns in Travis Park.

Roaming centerfield for the first time this season, Cobb hit two long drives over the 330-foot marker in left field to knock in three Cadet tallies. Three Steer pitchers failed to get Cobb out. Besides his home runs, he was hit by a pitch and walked, scoring four times.

Meanwhile, Hillhouse hurled a seven-hitter, allowing no earned runs.

Texas Coach Bibb Falk started his best pitcher Bob Myer who had never lost to the Aggies. The ace right hander lasted five innings, giving up both home runs, before being lifted.

The Aggies opened the scoring in the second inning when Cobb was hit by a pitch, stole second and scored on George Hargett's double.

Cobb's first four-bagger in the fourth accounted for the second run while his second bomb brought in DeWayne Stewart who had walked in the fifth.

The win evened A&M's record to 1-1 in league play. Texas is now 2-1.

Cadet Swordsmen Place In Nationals

An Aggie fencing team of Hogue Lewis, E. A. (Chuso) Galinda and Avaro Restrepo finished 28 among 42 teams at the National Collegiate Fencing Championships Saturday at Harvard University.

The Aggies won 40 bouts and lost 30 with the close scores of 5-4, but beat such teams as UCLA, West Point and VMI. Galindo, who fenced with the epee, defeated Princeton and Navy men. Princeton won the meet, New York University placed second and Columbia University finished third.
